

HOLIDAY FELLOWSHIP ABOUNDS

Couples Club of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection traveled from home to home last evening, enjoying holiday music, food and friendships, as they staged their annual Progressive Dinner. Appetizers were served at the home of the Don Hansens with Emil and Betty Raulin as co-hosts. Dinner, served at the parish hall, was hosted by Max and Agnes Calvert, Doug and Betty Reese and Bill and Zona Tolliffe. The Dr. Ralph Blacks were hosts for the dessert assisted by Clinton and Virginia Calahan and Dick and Eunice Leef. As the party hour drew near, the scene above took place with Mrs. Emil Raulin, right, chairman of the appetizers committee, protecting her cream cheese hors d'oeuvre tree from, left, Mmes. Dick Leef, William Tolliffe and Don Hansen, until the husbands arrived. (Press-Herald Photo)

ON SANTA CLAUS TRIP

Loading the car with gaily wrapped Christmas gifts for the 172 senior citizens at St. Ann's Home for the Aged are, from left, Mmes. Robert D. Crain, social welfare chairman for Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, J. W. Crew, Charles Butterfield, grand regent, and David Biloki. This is one of the many charities the local court performed during the holidays. (Press-Herald Photo)

Future Brides

Carey-Hunter

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carey, 1939 236th St., Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Thomas B. Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter, 26320 Fairview Ave., Lomita.

No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect was graduated from South High School in June 1965. She is employed by Pacific Telephone in Torrance.

Her fiancé was graduated from Narbonne High School in 1961. He is serving with the United States Navy stationed at the submarine base in Pearl Harbor. Mr. Hunter is now at home on leave.

PATRICIA CAREY

Roberts - Hunt

Miss Jo Ann Roberts of Manhattan Beach will become the bride of Forrest E. Hunt, III of Torrance at an 11 o'clock nuptial mass at the American Martyrs Catholic Church in Manhattan Beach on Jan. 22, 1966.

The announcement of their daughter's wedding plans is made today by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts of Manhattan Beach.

The future bride, a Bishop Montgomery High School graduate, is presently a senior at Mount St. Mary's College, majoring in home economics.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Hunt, Jr., 23204 Juniper Ave., was also graduated from Bishop Montgomery. He received his degree in English from Loyola University and now is attending Loyola Graduate School.

JO ANN ROBERTS

For Elderly and Needy

Charity Tops Agenda

Remembering that it is "more blessed to give than to receive," members of Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, have been busy collecting and gift-wrapping presents for each of the 172 senior citizens at St. Ann's Home for the Aged in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Robert Crain, social welfare chairman for the court, will play "Santa Claus" when she and Santa's helper Mrs. David Biloki, deliver the surprise packages. Along with the Christmas gifts will go a large supply of napkins and place mats for the home, which the local court donates at regular intervals during the year.

Many needy families in the South Bay area will have a happier and brighter Christmas when the food baskets, collected and arranged by court members will be delivered in time for Christmas dinner.

The charity of Court St. Catherine will also spread to foreign lands as the $200 raised by the court's Mission Circle 1 at their recent holiday bazaar was sent to the African Mission Hospital of Dr. and Mrs. Herb Sorenson, formerly of Torrance, for much needed supplies.

As a climax to their efforts to make the Christmas holidays happier for the needy and the forgotten, court members will be entertained at a Christmas Party in the home of Mrs. Charles Butterfield, grand regent, with Mmes. Robert Crain and J. W. Crew planning a festive evening.

THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Around Santa Claus as they hear the story of the "Night Before Christmas" are these children of Torrance Junior Club members as they leave for the clubhouse to attend the annual Christmas party given for them by their mothers. The children are from left, Kevin McKenzie, 3, Bryan Burchfield, 2, Valerie Burchfield, 4, and Twyn Hunter, 2. (Press-Herald Photo)

Auxiliary Stages Yule Luncheon

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary held its Christmas luncheon and program on Tuesday, Dec. 14, at the Plush Horse restaurant.

Christmas angels decorated the luncheon tables.

Mrs. Sid Gans presented a program of Christmas music and led the group in singing Christmas carols.

Auxiliary members assisted with the Christmas party given for the hospital employees on Dec. 16.

Mrs. John Popovich and Mrs. Penny Thorup, dietitian, served as co-chairmen of the party. They were assisted by Mmes. Don Hyde, John Melville and Lyle Johnson.

Miss Jean Kresse, business manager of the hospital, was in charge of decoration and Mrs. Robert Peterson, secretary to Leonard Ensminger, administrator, was in charge of the program.

CLOSE YEAR WITH GIFT CHECK

As a grand finale to a successful year, Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept. presented a check for $100 to the Garden Valley Assn. for Mentally Retarded Children. The Auxiliary also furnished material for work smocks for the children which were made by the Mutual Improvement Assn. of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, directed by Mrs. Max Oetting. At the presentation are, from left, Mmes. Ronni Miller, Max Oetting, new auxiliary president, Mr. Earl Cleveland, principal-director at the school; Mmes. Denny Haas, junior past president, and Janis Burr. (Press-Herald Photo)