TORRANCE COUNCIL

Torrance Council Honorary Life Membership Dinner will be held at South High School on March 17 at 6:30 p.m. and the theme is "Coming Up Roses." An instrumental musical program is planned. On March 18, outgoing and incoming presidents will have State Convention orientation. Torrance Council provided 155 cakes to Juvenile Hall last month. Mrs. Stewart Angus, Juvenile Protection chairman, reported.

ANZA

On March 17, Anza PTA will hold elections for PTA officers for the 1966-67 school year. Anza PTA is proud that most of the candidates for office have taken the PTI course this year at Fern Greenwood or in the past when it has been offered by Torrance Council. The guest speaker for the 9:30 a.m. meeting will be Officer R. L. Schwaback of the Torrance Police Dept., who will speak on Juvenile Bureau procedures and a question and answer period will follow. Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag will be led by Troop 1684 and hostesses will be 8th grade mothers. A coffee social will precede the meeting.

FERN GREENWOOD

Fern Greenwood continues its naval theme which was selected to honor Ernest Erickson, a retired naval commander and husband of PTA President Mrs. E. O. Erickson, with a "Rules of the Road" meeting on March 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The pledge of allegiance will be led by the YMCA Bellacoola Indian Maidens. Safety, Health and Registration will be the featured committees and hostesses will be room mothers from 6, 7 and 9.

MEADOW PARK

"To Follow Through With Talents" is the theme of the Meadow Park PTA fashion show and program to be presented jointly by students and PTA members on Tuesday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. The program will consist of mother-made modes and entertainment by the students. Narrations will be by 8th grade girls Shelly Ryggs and Barbara Burdette. Mrs. B. J. Moneyham will preside over the business session and election of officers for the next PTA year will be part of this period. 5th grade room mothers will serve as hostesses.

PARKWAY

Parkway PTA Board will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Woodward at 9:30 a.m. and the discussion will center on the coming "Gala Day" by chairman Mrs. Glen Sharp. At the February meeting, Mrs. Eloise Loomis, kindergarten teacher at Parkway, and Mrs. W. Miles Parker, PTA treasurer were awarded the Honorary Life Membership tribute. Mrs. Loomis was commended for her 35 years of teaching in California and her work at Parkway over many years and her devotion to the scouting movement were especially recognized. "How Our School Operates" will be the subject of the March 17 unit meeting at the school cafetorium. The nominating committee will report and there will be an Open House in all classrooms. First grade mothers will be hostesses.

WEST HIGH

The West High PTA general association meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lecture Room with Mrs. William Peralta presiding. Mrs. William Roseberry, program director, will act as moderator for the featured open discussion on parent-teenager relationships. The annual election of officers for the coming year will also take place under the direction of nominating committee chairman, Mrs. Clifford Alverson. Additional nominations will be accepted from the floor. Mrs. Sophia Dials, hospitality chairman, will preside at the refreshment table following the meeting.

NEWTON

Newton PTA unit will view "Spotlight on Femininity" at its afternoon meeting on March 17, at 2:45 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Robert Mills, program chairman, is planning this Mother-Daughter Tea with the assistance of Mrs. Morgan Moore, Jr. A fashion show will feature Newton daughters modeling clothes made by their mothers. Also modeling will be students of the Newton Home Economics Dept. wearing outfits they have created in the home-making classes of Mrs. Doris Hague.

The flag ceremony will be conducted by Girl Scout Troop 339. Tea will be served by Hospitality chairmen Mrs. Robert Swan and Mrs. Patrick Hynes. They will be assisted by Mmes. Jess Delaterre, Robert Edwards, Harold Graebner, Mark McKie and Gus Morris.

HICKORY

Mrs. Lillie Moston of the City Health Dept. will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Hickory PTA Wednesday evening at the school. Her topic will be "Knowledge of VD." A film, "Dance Little Children" will be shown.

Mrs. Joseph Ruzek was presented the Honorary Life Membership at the last meeting of the PTA.

All members are asked to save papers for the PTA Paper Drive in May.

COLUMBIA

Columbia PTA will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday evening, March 15, at 7:30 in the School Cafetorium. The theme for the evening will be "Reach Out and Communicate." The program will feature a Panel Discussion. The panel will consist of Mmes. Lucille Buffalo, school nurse; Dorothy Hood, speech specialist; and Eloise Shields, school psychologist. There will be a question and answer time. An Honorary Life Membership was presented to Mrs. Clayton Bowen at the last unit meeting.

At Diamond Bar Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pueschel, 2741 Gramercy Ave., spent last Sunday at Diamond Bar as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Theberge, formerly of Torrance.

MAKING FINAL PLANS

Torrance Council PTA will hold its Honorary Life Membership dinner Thursday evening, March 17, at 6:30 p.m. at South High School. During the evening, Honorary Life awards will be presented to citizens who have served the youth of the community. Talking over last minute plans are, from left, Mmes. Kenneth Lemke, program chairman; Hiro Muranaka, council president, and C. R. Griffin, honorary life chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

Violet Show On April 1-2

"Swinging with Violets" will be the theme of the twelfth annual African Violet Show which will be open to the public on April 1 and 2 at the Professional Women's Clubhouse, 820 Java St., one block East of La Brea, between Arbor Vitae and Buckthorne Streets, in Inglewood. The event is sponsored by the African Violet Society of Inglewood. There will be many outstanding plants, chosen for perfection of form and color of blossoms, for the public to enjoy.

Meets March 16 West Torrance Pony League Women's Auxiliary will meet Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. at the home of its president, Mrs. Jean Wirick, 23170 Doris Way. Plans will be made for this year's fund raising events. Refreshments will be served and a door prize given. Old and new members are urged to attend.

Rapid Transit Finance League Study Topic

Who will pay for a mass rapid transit system to be established in Los Angeles County? How many methods of financing it are being considered? How will the system affect the tax picture of the county in general and the South Bay in particular? These are among the questions to be explored next by the League of Women Voters of Torrance in the third stage of the current county study item on rapid transit, reports Mrs. Norman Greenman, chairman of the study. All women of voting age

B'nai B'rith Women To Plan Events

B'nai B'rith Women, Southview Chapter, will hold a meeting Wednesday evening, March 16, at 8 p.m. at the Gold Room Lounge of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach. The guest speaker for the evening will be Rabbi Jerome Unger of Temple Menorah.

Mrs. Lester Sacks, president, announced that on the agenda for the business meeting will be reports by Mrs. Laurence Rodson, ways and means chairman, on the rummage sale the Chapter is having March 21 and Golden Nugget Night. Southview Chapter is co-sponsoring with the Torrance B'nai B'rith Lodge a gala Golden Nugget Night on Saturday evening, March 19, at Temple Menorah. For the admission price, guests will receive free gifts, delicious food, game chips to play the variety of table games available and a gift coupon, also many prizes.

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the meeting. Guests are welcome. For further information, Mrs. Seymour Lampel may be called.

Space Age Home Furniture Program for Alpha Betas
