

Bring on Cleveland, Cry of Los Angeles

Dizzy with success akin to that of a club fighter who has just scored TKO victories over two top challengers, the Rams now await the champ.

The champion Cleveland Browns, acknowledged heavy weight kingpins in 49 states (they are not recognized in Maryland) will answer the bell at the Coliseum today at 1:05 p.m. A crowd of 45,000 is expected to attend.

It's strictly a non-title bout, but the proud titleholders from Cleveland have the honor of their division at stake and sworn to uphold it.

"I'm a bit weary of this drive about Western Conference superiority," said Cleveland owner Art Modell when he arrived in town Monday, "and we're going to answer it the same way we did last December!"

Qualifying Announced For L.A. Open

Qualifying for the 40th annual Los Angeles Open golf tournament will be held Monday, Jan. 3 at Los Angeles Country Club, Hillcrest, Palos Verdes, California, Los Coyotes and Annandale.

A change in the qualifying procedure will have amateurs and pros qualifying together. Last year the amateurs qualified separately.

The number of qualifying spots open for the L. A. Open won't be known until the PGA exemption list is made known. The L. A. Open starting field will be 144 players.

For those with short memories . . . and shell-shocked Baltimoreans . . . the Browns' "answer" last December was a 27-0 knockout of the Colts.

On that chill day in Cleveland the Browns jabbed and feinted with the power of Jimmy Brown, scored heavily with uppercuts by Lou (The Toe) Groza, then applied the KO with overhead rights by Frank Ryan and fancy footwork by Gary Collins.

Ryan still was lurching away at the bell. They left the Colts for dead.

But since that day, the West has won 11 of 12 starts against the East and the prestige of their whole division rides again with coach Blanton Collier's bruisers.

Coach Harland Svara's boys, who have suffered their Western stablemates' best punches, have other ideas.

After taking a non-mandatory eight-count, the game Southern California battlers rose from the canvas and belted the bejabbers out of Green Bay and St. Louis.

And when the Rams cried, "Get me the champ next!", Commissioner Pete Rozelle replied, "I took care of that when I made out the schedule last Spring!"

Cleveland has more than Eastern Division prestige to motivate an all-out Coliseum effort today.

First and foremost is the matter of a competitive edge.

ROSE BOWL

Michigan State has been selected to play in three Rose Bowl games, and each time the opponent was UCLA.

Eber Named Jr. College All-American

End Rick Eber, Metropolitan Conference "player of the year" has been selected to the Junior College Grid-Wire All-American first team.

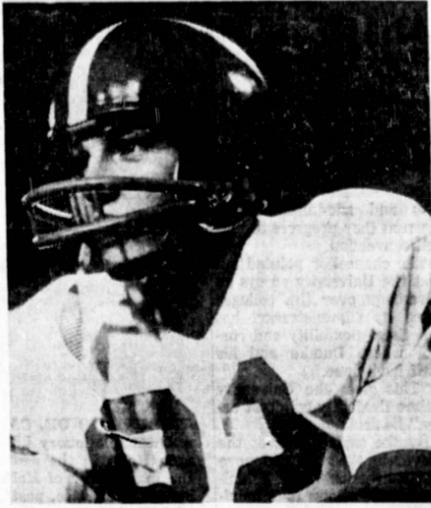

The El Camino pass catcher had 52 receptions for 1,066 yards and 10 touchdowns during the season.

Eber, a graduate of Redondo High School, is a sophomore student at El Camino.

Other members of the Metro Conference to make the All-American team were tackle Don Sam of Long Beach and Dennis Born, a guard, from Cerritos.

Haven Moses of Harbor was selected among the defensive backs.

The team is named in conjunction with the Junior Rose Bowl week in Pasadena.

ALL-AMERICAN . . . Junior college football player from El Camino is Rick Eber, recently named Metro Conference "player of the year."

2 Openings Remain in Basketball

Room for two teams exists for the 1966 Torrance adult basketball program, athletic supervisor Elmer "Red" Moon reports.

Openings in the Tuesday Open League will be filled on a first come basis, said Moon.

Schedules are being prepared for the start of play in most leagues during the first week in January.

Due to remodeling of North High School's gymnasium, the Monday Church League will start at 7 p.m. Dec. 20, and the Industrial League begins Thursday, Dec. 16, at 7 p.m.
