

Firm, Employees Pledge $107,000 in Campaign

Employees of Southern Counties Gas Co.'s Harbor division have pledged a total of $3,500 for charitable institutions during the coming year, E. B. Patterson, division manager, reported today.

The gas company employee pledge total was the result of this year's campaign for participation in AID-United Givers, a combined charitable giving plan enrolling employees of many southern California industrial firms.

The larger part of the local total pledged will be returned to charities in this area, Patterson reported.

Participating charities which benefit under the AID-United Givers plan include United Crusade and American Red Cross and local regional chapters of American Cancer Society, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, City of Hope, Crippled Children's Society, Heart Association, Multiple Sclerosis Society,

Chorus Sets Concert at PV College

Plans for a Spring Concert of regular, religious, and folk music, will be held sometime in May. Exact dates will be announced later.

The chorus meets three times each week and offers one unit of credit each quarter. Marshall Bialosky, professor of music at the college, is director.

WORLD CHAMPION . . . Volvos survived 15,360 miles of competitive high-speed driving over the worst roads in the world to win the 1965 World Rally Championship, according to Whitlesey Motors, 2955 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., the Torrance Volvo dealer. The title, awarded annually by the British Royal Automobile Club, was captured by Volvo for the second consecutive year. Outright wins in three of four of the five international rallies — the Swedish, the East African Safari, and the Canadian Shell 4000 — gave Volvo the title.
