

MAKE SELECTIONS FOR ART FIESTA

Noted actor Walter O'Keefe, honorary chairman of Peninsula Friends benefit party on Feb. 20, for 600 Mexican orphans, helps committee members Mrs. John P. Lombardi, Rolling Hills, left, and Mrs. Robert Welsh, right, select accents for the Fiesta of Art and Music. Mrs. Lombardi is buffet chairman and Mrs. Welsh is handling reservations. The event will be held at the Francis Leo Foley, Jr. home at 6216 Via Subida, Palos Verdes.

New Philanthropic Group Plans Fiesta to Aid Mexican Orphans

A new philanthropic group — Peninsula Friends of Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos — will make its debut on Sunday, Feb. 20, when it presents its first annual Fiesta of Art and Music from 3 until 7 p.m. at the 6216 Via Subida home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leo Foley, Jr., to aid 600 orphans in foundations directed by Rev. William Wasson in Mexico City, Cuernavaca, and Hacienda El Coleman.

Mrs. Andrew J. De Paolo of Rolling Hills Estates is chairman of the event which will feature a display of art in all media, art demonstrations, music, a petite buffet, champagne and cocktails. Walter O'Keefe, noted actor and Peninsula resident, is honorary chairman.

Mrs. Bruno Baur, Miraleste, art chairman with Mrs. Eugene Dunn, Rolling Hills, and Robert Macaller, Rolling Hills Estates, said that among the artists who will show their works are Guy Maccoy, Penelope Greeven, Ann Coker, Lynn Larsen, Arden Von Dewitz, Joyce Weiss, Myrna Shiras, D. D. Heater, Judy Ross, Anita Honor, Elaine Katzer, and Muriel Olguin.

More are Frank Matranga, Rosina Baur, Pat Quin, Irwin Brown, Sister Rose Regina, OP, Sister Luke, IHM, Irwin Brown, and a trio of teenage artists.

Mrs. Thomas L. Montgomery, Miraleste, decorations chairman, said the art will be the focal point in the Foley's spacious Mediterranean home with color accents in a low-keyed Mexican theme.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Robert Welsh, 27 Hitching Post, Rolling Hills. Tickets will be held at the door and valet parking will be provided.

Among Torrance residents receiving invitations are Messrs. and Mmes. Douglas Hart, Alberto Nunez, Jr., Charles W. Rillinger, Paul J. Hogan, Laurence Nakano, John Booth, Salvatore Deciccle, and Fred W. Horn.

Others interested are welcome to attend.

Singers and musicians who will entertain during the afternoon are the Brandyhill Trio of folk singers, Jane Casserly, Arnold Gallegos, Ralph Sias, Jr.; Diane DePaolo, singer, and Rick Shields, accompanist; Patricia Hughes, singing with guitar and wearing her native Guadalupe costume; Len-ee Belski, pianist; and Donna Nakaji, flutist.

Mrs. Andrew J. De Paolo is chairman of the event. Other chairmen are Mmes. Thomas L. Montgomery, Casper Klee, and Paul Sturdivant, decorations; James Kindelen, invitations; Robert Welsh, reservations; John Lombardi, Flavio Bisignana, Daniel Logan, Lloyd Suter, Thomas Shea, Ted Bear, and Robert Haase, buffet.

Also, Mmes. Bruno Baur, Eugene Dunn and Robert Macaller, art; Sister Bernadette, advisors; Mrs. Ronald Heckman, patrons; Mrs. John Blich, music; Mmes. William Campeau and Kenneth Ward Smith, press.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FEBRUARY 16, 1966

B-1

Hamilton-Catterlin Wedding Friday Eve

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dunlop of Torrance announce that their daughter, Doris Dunlop Hamilton is to be married on Friday evening, Feb. 18, to Mr. Charles F. "Monte" Catterlin, attorney-at-law.

The wedding will be solemnized by the Rev. Milton Sippel at the First Christian Church, Torrance, with a reception following immediately at the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant.

The bride-elect has been a legal secretary in the Torrance City Attorney's office for the past five years.

The future bridegroom, active in South Bay circles, has been Torrance City Prosecutor since 1959, president of the South Bay Bar Assn., member of Torrance Rotary, Redondo Beach Elks, Torrance Chamber of Commerce and Judge Pro Tempore of the South Bay Municipal Court.

The couple will honeymoon in San Francisco and Mexico City after which they will settle in Honolulu for at least one year where Mr. Catterlin will be doing legal work with the Federal Government.

Engagement

Schindele-Trevathan

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Ray, 17209 Atkinson Ave. announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Lynn Schindele, to Robert Dennis Trevathan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Trevathan, 17915 Doty Ave., Torrance, at a dinner party recently.

The bride-elect was graduated from North High in 1964 and attended California Lutheran College. She is now attending a Los Angeles Dental College preparing for a dental assistant career.

The future bridegroom, a 1962 North High graduate, will be graduated from California Lutheran College in June. He will do graduate work at USC this fall in the field of business administration.

The couple will be married in August at the St. Andrews Episcopal Church here.

NANCY SCHINDELE

DAISIES TO TELL THE STORY

Profusion of yellow and white daisies will set the scene for the annual Membership Tea of the Philoptohos Society to be held at the home of Mrs. Angelo Revels next Saturday afternoon. As they make final plans for the event, which attract members from over the southland, these officers enjoy a cup of tea. They are from left, Mmes Nicholas Nicholin, vice president; Angelo Revels, hostess, and George Giannioses, tea chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

Greek Society Announces

Annual Membership Tea

Dorcas Chapter of the South Bay Philoptohos Society, St. Katherine's Greek Orthodox Church, is entertaining at its annual Membership Tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Angelo Revels, chapter president, on Saturday, Feb. 19, at 1 p.m.

Tea sandwiches, hor d'oeuvres and many delectable Greek pastries will be served with tea and coffee. Mrs. Alex Turilis and Mrs. James Holikis are supervising the tea.

Yellow and white daisies will decorate the table as well as the rooms used in entertaining. Mrs. Nick Nicholin and Mrs. Michael Halikis are in charge of decorations.

Invitations are being sent to the Los Angeles, Valley and Long Beach communities and other areas boasting an organized Philoptohos. Mrs. George Giannioses in is charge of preparing the invitations.

Door prizes will be awarded and live entertainment will provide a fitting background.

The Membership Tea is an annual event presented to promote and interest prospective members. Philoptohos, the name itself synonymous with "a friend of the poor," has many worthy and charitable activities both in Greece and the United States.

Mu Phis Meet Tonight For Musical Program

Members of Mu Phi Epsilon, Palos Verdes Peninsula Alumnae chapter will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. J. D. Foncannon, 3204 Carinna Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula. Mrs. Basil Debnokoff, 27928 Alafloa Dr., San Pedro, will be co-hostess.

Performing on the musical program will be Jacqueline Turney, pianist, who resides in Palos Verdes Peninsula. Also on the program will be Phyllis Hall, contralto, a resident of San Pedro, accompanied by Eva Brundin of Miraleste, both of whom are active in church music programs in the San Pedro area.

INSTALL NEW ALUMNAE OFFICERS

At an installation dinner-dance at the Golden Bull restaurant, new officers of La Primera Welcome Wagon Club were installed by Mrs. Mona Martin, area Welcome Wagon hostess. Presenting each new officers with a long stemmed red and pink carnation, Mrs. Martin read the duties. Installed were from left, Mmes. U. F. Gardner, vice president; Gale Lowder, treasurer; Richard Cramolini, president, Thomas Stamm, historian, and Lyle MacDonald, secretary. (Press-Herald Photo)