

Hat Show, Luncheon Set Curtis-Trenary Vows

HATS, HATS, HATS

What Dame Fashion has to offer in her array of new spring bonnets fascinates this group of Mothers of Twins, from left, Mmes. W. R. Campbell, John Manusco, Ellis Myer and Frank Karp, as they listen to a description by Mrs. Vera Lockyear, who will commentate the hat show at the club's "Luncheon Is Served" on Jan. 22. The event will be held at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will present a "Luncheon Is Served" for members and guests on Saturday, Jan. 22, at 11:30 a.m. at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Avenue D and Pacific Coast Hy., Redondo.

Along with the luncheon, those attending will see a showing of new spring and summer hats furnished by a local hat salon. Mrs. Vera Lockyear will be the commentator for the show.

Models will be Mothers of Twins, Mmes. Gunther Gronwald and Steve Sailors, Redondo Beach; and Dale Walker and Fred Casstevens, Torrance. Mrs. Cleve Kimmel, Torrance, may be called for reservations.

To climax the month, the Mothers of Twins Club has scheduled a rummage sale for Jan. 28 and 29 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Hitch Rack Rummage Store, 15641 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale.

Mrs. John Manquero, Gardena, and Mrs. Selmer Peterson, Lawndale, ways and means chairmen, are in charge.

Funds derived will help the club's philanthropies, helping support a needy family with twins, donations to the Homer Toberman Settlement House, San Pedro; American Field Service, Torrance; Los Angeles Times Summer Camp Fund, and filling baskets for needy families during the holidays.

Miss Carol Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Curtis, 5201 Via El Sereno, Torrance, became the bride of John Trenary, 15523 Cordary, Lawndale, in an evening ceremony on Dec. 11 at the Crenshaw Christian Church.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. Trenary of Denver, Colo. Mr. Curtis escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore an ice blue satin gown enhanced with Chantilly lace.

Bridal attendants were Miss Donna Curtis, maid of honor; Misses Caroline Anderson and Lynda Turner.

bridesmaids. They were gowned in long royal blue velvet dresses.

Don Heck performed the duties of best man and Lynn Aspen served as usher.

Dr. Donald Wilson officiated at the vow exchange after which a reception was held in the church hall.

The newlyweds are now at home in Buena Park.

Knolls Club Plans Events

A spaghetti supper and entertainment honoring officers and street captains to be held Feb. 5 in the main recreation hall at the Knolls Lodge will be attended by 120 members of the Knolls Travelers Club. Dinner will be served from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

On Saturday, Feb. 19 a chartered bus will transport 43 members to Indio to attend the Date Festival and the Arabian Pageant.

The bus will leave Knolls Lodge at 9 a.m. Tickets will be on sale at the next club meeting set for Wednesday, Feb. 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Wendell Miller to Speak to Church Groups

Dr. Wendell L. Miller, noted lecturer, world traveler and humorist of Rolling Hills, will be the featured speaker at the annual joint meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Jean Liles Wesleyan Service Guild of Wayside Methodist Church, 25904 Cayuga Ave., Lomita on Monday evening, Jan. 24, at 7:30.

"My Visit with Schweitzer" will be the topic of Dr. Miller's lecture, which he will illustrate with colored pictures taken when he visited the late Dr. Albert Schweitzer and his famous hospital at Lambarene, Africa.

An open invitation to the church congregation, men, women and youth, to hear this interesting speaker has been extended. This will be an opportunity to hear firsthand information about the famous jungle hospital, of its people, its problems and its place in Africa, the interesting pictures of African families who came with their ill ones to be healed by the "Great Doctor" and scenes of the surrounding territory of Gabon.

The occasion marks the annual observance of Guild Month in the Methodist Church when the women of the church hold their evening meeting open to everyone in the church and their guests and to present an outstanding program.

Mrs. Oline Seim, Woman's Society president, and Mrs. Pearl Lindquist, Guild president, will share honors for the brief opening remarks. Devotions will follow. A special membership will be presented and Mrs. Helen Scott, Guild program chairman, will introduce the speaker.

Members of the Woman's Society will host a refreshment hour following the meeting in the church social hall.

Dianas Will Attend Art Show Jan. 24

Members of the Redondo Beach Dianas Junior Women's Club will attend the Marina District Art Show Monday, Jan. 24, at 8 p.m. The meeting is to be held at Monroe Junior High School in Inglewood.

This is the tenth anniversary of the Marina District. In commemoration of this event each club will act a year of the past ten. The Dianas have been selected to do a skit representing the year that Mrs. Robert Driezler was president, Mrs. Driezler was also a member of the Dianas and served as Marina District president during the year 1959-60.

During the November Arts and Crafts meeting the Dianas were awarded second place award for the large club division.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federated Women's Clubs, Marina District.

'Adelines' To Attend Conference

Mrs. William Street, founder and director of the L. A. Towns Chorus, local championship group, will be conducting classes on Chorus Directing during the up-coming Sweet Adeline International Music School to be held in San Francisco, Jan. 21-23. Mrs. Street is not only the sole female Sweet Adeline director who twice won the Director of the Year award in Regional Competitions, but was the first female director to receive this honor.

Mrs. Street attended El Camino College as a music major but had had no experience as a director until 1958, at which time she began directing the L. A. South Towns, the chorus she has twice led to the Regional Championship. Within the Sweet Adeline organization, Mrs. Street is a certified judge in the music category and is a recognized arranger of barber-shop-style music.

Aside from these activities, which take her on jaunts all over the U.S. and Canada, Mrs. Street is an instructor of cosmetology and is the mother of five children.

L. A. South Towns will send 12 delegates to participate in the once-a-year event.
