

Auxiliary Plans Busy '66 Agenda

Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department met for the first meeting of the new year, Monday evening, Jan. 3, at the home of Mrs. Dennis Haas, 3921 W. 186th, St. Torrance.

The auxiliary anticipates a busy 1966 with an event planned for each month of the calendar. A Past Presidents Tea, a Spring Fashion Show, an Easter Egg Hunt, a Pot Luck Dinner and a Fall Dance are a few of the interesting affairs to be held.

Mrs. Mack Oetting, newly installed president, named Mrs. John Span as cards and flowers chairman, Mrs. Joan Hughes, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Mark Andersen in charge of meeting notices.

At the close of business, "Secret Pal" names were drawn for the new year. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Mrs. Donald Lamb, Mrs. Mark Andersen and Mrs. Teddy Drake were welcomed as new members.

Attending were Mmes. Teddy Drake, Dennis Donatelli, Edward Siminich, Mack Oetting, John Blain, Mark Andersen, Dennis Haas, Donald Lamb, Bill Stonecker, Bruce Smith, John Hughes, John Span, and Walter West.

Local Juniors Will Attend District Meet

Mrs. Robert Valencia, president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, will head a delegation of members attending the Jan. 24 Marina District Conference at the James Monroe Junior High School in Inglewood.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Raymond Allison, Area C vice president.

The District Art Exhibit and Hallmark Art Contest will be judged that evening.

Among those attending from the Torrance Juniors will be Mmes. David Wade, first vice president and district fine arts chairman; Gordon Gmur, district youth chairman; Richard Neal, district financial secretary; and William Weyant, district safety chairman.

Oregon Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Gardner (Karen Giquinto) made a plane trip to Eugene, Ore. where they spent the holidays with Mr. Gardner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gardner.

PARENTS A school Savings Stamp Program teaches early thrift... and citizenship!

When your boys and girls buy U.S. Savings Stamps they learn two important habits early. Thrift—and good citizenship.

Stamps come in denominations of 10c, 25c and up. As the albums are filled they can be exchanged for U.S. Savings Bonds. And B Bonds return $4 for every $3 invested, in just 7 years, 9 months!

Isn't now a good time to start your boys and girls on a valuable stamp collection? U.S. Savings Stamps are available through school programs, or at any Post Office.

Pfau-Freas Vows Read

Miss Sandra Jean Pfau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Pfau, 1953 W. 253rd St., Lomita, walked down the aisle of the St. James Catholic Church, on the arm of her father, at high noon on Dec. 11, to exchange marriage promises with Ralph A. Freas, Jr. whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Freas, Sr., 25510 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

The traditional wedding gown was an angel skin peau de soie sheath with Alencon lace appliques enhancing the bodice and sleeves. The gown was fashioned with a full detachable train. A pearl tiara held her mantilla of illusion trimmed with lace. White carnations and miniature white roses formed the bridal bouquet.

Bridal attendants, in blue peau de faille sheaths, were Mrs. Howard Green serving as her sister's maid of honor; Miss Peggy Pfau and Mrs. Marcel Derouin.

Raleigh Harris performed the best man duties and ushers were Kent Miller and Leonard Wood.

Rev. Leo Donbrowski officiated at the marriage. Richard Bourguignon was soloist.

A reception was held in the parish hall after which the newlyweds spent a honeymoon in San Francisco.

The new address is 21006 Donora Ave., Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High school and her husband was graduated from South High.

A Family Reunion--And They Were All Present

A family dinner on Jan. 9 at the Jump'n Jack Restaurant was a first time experience for a local family although they all live in the area. Several reunions had been planned in the past but always there was one family member missing.

Mrs. John Wardwell, 3205 W. Carson St., the youngest family member, set the date and the place and they were all there.

Together for the evening were brothers and sisters, their husbands and wives, including Messrs. and Mmes. John Wardwell of Torrance; Cleve Webster, Gardena, and Ed Blumer, Lynwood. Brothers and wives present were Messrs. and Mmes. Sidney Denney, Lawndale; Arthur Denney, Sr., Gardena; Elmer Denney, Compton, and William Denney, Santa Maria.

