'Siberia' Set at EC Tomorrow

"Into Siberia," narrated by Raphael Green, will be shown in the El Camino College Campus Theater, Monday at 8 p.m. The film is part of the series, "The World Around Us," sponsored by the Associated Students. Green lists extensive travel to Asiatic countries in his experience. He has traveled to the Far East with United States Ambassador Pauley. Green is one of eleven men sent on a reparations survey to North Korea. Other countries the adventurer has visited include Manchuria, China, Japan, Afghanistan, Outer Mongolia and Russia.

AT PRESENT, Green is producing educational and television films as director on the audio-visual staff at the University of Minnesota. Green, one of few Americans to have visited the "no-man's land" of Siberia, has returned to tell tales of ancient silk routes, civilizations with customs dating back to Ghengis Khan, and cities visited by Marco Polo.

"Siberia may turn out to be the most critical area of the century. In size it surpasses the United States by several times, and enough of its natural resources are known, from diamonds to forests, to indicate it is a prize worth fighting over," Green contends.
