

Fashion Benefit

"Spring Into Fashion" is the theme of the Fashion Show and Luncheon to be presented by the Torrance Woman's Club on Wednesday, March 16 at the Los Verdes Country Club.

Casual, evening and afternoon dresses will be modeled by club members with Mrs. H. T. Olson commenting. Models include Mmes. H. M. Cahill, William Mossman, L. C. Pulliam, Jack Dean, Clayton Lilley, William Faulds and Robert Valencia.

Mrs. William Faulds is serving as door prize chairman. Mrs. Andrew Acampora, general chairman of the fashion-luncheon event, announces that proceeds from this ways and means project will go to the club's philanthropy fund which provides scholarships for Torrance High School, assists the American Field Service program; aids the Girls State program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary; assists the Torrance YMCA and the Torrance YWCA.

Entertainment will be provided by the Woman's Club Chorus including Mmes. William Mossman, H. M. Cahill, Richard Dorothy and Andrew Acampora.

The public is invited to attend the event. Those wishing tickets may call Mrs. Joseph Bay or Mrs. J. G. Louvier.

HAPPY TALK

Cindy Lilley, 4, registers delight as she gets a preview of new spring fashions to be shown at the Torrance Woman's Club's Fashion Luncheon slated for March 16 at the Los Verdes Country Club. Talking over the new fashions are, from left, Mrs. H. Ted Olson, commentator, taking notes on two new fashions worn by Mrs. Clayton Lilley, in a sports creation, and Mrs. James Kimble in a formal gown. (Press-Herald Photo)

Little League Auxiliaries Invited

Get-Acquainted Breakfast

Representatives from the Women's Auxiliaries of 37 Little Leagues extending from Westchester to Palos Verdes and east to Dominguez have been invited to breakfast at the International House of Pancakes on Del Amo on Thursday, Feb. 24 at 9:30 a.m. and Mrs. Charles Marcellus of Westchester International League, in charge of favors. Mrs. Harold Green, also of Silver Spur, is publicity chairman.

Entertainment will be provided by Lil Watson, noted for her song parodies with Little League themes.

Invitations have been extended to the president and a delegate from each of the auxiliaries by the administrators of the three districts in which the leagues are included. They are Henry Burke, district 26; Bob Rumbold, district 27 and Tony Sully, district 36.

According to Burke, the purpose of the affair is to provide orientation between the auxiliaries and the leagues as well as to enable the women in the auxiliaries to become acquainted with each other.

Mrs. Milton Barlow of Silver Spur Little League, Palos Verdes Peninsula, is general chairman. Assisting her are Mrs. Kelly Jenkins of the Carson League, who is planning the decorations, Leagues included are: District 26, Central Redondo, Eastview, Lunada Bay, Malaga Cove, North Redondo, Pacific, Palos Verdes, Riviera, Rolling Hills, Silver Spur, South Redondo, Southwood, Sunset and Torondo; District 27, Torrance American, Torrance National, Torrance Central, Pacific Coast, North Torrance East, North Torrance West, Lomita, Harbor City, Carson, Freeway, Victoria Park and Dominguez.

District 36 includes Hermosa, Manhattan Beach, Manhattan Premier, Lawndale, El Segundo American, El Segundo National, Westchester American, Westchester National, Westchester International, Westchester Lincoln and Del Rey.

WITH DETERMINATION

If their dreams come true, several new Little League fields will be staked out in this area soon and how it will be done is shown by the Little League Auxiliary members, from left, Mmes. Art McGiffin, Lomita Little League; Henry G. Smith, Pacific Coast; James Meyer, Torrance Central, and Peter Koop, Torrance American, holding the stake as it is hammered by Mrs. Kelly Jenkins, Carson Little League. This group will join other League members of three districts for a breakfast tomorrow morning at the Pancake House at 9:30. (Press-Herald Photo)

Open House Will Honor Nonagenarian

Mrs. Melvina Beckwith, 1322 Engracia, will be guest of honor at an Open House Sunday afternoon, Feb. 27 from 2 until 5 p.m. in celebration of her 90th birthday.

The party honoring Mrs. Beckwith, who has lived in Torrance since 1916, will be given by her three daughters, Mmes. Joe Hardin and Frederick Cook of Torrance, and Mrs. Stephen Welz of Carmichael.

All friends of the family are invited to attend the party, at the home of the honoree.

