

Berry-West Vows Solemnized

Wayfarers Chapel was the scene of a double-ring, candlelight ceremony on Dec. 11, when Miss Carole Joyce Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Berry of Huntington Beach, formerly of Torrance, became the bride of Lt. James Claiborne West, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. West of Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Berry escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and satin. The basque bodice of lace had a square, scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The skirt of lace tiers had a redingote of satin which fell into a train. The gown was studded with pearls and tear drop crystals. The bouffant veil was held by a pearl and crystal tiara and she carried white roses and stephanotis encircling white orchids.

The bridal entourage consisted of Miss Donna Jean Charem, maid of honor. She wore a long poinsettia red gown with gold brocade bodice. Her bouquet was of white roses on green holly. Frederick West performed the best man duties for his brother. Ushers were Robert Petersen and Gerald Cork.

Rev. Robert L. Young officiated at the vow exchange.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cork, 3240 Eldorado St., Torrance.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of North High school in Torrance.

Her husband is a first lieutenant in the United States Air Force, stationed at Charleston, S.C., where he and his bride are now at home following a honeymoon in San Francisco.
