All-School Revue Set Tomorrow

Gala New Year's Opening Slated

Chapel Theatre will open the new year with a gala premiere performance of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," one of the funniest plays to hit the theater stage.

A champagne opening will be held Friday, Dec. 31, at Chapel Theatre, 4164 W. Pacific Coast Hwy.

The play, which has very little plot, is stuffed with laugh lines and promises to be one of the most entertaining productions ever staged by the theater group.

Principal Will Head State Group

Dr. Robert Ford, principal of West High School, received the approval of Torrance school board members Monday for his work in the California Association of Secondary Administrators high school evaluation program.

Dr. Ford, a member and vice chairman of the association's Large High School Committee, has been named to serve a two-year term as chairman.

Trustees authorized Dr. Ford to accept the chairmanship, then approved a trip to Burlingame, Calif., in February for a meeting of the committee.

Frank Vrooman of Torrance, winner of last year's award for best supporting actor in Chapel Theatre, will play the lead role of Pseudolus, while Alan Sinclair, the 1964 best comedy actor, will play the role of Senex. Sinclair is from Hollywood.

Norma Dobrick of Torrance is cast in the role of Domina, wife of Senex, and Rick Gates of Palos Verdes will be their son, Hero. Others in the cast are Carol Greenberg of Palos Verdes, Phyllis; Roland Petrell of Hawthorne, Erronius; Allan Freeman, Miles Gloriosus, and Renee Linskey, Vibrata.

The Roman costumes have been especially created by Mabel Monteleone and Beverly Prout of Redondo Beach. Both won acclaim for their costuming of "Becket" and "Volpone" at Chapel Theatre last season.

Reservations for the five-weekend run are being accepted at the box office, 372-9636. The play will run through Jan. 29 on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The New Year's Eve opening is being held at the Indian Village. A supper-dance will follow the initial performance, with tickets priced at $15 per couple. Limited reservations are available. Betty Schroeder, 375-1397, has information about opening night.