Philharmonic Presents

Youth Concert

Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra will present the ninth Youth Concert of the season, Saturday, Feb. 26, at 10:30 a.m. in the auditorium of the San Pedro high school, 15th and Leland.

John Guthrie, who also acts as narrator, will lead the orchestra in Mozart's "Sinfonia Concertante" which features solos for oboe, clarinet, French horn and bassoon.

The program will also include the following selections: Ruy Blas Overture by Mendelssohn, Intermezzo from "Goyescas" by Granados, selections from Handel's "Water Music" suite and the third movement from Tschal-kovsky's Sixth Symphony in B minor.

The Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra is assisting with arrangements. Mrs. Herman Scherer, general chairman, announces that tickets are on sale for a nominal fee at the Peninsula Center Shorebird and the Rolling Hills General Store.

Tickets may also be obtained from the following committee members: Mmes. James C. Foley, Donald Iverson, Edward Cleveland, Roger Allen, and Pierson Melcher. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door the morning of the concert.

Auxiliary Tea Honors

Past Presidents

Past presidents were guests of honor at a tea given by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Department last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, 2724 Arlington Ave.

Sharing the spotlight were Mmes. Ray Flagg, founder and first president, serving in 1952-53; Walter West, 1956; Edgar Polston, 1957; James Wass, 1958; William Slonecker, 1959; Ronald Power, 1960; George Blahnik, 1961; Richard Sprout, 1962; Kenneth Spaan, 1963; Gilbert Pike, 1964, and Denny Haas, 1965.

Mrs. Mack Oetting, current president, presented each past president with a red and white carnation corsage.

Mrs. John Hughes, hospitality chairman, was in charge of the guest book. Other special guests attending the tea were Mrs. J. J. Benner, Ronald Wiener, Robert Hansen and Sina Johnson.

A beautiful centerpiece of red gladioli, white stock and pink and white crysanthemums graced the tea table. Hostesses for the affair were Mmes. Moffitt, Mack Oetting, John Blain and Bruce Smith.

Auxiliary members attending were Mmes. Mark Andersen, Ronald Power, Edgar Polston, Mack Oetting, Sam Martin, Kenneth Spaan, William Slonecker, James Wass, Robert Moffitt, Edward Siminich, Carl Marshall, Edward Kennedy, Denny Haas, Walter West, George Blahnik, Ray Flagg, Gilbert Pike, John Hughes and Bruce Smith.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FEBRUARY 23, 1966

B-1

MY BOSS IS KING

So say these two secretaries as they struggle for the crown to place on their "bosses" head in preparation for the Women's Committee, Harbor District Chapter, American Institute of Banking, annual "Bosses Night" to be held Monday at the Long Beach Petroleum Club. Two bosses, waiting to be "crowned," are, from left, R. M. Boltz, assistant manager and vice president, Crocker Citizens Bank, and Marlo Bates, manager of the Bank of America. Two secretaries struggling for the crown are, from left, Betty Lee, secretary to Mr. Boltz, and Marie Everley, secretary to Mr. Bates. (Press-Herald Photo)

Banking Women's Committee

Plans Gala 'Bosses Night'

Members of the Women's Committee, Harbor District Chapter, American Institute of Banking, have set aside all business matters for the evening of Feb. 28. On that date they will entertain their "bosses" at the Petroleum Club in Long Beach.

This event will begin at 6:30 p.m. with social hour, and a Petroleum Club Buffet Special will be served at 7 p.m., designed to delight any "boss."

Women's Committee Chairman, Mrs. William Geach, announced that the highlight of the evening will be guest speaker Dr. Fred M. Judson, minister, humorist and inspirational lecturer. Dr. Judson's topic for the evening will be "Life Can be Exciting."

Vice Chairman, Millie White, added that a special entertainment will be presented by William Hanson and members of the Women's Committee.

For reservations, those interested are asked to call Irene Hogarth, First State Bank of Lynwood, or the Women's Committee Representative at any local bank.

THANKS FOR PAST SERVICES

Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept. took time out to pay tribute to its past leaders at a tea Saturday afternoon at the R. E. Moffitt home. Mrs. Richard Sprout, left, who served as president in 1962, is receiving a corsage from Mrs. Moffitt, hostess, while Mrs. Mack Oetting, current president, holds the guest register for Mrs. Edgar Polston, who directed the auxiliary in 1957. (Press-Herald Photo)