Councilman Will Speak At Meeting

Los Angeles City Councilman John S. Gibson Jr., who represents the 15th District, will head the list of speakers at the first annual Harbor Area Community Meeting to be held Sunday.

The meeting will be held at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Belle Porte Ave., Harbor City.

The session will be devoted to a discussion of Harbor Area needs and all citizens of the area have been invited to attend.

Gibson will address the meeting on commercial development.

Other subjects to be discussed are the effect of the War on Poverty in the Harbor Area, human relations, education, and parks and recreation.

The War on Poverty panel will include Betty Cook, a director of the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency; Joseph Fischer and Dorothy Hancock of the Neighborhood Adult Participation Project, and Ann Ramirez, head of the Gardens Operation Head-start project.

Steve Edney, president of the Cannery Workers Union and the Wilmington-San Pedro Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Harold W.
