To Visit Lions Here

Governor Will Visit Lions Club

John F. Regehor, governor of Lions International District 4L3, will pay an official visit to the Downtown Torrance Lions Club Tuesday, according to Newell Larsen, president of the local club.

Governor Regehor, owner of a Los Angeles printing and stationery company, heads a district which includes 51 area Lions in western Los Angeles County.

A native of New York, Regehor was educated in Erie, Pa., and came to Los Angeles in 1940 to attend the University of Southern California. He is a past president of the Southwestern Lions Club, his home club, and an active member of the Inglewood Chamber of Commerce and the Crenshaw Merchants Association.

A RESIDENT of Inglewood, Regehor is a former chairman of the Blind Youth Activities Program in the South Bay and has held all offices at the district level in Lions International.

Regehor has a 25-year record for perfect attendance at Lions Club meetings.

The Downtown Torrance Lions Club, chartered in 1945, will meet at noon Tuesday at the Palms Restaurant, 1825 W. Carson St. During the program, Governor Regehor will report on the Lions International plans for the new year, as well as on district plans.

Diabetics to Hear Talk About Eyes

The January meeting of the South Bay Chapter of the Diabetes Association of Southern California will be held Tuesday at the Hawthorne Memorial Center, 3901 El Segundo Blvd., at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Dr. John F. Nursall, Torrance ophthalmologist, who will discuss the diabetic and his eyes.

Further information is available by telephoning Mrs. Bernice Levine at DA 9-2328 or Mrs. Virginia Hormell at DA 4-8940.

Tax Changes Subject of Tuesday Meet

Internal Revenue agents Henry G. Amado and Ronald E. Postepny will appear as speakers before the Palos Verdes-Torrance Chapter of the National Association of Accountants at the regular monthly dinner meeting Tuesday, 7 p.m., at the Jump'n' Jack Restaurant.

The agents will present a comprehensive profile of the latest developments in federal income taxes. They will cover such subjects as Timing of Deductions, Investment Credit, Dependents, Gains from Sale of Property, Income Average, Dividends, Exclusion and Credit, Casualty Losses, and other topics.
