

Jaycees To Hear Choate

Judge Raymond Choate, recently appointed to the South Bay Municipal Court, will be the guest speaker tomorrow at the annual "Bosses' Night" meeting of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The dinner meeting will be held at the Palms Restaurant, 1925 W. Carson St. Social hour begins at 7, with dinner to be served at 8 p.m. Jaycees will be host to their employers for the evening. The annual event is held to give employers an opportunity to become acquainted with the projects and activities of the group.

JUDGE CHOATE will discuss "The Citizens and the Law." He received his law degree from the University of Southern California and was president of the South Bay Bar Association prior to the elevation to the municipal court bench.

A former deputy public defender, Judge Choate practiced law in Los Angeles County from 1949 until his elevation. He is a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the American Trial Lawyers Association, and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

Judge Choate and his wife, Jeannette, have four children. The family makes its home in Manhattan Beach.

SPECIAL guests at the meeting will be winners of the Jaycees' annual Christmas Lighting Contest. First- and second-place winners in each of the two divisions will attend and receive special plaques from the group.

Young men between 21 and 35 interested in becoming members of the Junior Chamber may obtain additional information from Lyle DeCuir at 378-7886 or Doug Hedde at 320-2019.

Literature Class Set For Adults

Night school students will travel to the theater this spring as part of an adult course in literature and composition to be offered by the Torrance Evening High School.

Students enrolled in the course, which meets from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays at Torrance High School beginning Feb. 1, will have an opportunity to further their knowledge of great American and English classics and modern literature through selected readings, discussions, films, filmstrips, recordings, and television, as well as the theater trips.

A STUDY of the novel, short story, poetry, drama, and essay will provide the background for students to improve their writing skills.

Ronald Rudolph, adult high school and junior college instructor, will teach the course.

Persons desiring further information are asked to contact the adult education office before 5 p.m. at 328-8080, ext. 295, or 328-9206 after 6 p.m.

Credit-earning students must be counseled into the class. Others wishing to attend may register with the instructor the first night the class meets.

Officers of Veterinary Group Named

Dr. Joseph L. Garcia of Gardena has been installed as president of the Southern California Chapter of the Veterinary Medical Association.

Other new officers of the association include Dr. Norman Forhman of Redondo Beach, vice president; Dr. George A. Porter of Torrance, secretary, and Dr. Robert A. Odell of Gardena, delegate.

The new officers were installed last Monday. They will serve until January, 1967.
