

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JANUARY 30, 1966

B-1

Angel Luncheon Musicale

For Philharmonic

Los Verdes Country Club will again be the setting for the second of three Angel Luncheon Musicales on Monday, Jan. 31 at 11:30 a.m.

This series is sponsored by the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. Mrs. Franklin Steinko, general chairman, hopes this major fund-raising project for the benefit of the Philharmonic fund will become an annual Peninsula event.

The luncheon will be dominated by a Valentine theme. Tables will be set with red cloths setting off centerpieces of red and pink carnations arranged in golden angel figurine composes. Mrs. E. S. Breneman is in charge of decorations, assisted by Mmes. Frederick C. Bassick II, George T. Tremble, W. Holmes Smith and James Walsh. Officers and members of the board of directors will act as hostesses. During luncheon, cruise and resort fashions from a Peninsula Center fashion shop will be shown. Mrs. Earle Gard, Jr. is in charge of the showing. Mrs. Barbara Paatman and Mrs. Craig Breedlove, both former professional models, will act as mannequins. Hair styles will be through the courtesy of a local salon.

A program of classical music for brass quintet has been arranged by Roger Bobo, tubaist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic. Appearing with Mr. Bobo will be trumpet players Tom Stevens and Ronald Romm, hornist Ralph Pyle and Miles Anderson, trombonist. All are associated with the Los Angeles orchestra and have distinguished themselves in the fields of teaching, radio, television and recording, as well as ensemble and solo performance.

Mrs. James C. Foley and Mrs. Leonard J. Heilman are ticket co-chairmen. Mrs. Pierson F. Melcher is publicity chairman.

LAYETTES FOR THE NEEDY

Aiding the Los Angeles County Health Dept., members of the Torrance Woman's Club are busy making seven layettes for needy mothers. Making the basic layette of gowns, sacks, blankets and wrapping blankets, the sewing sessions are held weekly under the direction of Mrs. L. G. Pulliam, the club's philanthropy chairman. At Wednesday's session, Mrs. Pulliam, left, is showing a finished garment to Mrs. W. I. Laughon as Mrs. Dean Sears, right, continues her work. Mmes. H. F. Heinlein, president, and William Faulds are also assisting with the project. (Press-Herald Photo)

HELP YOURSELF!

With a treasure chest filled with money, two representatives of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club invite Dick Ciciotti, secretary of the Torrance Scout Center, to "help yourself" as they make a generous donation to their major philanthropy for the past 12 years, the Torrance Scout Center. The presentation is being made by, left, Mrs. Tony Borges, ways and means chairman, and at right, Mrs. Robert Valencia, Junior Club president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Carrie Luger Selected UES Intern

Miss Carrie Luger of Torrance has been selected to intern at the University Elementary School at U.C.L.A. She is working under Dr. John Goodland, director, consultant for the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

The University Elementary School is a model school on the Los Angeles campus where a select number of interns assist in the experimental program of student teaching. The program is currently concentrating on team teaching and a non-graded system of pupil placement.

Miss Luger is a graduate of South High School and El Camino College.

AFS Chapter Dinner to Launch Candy Sale

Torrance Chapter of the American Field Service will stage its annual candy sale during a two weeks period, beginning the first week in February. The announcement of the forthcoming sale is made by Mrs. Robert Sullivan, ways and means chairman, who states that the purpose of the sale is to raise $750, the cost of bringing one foreign exchange student to Torrance for the school year of 1966-67.

Each of the present exchange students will be pictured on the candy bar label. Foreign students attending school in Torrance and making their homes with local families are Ana Maria Estivallet Bezerra from Brazil, living with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dahlin and attending South High School; Muratha (Roy) Stryong from Thailand, staying with the Argyle Prescott family and attending West High School; Yuko Shiganami from Japan, living with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Orrell and attending South High School; and Erika Stotz from Chile, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Brown and attending South High School.

All exchange students and general members of the American Field Service will have the candy bars for sale after Feb. 1.

A kick-off dinner to launch the candy sale will be held this evening at 6:30 at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd. Mrs. C. W. Bartholomew, president, will introduce the current foster parents as well as past foster parents.

Mrs. Fred Lincoln Jr. will act as general chairman of the potluck dinner. Mrs. Don Harding is reservations chairman.

All those interested in the American Field Service and its worthwhile activities are invited to attend.

