

Spastic Children's Committee

Presents Champagne Fashion Tea

Peninsula Committee of the Spastic Children's League will again present its annual Spring Fashion Show and Champagne Tea on March 1 at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

Mrs. John P. Weiss, Jr. is serving as chairman with Mrs. Charles H. Holmes, co-chairman. Mrs. James Lafferty is president of the Committee.

"Spring Is . . ." will be the theme of the parade of fashions by The Broadway Del Amo. Fashions for every occasion around the clock will be presented with Miss Catherine Wueste, serving as fashion coordinator. According to Miss Wueste, the fashions shown will reflect the trends of this Spring's fashions denoting that Spring Is . . . a new feeling; Spring is a color explosion in dresses, suits and coats, sportswear; and Spring is a rainbow of color.

A Champagne Tea will be served following the formal showing by professional models. Tea tables will be placed in the Fern Room of the Country Club. Extravagant arrangements of spring flowers in colors emphasizing those of the fashions shown will decorate the tea tables.

Serving on this committee to present the event are Mmes. William H. Gardiner, Andrew Conze, Ludwig T. Smith, Rogers Smith, R. F. Barrett, Jr., Barry Cool and George Williamson, vice president in charge of ways and means.

CHAMPAGNE AND HIGH FASHION

In anticipation of the Peninsula Committee of the Spastic Children's League annual Spring Fashion Show and Champagne Tea, these members, from left, Mmes. W. H. Gardner, provisional, Charles H. Holmes, co-chairman, and J. P. Weiss, Jr., chairman, enjoy a tete-a-tete on Spring's new hat fashions. The benefit is set for Tuesday, March 1 at 2:30 p.m. at the Palos Verdes Country Club. "Spring Is" will be the theme of the revue of the around-the-clock new fashions.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FEBRUARY 13, 1966

B-1

For 20th Reunion

Seek 1946 Classmates

The 1946 winter and summer classes of Torrance High School are planning a 20-year reunion to be held July 16 at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach.

Mrs. Robert Tolson and Mrs. Melvin Miller are making contacts of all members of the classes. They are asking for help in locating the following list of 1946 Torrance High graduates:

Marcella Bopp, Betty Walls-Basham, Bob Conner Everts, Eugene Foster,

Doyle Gibson, Doris Hatfield Crawford, Margaret Hetrick, Wayne Hovis, Betty Hansen, Ralph Jakubowski, JoAnn Loper, Gloria Lucero, Catherine Moffitt, Leona Van Kralligen.

Also, Carl Thomas, Don Mattern, Pat Norcross, Alfred O'Polka, Alice Oimstead, Ben Poorbough, Dolores Perez Mason, Charles Ringle, Sandra Jean Ross, Glenna Sage, Art Schaller, Jean Swope, Violet Thompson, Richard Winberly, Leroy Wright and A. T. Young.

For New Provisionals

Dianas Set Valentine Tea

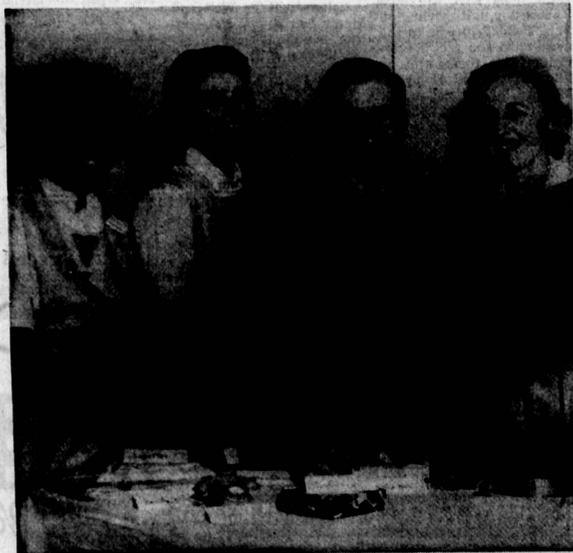

An Orientation Tea for prospective members of the Redondo Beach Dianas Junior Women's Club will be held tomorrow, Valentine's Day at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Christ Saunders, 1812 Avenida Estudiente, San Pedro.

