

Court of Honor Held By Scouts

Three Star Scouts have been recognized at a Court of Honor held by Boy Scout Troop 761 of North Torrance. The bi-annual court was held at Alondra Park Recreation Hall with Tom Edmunds, committee chairman, as master of ceremonies.

Robert Church, John Lias, and David McCutchen were awarded five merit badges each and recognized by the troop as Star Scouts.

First class rank was achieved by John Carman, Richard Cobb, and Steve Lias, while David Elam, Christopher Koury, Roy Bradford Miller, and Brent Puniwal were graduated to second class Scouts.

Assistant Scoutmaster Emanuel Morris presented the Silver Moccasin Award to Robert L. Church, Church, who received the award in special ceremonies, is the only member of the troop to earn the medal.

Scoutmaster Robert N. Church presented framed leadership scrolls to Emanuel Morris and Hobart Lias, assistant scoutmasters; Ray McCutchen, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Sandra Lias, food chairman and troop mother.

Committee chairman Edmunds received an engraved plaque for his three years of leadership. Edmunds served a year as Scoutmaster, and has served as committee chairman for the past two years, although his eldest son has graduated to the Explorers.

THE FOLLOWING boys received merit badges: Steve Lias, cooking; Rick Getten, swimming and first aid; John Lias, cooking, swimming, coin collecting, and stamp collecting; Robert Church, cooking, firemanship, electricity, home repairs, and painting.

David McCutchen received his four-year pin, while three-year pins were presented to Paul Shelton and Michael Morris. David Elam, Robert Pickett, John Carman, and Dan Fandey were given one-year pins.

FOLLOWING the awards presentation, new leaders of the troop for the coming year were installed. They include: Michael Morris, junior assistant scoutmaster; David McCutchen, senior patrol leader; and patrol leaders leaders John Lias of the Chargers, Thorn Hetwig of the Coyotes, and Rick Getten of the Vampires.

Assistant patrol leaders installed included: Dan Fandey, Chargers; Robert Church, Coyotes, and Steve Lias, Vampires.