Juniors Plan Show for Hospitalized Children

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club will present a musical production, consisting of hand puppets and marionettes, at a special party, given by the Juniors, for the pediatric ward of Harbor General Hospital, the club's main philanthropy on Jan. 17.

A large, professional foot-light theatre will be decorated with colorful curtains and hand painted scenery for each number. Approximately ten hand puppets will be made by the Juniors for the show.

Among the marionettes performing will be Little

Red Riding Hood and Pinnocchio.

Smokey the Bear will make an appearance and stress the importance of fire prevention to the audience.

The Beatles (Yea Yea Yea) will be on hand, wiggling and jerking to the delight of young and old alike.

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club is affiliated with Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership.

Milbrae Guests

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brislin of Milbrae, formerly of Torrance, spent the New Year's weekend here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara on Fern Ave.

State OES Officers to Visit Here

Worthy Grand Matron Marian F. Schwach and Worthy Grand Patron Edward T. Mancuso, of the Grand Chapter, State of California, Order of the Eastern Star, will make their official visits to the Chapters of the 80th District on Thursday, Jan. 20, at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

All members of the Order of the Eastern Star are invited to attend.

Grand officers will accompany the Grand Worthy Matron and Patron.

Chapters participating will be Carnation, Redondo Beach; Lomita; Playa Linda, Hermosa Beach; Point Fermin, San Pedro; San Pedro Harbor, San Pedro; Torrance and Wilmington.

Note Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Myer, 2610 Ridgeland and their daughters, Caryle and Sherie, enjoyed brunch at the Plush Horse Sunday celebrating Mrs. Myer's birthday. In the evening, they were dinner guests of Mrs. Myer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McLaughlin in San Pedro.

Registration Begins For 'Tiny Tot' Session

Redondo Beach Recreation and Parks Department will begin registration for the Tiny Tots program the last week in January.

Two classes for 4-5 year olds will be held, one at Grant Community Hall, Perry Park and one at the Hideout Youth Center, 222 Pacific Coast Hwy. These are two hour classes — one per week.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. at both areas — Grant Community Hall on Tuesday, Jan. 25 and at the Hideout on Wednesday, Jan. 26.

At the Lincoln Community Recreation Center, Ernest and Vail, 3-4 year olds may register at 10 a.m. on Jan. 27. These classes are held for one hour only each week on Thursday. One class begins at 10 a.m. with the second session at 11 a.m.

The program is for Redondo Beach residents and a registration fee will be charged.

All sessions will run for a schedule of ten weeks with Mrs. Mabel Crane as instructor. Classes will begin Feb. 1, 2, and 3 respectively.

The program includes group association and adjustment, an introduction to shape, color, size, some numbers and letters. Simple crafts are made by the children and music and rhythm are also a vital part of the instruction.

For information Pat Dreizler, Recreation Supervisor, or the Recreation and Park Department, may be called.

All registration will be on a first come first served basis and a limit of 20 children will be enrolled in each class. All children will be enrolled in person.

Twin Mothers Dinner-Meet Set Monday

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will hold its monthly dinner meeting on Jan. 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the Tea House on Crenshaw Blvd., in Torrance.

Mrs. Tom Prevo, president, will conduct the business meeting. Mrs. Cleve Kimmel, Torrance, first vice president, announced that the speaker for the evening will be Dr. Rita Rogers whose topic is "Mixing Career with Motherhood."

Regular monthly exchange table will be featured with Mrs. Samuel Pion, Torrance, in charge.

WSCS Meet Set Thursday

The program "Chosen for Action" presented by Joanna Circle and featuring the movie "And on the Eighth Day" will be given at the general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church on Thursday, Jan. 15.

class "Mission — The Christian Calling" to begin Wednesday, Jan. 19 at the church.

The meeting with Mrs. Chester Wiley in charge will be held at 10 a.m. in the Friendship room at the church. A prayer fellowship will be held at 9:40 a.m. in the chapel, led by Mrs. Harlan McCool.

Luncheon will be served at 12 noon by the Tabitha Circle. Mrs. Richard Brown, chairman, is taking reservations.

The public is invited to attend a six weeks study