Provisionals attending will be Mmes. Robert Dunn, Leon Hoffer, Blake Stretton, Gerald Carter, Walt O'Brian, Peter Mol, Pete Sund, V. Anderson, Herbert Gray, Donald Jarman, J. DeWitt, Carol Boston and Jo Lynne Gentile. Diana President, Mrs. Eric

Lindgren will preside over the meeting while Diana board members will help acquaint the provisionals with the philanthropic works of the club.

Representing the Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership will be Mrs. William Tolliffe, auditor.

Refreshments will be served following the orientation. Invitations and table decorations will carry out a Valentine Day theme. Anyone desiring any additional information may call Mrs. Christ Saunders.

PREPARE FOR WORKSHOP

Volunteer organizations from throughout the area have been invited to attend the day-long workshop on volunteer services in a hospital to be held Feb. 17 at the Harbor General Hospital. Making preparations for discussions and demonstrations are from left, Mrs. John Betz and Mrs. William Hoag with display of toys and other items while L. R. Smith, administrator and Mrs. Joseph Jay discuss a microscope.

(Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. WALTER ROBERT WALLNER, JR. (Frederics Photo)

Miller-Wallner Vows

At home in Westwood are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robert Wallner, Jr., who were married in a two o'clock ceremony on Jan. 29 at the University Lutheran Chapel at the University of California at Los Angeles. The bride is the former Judith Ann Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Bill of Daytona Beach, Fla., and James Harvey Miller of Norwalk, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Wallner, 3833 Paseo Del Campo, Palos Verdes, are parents of the bridegroom.

Pastor E. M. Schoppa, Immanuel Lutheran Church, Redondo, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of white satin topped with reembrodered lace. Her silk illusion veil was held by a pillbox and her bouquet was of pink and white baby roses and baby breath.

Miss Susan Anderson of El Cajon was the maid of honor and Jerry Wallner served as his brother's best man. Joe Hartnett of Palos Verdes was usher.

Following the marriage, the 50 close friends and relatives were entertained at dinner at Michael's Restaurant on Los Feliz Blvd.

The honeymoon was spent in Santa Barbara and Carmel.

The bride, a graduate of Grossmont High, received her BA degree from UCLA where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi, Chimes, Angel Flight, and Shell and Oar.

Her husband, a graduate of Narbonne High School, received his BS degree in engineering at UCLA and is continuing work on his masters degree at UCLA. Mr. Wallner is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, Kelps and Yeomen.

South Bay Women Invited

Volunteer Seminar Feb. 17

A "repeat performance" of last year's day-long workshop designed to acquaint South Bay women with the importance and functions of Volunteer Workers in any hospital will be held Feb. 17, at Los Angeles County Harbor General Hospital, 1000 W. Carson St., Torrance.

The program will be chairmanned by Mrs. William C. Hoag, of Palos Verdes Estates, auxiliary president, Harbor General Hospital, and will begin with registration at 9 a.m. in the Assembly Room, off the main lobby.

The morning session will consist of talks by Dr. Boyd M. Krout, Mrs. Minetta Dorrough, R.N., inservice nursing instructor, and Mrs. Marguerite Boren McAllister.

ter, chief of patient programs, Harbor General Hospital.

These discussions will be followed at noon with a "no host" luncheon.

There will be a "buzz" session and an informal panel discussion. Moderator will be Mrs. Joseph Jay, education chairman, Auxiliary, and the panel will consist of Miss Margaret Orchard, head occupational therapist registered, Father Michael D. Buckley, Catholic Chaplain, Mrs. James Cassell, "Volunteers for Children" member, Mrs. Dorrough, and Mrs. McAllister.

Volunteer organizations in other hospitals have been invited to attend the workshop which is entitled "What Makes a Good Volunteer—Makes a Good Individual."