PRACTICING SALES PITCH

Erika Stotz, student from Chile attending South High School on the American Field Service program, practices a sales talk for the forthcoming benefit candy sale on her foster mother and sister, Mrs. J. Brown and Roxanne Brown, as the annual sale is launched. Proceeds of the sale will be used to bring one foreign student to Torrance next year to attend a local high school.

Brides of the Future

CATHY ANDREOLI

Andreoli-Morrison

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andreoli of Torrance announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to John Heath Morrison of Wilmington.

The wedding will take place in May.

The future bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School and attended El Camino College for two years.

Her fiancé, a 1959 graduate of Banning High School, attended Harbor and Long Beach State Colleges.

JULIE HAAS

Haas - Hebert

A May wedding, to be solemnized at the First Christian Church in Inglewood, is being planned by Miss Julie Haas and Richard Hebert.

The announcement of their daughter's engagement is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haas, 17020 Faysmith Ave., Torrance.

The bride-elect is a 1965 graduate of North High School. She will be graduated from the Lawton Dental Assistant School in Beverly Hills next month.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hebert, 2206 W. 190th St., Torrance, is a 1964 graduate of North High. He is employed by a local plastering firm.

Treloar - Monfore

Miss Jenice Erlene Treloar and Jack Earl Monfore have set April 22 as the date of their wedding, which will be solemnized at the First Christian Church in Torrance.

Miss Treloar is the daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Treloar, 765 Temple, Long Beach, and Mr. Ernest Treloar of Torrance.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Worthan, Sr., 650 Border Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Treloar, 1908 Andree.

A 1964 graduate of Torrance High School, Miss Treloar is now employed by Broadway, Los Altos.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Monfore, 1346 Lomita Blvd., Harbor City, attended Torrance High. He is employed by the South Bay Publishing Co., Hermosa Beach.

DIANA HUGGINS

Huggins - Sharp

Another local bride-elect is Miss Diana Lee Huggins whose engagement to George Daniel Sharp is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Huggins, 2811 Kiode St., Torrance.

No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect was graduated from Torrance High School in 1964. She attended El Camino and Long Beach State Colleges.

The future bridegroom, a 1964 graduate of West High, also attended El Camino College. He is currently serving in the United States Naval Reserves.

Triple T Guest Night Opens New Year Agenda

Guest Night was proclaimed by the Triple T dance club for its first event of the New Year of 1966. The club members and guests gathered at the home of the William Parsons for a cocktail party before going to the Queen's Kitchen banquet room where they danced to the music of Charlie Green and his orchestra.

Co-hosts with the Parsons for the cocktail party were Messrs. and Mmes. Carl Benson, John Burnett, Leroy Pulliam and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Flemming.

Members attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Carl Benson, Larry Bowman, John Burnett, Dan Butcher, Marshall Chamberlain, Ed

D'Anna, Wayne Davis, Gil Derouin, Nick Drala, Al Dumont, A. F. R. Ewalt, Henry Heinlein, Johnny Johnson, Miles Kellam, Lester King, T. Lackey, Ted Olson.

Also, Messrs. and Mmes. John Oursler, Bill Parsons, Keith Pischel, George Probert, Leroy Pulliam, Richard Rojo, Robert Rojo, Chris Sorenson, James Stavert, E. E. Wilson, Don Hyde, John Melville, Charles Rippey, Dean Sears, Drs. Robin Bingham and Robert Fleming.

Guests at the club affair were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Pickens, Dewey Vroom, Gus Cochrane, Fred Engel, Merle Reeves, Hank Halverson, Corky Lowe, Mmes. Myra Beeman and Grover Whyte.

Women's League In

Tax Structure Study

What means does a city have for financing large capital expenditures? Is bonding the only means of raising large amounts of revenue and what are the legal restrictions on bonding? These are some of the questions that will be answered at the Torrance League of Women Voters continues its study of the local tax structure at a series of meetings this week. Meetings have been scheduled for Tuesday morning (Feb. 1) at 9:45 at the home of Mrs. J. R. Sellars, 128 Via los Miradores, Torrance; Tuesday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. F. L. Otter, 1436 10th St., Manhattan Beach; Wednesday morning at 9:45 at the home of Mrs. L. B. Farrell, 4005 W. 232nd St., Torrance; and Thursday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. C. M. Thomas, 5609 Andrews Ave., Torrance.