Hadassah Presents Program

South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will sponsor a program of Israeli Folk Dances on Sunday, Feb. 27 at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

Young dancers belonging to the Student Zionist Organization, a national movement of college students, will offer the dances in costume. The troupe has performed at the Greek Theater and the California Folk Festival, among other engagements.

It will bring to Torrance the culture and customs of modern Israel through the media of dance and music.

The public is invited to attend. A nominal donation will be asked from non-members. Tickets may be secured at the door.

Review History of Parish

Fetes Long-Time Members

Nativity Altar Society paid special honors to long-time and active members as well as welcomed new members at the annual Membership Tea held Tuesday, Feb. 15, at Nativity Annex. Tracing the history of Nativity Parish to its official beginning in 1924, many of the members present also reminisced of days prior when the Parish was formerly known as the "mission of Gardens" and church services were held in parishioners' homes.

Mrs. Rudolph W. Hanke, president, welcomed the new members introduced by Mrs. Loren Lederhos, Welcome Committee chairman. Badges of honor were presented to women who have been active Society members for over twenty years. Receiving the special honors were Mmes. Clayton Bowen, P. B. Clayton, Corwin Dean, T. T. Babbitt, John MacDonald, L. C. Cooper, Nicholas Zupparde, Regina Cunningham, Lillian Kitto, Rose Ortman, Katie Ortman, Theima Graham. Honorees not able to attend the Tea were Mmes. W. Cochran, Howard Lander, Neil J. McConlogue, Emil Ziemke, O. J. Chicoine, Helen Dietlin, Frances Forster, Elizabeth Putman, Cecelia Young, Mary McNeil, Catherine Dummerly and Florence Anderson.

In keeping with the evening's theme of "Thanks to the Members," special activity star awards were also presented to members accumulating the most service years as officers and chairmen during the past twenty year period. Mrs. Regina

NEW RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

Oriented this week on the ever increasing need for and activities of Red Cross volunteers were some 65 area women, including Torrance residents, from left standing, Mmes. Charles Tell, Richard Googian and Leonard Lifton. Seated is Mrs. H. E. Searles, vice chairman for the Southern District Red Cross office of volunteers and a resident of Palos Verdes Estates. Volunteer assignments, in need of personnel, ranging from clerical work in the Service Center to service at bloodmobiles and in the Fort MacArthur hospital and dental clinic, were explained to the group following their certification.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Dorothy Bailey of Harbor City was honored on her 70th birthday recently at a dinner party at the Indian Village given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Willoughby. Other guests were Diana and Donna Willoughby.

Bethel Makes Trip to Snow

Bethel 137, Lomita, International Order of Job's Daughters, spent last weekend on their annual snow trip to Camp O-Onge at Running Springs. On the bus, which left at 6 p.m., were 89 girls and 10 chaperones. The group stopped in Redlands for dinner and arrived at the camp at 11 p.m.

Skits were presented by the girls in each cabin for entertainment Saturday night. Council members and Past Honored Queens also presented skits.

La Leche League Meets Thursday

Redondo Beach-South Bay Chapter of La Leche League will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, Feb. 24 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. David Doke.

The topic for informal discussion will be "Nutrition and Weaning." All women interested in nursing their babies are invited.

the trip were Cheri Nelson, Sharon Rabjohn and Linda Rehar. The rain Saturday night was followed by snow on Sunday.

Also on the trip were Mrs. Alice Mince, guardian; Alvin L. Crawford, associate guardian and Linda Peel, honored queen.

Camino Faculty Wives

Plan Scholarship Benefit

"Birds of a colorful feather" will flock together in the El Camino College Faculty Wives annual fashion show to be held in the dining room of the College cafeteria Thursday, March 10, at 8 p.m.

Colored feathers and caged birds will decorate the stage area to carry off the theme, and both women's and men's fashions will be shown.

Proceeds from the show will go to the Eva M. Murdock Scholarship Fund, which is administered by the Faculty Wives. Scholarship applicants qualify for consideration if they are planning careers in the teaching profession. Two $200 awards are made each year.

City of Hope Benefit Sale Tomorrow

Members of the Sam Levy Chapter, City of Hope, announce their annual new and used merchandise sale to be held tomorrow and Friday at 2561 Pacific Coast Hwy., Rolling Hills Plaza in Torrance.

Doors will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. All proceeds from the sale will be transmitted directly to the City of Hope Pilot Medical Center at Duarte, California, to further the fight against the major catastrophic maladies of the era.

Further information regarding the sale may be had by calling Mrs. Jerome Scharfman or Mrs. Samuel Malten.

Cooperating in the show are two shops of the El Camino Center shopping area. Hair styles for the models will be arranged by a local beauty salon.

Chairman of this year's program is Mrs. Harold Wolpert, who is being assisted by Mmes. Albert Karr, chairman of the scholarship committee; G. Theodore Elmgren, vice president, and Joseph Dada, club president.

Models for the show will be members of the club and male members of the El Camino faculty. This is the first year that men's fashions will be shown in the exhibition.

Mrs. Eva V. Murdock, wife of the first president of El Camino, Dr. Forrest G. Murdock, will attend the show.

Tickets for the fund-raising event may be obtained at the Student Store in the Campus Center.

Who "custom-cooks" fruits and vegetables for your baby?

Gerber...of course!

At Gerber, we cook every food according to its individual needs...to nourish your baby better, and increase his pleasure in eating.

Sweet potatoes, for instance, are more digestible when slow-cooked. Fruits, on the other hand, are flash-cooked to keep their appealing flavors and colors.

"Custom-cooking" brings out the best in every Gerber Strained Food, and preserves the utmost in food values. But isn't that typical of the extra care you get...from a company that specializes in good things for baby?

Babies are our business...our only business!
