

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FEBRUARY 27, 1966

B-1

SET FESTIVE MOOD

Spring social season for the Temple Menorah Sisterhood will open with a gala "Purim Ball" Saturday evening, March 5, at Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo. Plotting the decor for an evening of gaiety are, left, Mrs. Jack Belford, first vice-president and Mrs. George Lewison, reservations chairman. The event honors the 84th birthday of Mrs. Anna Grancell, founder.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Today is Heart Sunday

'Give-
It
Will Do
Your Heart
Good'

LAY GROUNDWORK FOR TODAY'S DRIVE

During the past two weeks, 11,000 letters to South Bay residents have been mailed by the Redondo Beach Dianas, Junior Woman's Club, asking for donations to the Heart Fund, which will be object of the door-to-door campaign to be staged today by hundreds of volunteers. Donations to the Heart Association today will be used to reduce the risk of heart and circulatory disorders, which last year took more than a million American lives. At work mailing the letters, are from left, Mmes George Eastom, Palos Verdes, Eric Lindgren, 22605 Kathryn Ave., Torrance, president of the Dianas, and Sam Constanza, Redondo Beach. Drive workers in Torrance will turn in their collections to the Lindgren home and in Redondo, Mrs. Constanza will accept the proceeds.

Sisterhood Announces

Festive 'Purim Ball'

Highlighting the spring-time social season for the Temple Menorah Sisterhood will be the "Purim Ball," black tie optional, to be held Saturday evening, March 5, at Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

A cocktail hour from 7 to 8 p.m. is scheduled with dinner to be served at 8. Marshall Rips and his orchestra will play for dancing.

The Purim Ball will honor the 84th birthday of Mrs. Anna Grancell, founder of Temple Menorah. A great humanitarian in the South Bay, whose charitable works are also known throughout Los Angeles, Mrs. Grancell supports many organizations. Until recently a resident of the South Bay, the Temple founder is the mother of three sons.

Assisting with this fund raising event to be staged on Purim, traditionally the gayest holiday on the Jewish calendar, are Mmes. Jack Belford, Eugene Kushnick, Mark Bennett, Mark Frisman, and Albert Stock.

Tickets for the "Purim Ball" may be secured by calling Mrs. Edward Sokolski or Mrs. George Lewison.

Local Girl Named to

Mademoiselle Board

Miss Mary Kaye Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Kane, 821 Cranbrook Ave., has been chosen to represent Torrance on the Mademoiselle Magazine College Board.

Mary Kaye, a 1965 graduate of Bishop Montgomery

High, is a freshman at Mount Saint Mary's College, Doheny campus. She is an art major.

Each college board member will have an opportunity to contribute to Mademoiselle and help the magazine keep abreast of campus trends.

The Board is composed of 1,500 winners of the magazine's annual nationwide College Board competition, a contest designed to recognize young women with talent in art, writing, editing, photography, layout, fashion design, merchandising retail promotion or advertising.

Once a student has been selected for the College Board, she is eligible to compete for Mademoiselle's 20 grand prizes. Each year, 20 of the board members are chosen as Guest Editors of Mademoiselle. They help write, illustrate and edit Mademoiselle's August college issue.

MARY KAYE KANE

COMPOSER TO BE PRESENT

Miss Mable Woodworth of Hermosa Beach, center, composer of the second piano part of the Clementi sonatinas, will attend the Tuesday meeting of the South Bay Branch of California Music Teachers Assn. At left is Mrs. Lilas Stefan of Hollywood Riviera, who first played Miss Woodworth's compositions at a piano master class under the direction of Prof. Leo Podolsky, right, who prepared Miss Woodworth's manuscripts for publication.

(Warren Tucker Photo)

Beethoven, Clementi Sonatinas

Featured at MTA Meeting

Two piano arrangements of sonatinas by Beethoven and Clementi will be featured at the March 1 meeting of the South Bay Branch of the California Music Teachers Association, according to Dr. Nino Albanese, group president.

The composer of the second piano part to the Clementi sonatinas, Miss Mabel Woodworth of Hermosa Beach, will be present, as well as Mrs. Lilas Stefan of Hollywood Riviera, who first played Miss Woodworth's compositions at a piano master class, under the direction of Prof. Leo Podolsky, who prepared Miss Woodworth's manuscripts for publication.

Miss Woodworth, professor emerita, of University of Southern California, taught theory and music composition for many years. She has won many honors and much acclaim for her work. Mrs. Stefan, a member of the MTA is a well-known pianist and teacher.

Performing the numbers will be duo-pianists Linda Connor and Candance Miodzik, students of Mrs. June Davison. Mrs. Gail Chandler will host the meeting in her studio in Palos Verdes.

Redondo Beach members attending include Mmes. Alda Russo, Ruth Breyt-spraak, Lucile Knight, Alfreda Headley, Elizabeth Holborn, Lorraine Scott, Collette Nance, Madeline Villa Lobos, Mr. McDonald Scott, and Dr. Nino Albanese.

Torrance members are: Mmes. Gertrude Lumsden, Margaret Scott, Gloria Simonson, Janelle Christensen, Janice Lake, and Beatrice Lee.

Little League Queen Contest Set March 2

Torrando Little League will stage its annual Queen's Contest at the auxiliary meeting set for Wednesday evening, March 2, at the Flavian school.

A queen and two princesses are to be named. The contest is open to girls 8 to 12 years of age whose brother, father or mother are connected with the Little League. Contestants are asked to be at the school at 7:30 p.m.

INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Victor Woman's Club installed its new officers at a dinner meeting at Filippone's restaurant on Feb. 15. Assuming leadership for the coming year were, from left, Mmes. James Bruno, auditor; Bill Daugherty, reporter; Ben Molina, treasurer; Dwight Mills, corresponding secretary; John Reinhold, president; and William Dralle, first vice president. The clever installation ceremony was arranged by Mmes. Herb Coe and Don Tintle.

(Press-Herald Photo)