

TALENT SHOW . . . Bishop Montgomery High students will get a chance to display their various talents Wednesday, Feb. 16, when the senior class presents its annual Talent Show. Getting in some practice for her act is Cathy Griffin (seated) while seniors Linda Link and Pat Yoklavich offer encouragement.

Dear Mr. C: Is it true Ariene Francis is Kitty Carlisle's mother? I have heard this several times. — Mrs. James McCarty, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mrs. McCarty: I wish those two cutups would quit introducing each other as such. Think of all the newspaper we'd save if we didn't have to print they're only kidding!

Sir: You said Dick Cathcart's marriage to Peggy Lennon was his first. Not true. He was married before and has three little boys. His first marriage was annulled so that he and Peggy could be married in the Catholic Church. — J. C., West Covina, Calif.

Dear J. C.: Thanks for straightening me out; in turn, I just straightened out my Vital Statistics file.

Dear Mr. C.: When is "Gone with the Wind" going to be reissued? Finally, after all these years, I read the book and am now eager to see the movie. — Mrs. Lil Dennis, Mountain View, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Dennis and all other readers who have asked the same question: Reissues take place at different times across the country so the best thing to do is call your local theatre managers.

Dear Mr. C.: Back in June, 1962, my mother and I took a bus from San Diego up to San Francisco. A man got on, I think, in Los Angeles, wearing a bus driver's outfit, and sat behind us in the back of the bus. Was it Keenan Wynn — it certainly looked like him! — or his double? Bette Braun, Newark, N.J.

Dear Bette: Keenan says it wasn't a bus driver's outfit.

Club to See Performance of 'Carmen'

Members of the North High School Spanish Club will travel to the Los Angeles Music Center Sunday, Feb. 20, to see the opera "Carmen." The visit is part of a program of activities planned for the school year.

The club, created to give students an opportunity to see places and events of Spanish culture and to further understanding of the Spanish-speaking peoples, is sponsored by Mrs. Jeanne Landford.

Members recently attended a Music Center performance of "Antonio and the Ballets de Madrid." The mid-year banquet was held at an Olvera Street restaurant and a second visit to Olvera Street now is being planned.

ENTERS DAVIS
Valerie G. Coy of Torrance was one of 167 new, undergraduate students admitted to the University of California, Davis, for the spring semester.

fit, it was a motorcyclist's outfit, and what were you doing in the back of his motorbike? . . .

Dear Mike: When will we see Mia Farrow in the new short haired Frank Sinatra adores? — Kitty Gresham, Rockville, Md.

Dear Kitty: Zoom in on "Peyton Place" next Tuesday, Feb. 15.

Dear Mr. Connolly: I would like to know the birthplace, in Wales, of Richard Burton. Is that the town where he met the teacher who became a father to him and took him out in the hills to recite Shakespeare? I am going to Wales in May and would appreciate this information. — Mrs. Stanford B. Brown, Berkeley, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Brown: The town where Richard Jenkins was born, and where he took the name of mentor Phillip Burton is Pontrhydyfen. I can't pronounce it but I can spell it. While you're out in those hills, give an extra yodel for me.

Dear Sir: Is the son of Jayne Meadows and Steve Allen a crippled child? — P. J. Sullivan, Houston, Texas.

Dear P. J.: No. Sir: Understand Carol Lawrence is of Italian descent. What's her real name and age and where was she born? — P. H., Oakland, Calif.

Dear P. H.: She was born Carol Laria in Chicago on Sept. 5 but won't say what year. She is of Italian descent.

Dear Mike: Can you tell us if the mother of Steve Allen's three oldest sons was a professional person. Is she living or dead? — Mrs. J. A. R., Houston, Texas.

Dear Mrs. R.: She is actress Dorothy Goodman, from whom Steve was divorced in the late '50s.

Dear Mike: What's Judy Garland's trouble? — George McGlynn, Sandy, Utah.

Dear George: First tell me yours.

Dear Mike: We watched Alice Faye on "Hollywood Palace." Someone said Tony Martin was her first husband. Another bet that Tony was never her husband. Can you please clear this up? — Marie Allen, San Leandro, Calif.

Dear Marie: Alice and Tony were married Sept. 4, 1937, and divorced Oct. 8, 1939.

Dear Sir: "Batman" is horrible. Are these people serious? — Mrs. Jay Cervantes, Detroit, Mich.

Dear Mrs. C.: No comic book characters are serious.
