

Honored at Tea

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 30, 1966

B-1

RECOGNITION TEA FOR CANDY STRIPPERS

Second anniversary of the Candy Stripper program at Torrance Memorial Hospital was noted last Sunday afternoon with a Mother-Daughter Tea at the hospital. During the tea, certificates were presented to the teen-age girls who had completed 50 hours of service, and pins were given to those girls who had served more than 100 hours. In this tea table scene, Sue Dawson, one of the Candy Strippers, serves, from left, Mrs. T. S. Bean, Jr., and her daughter, Pat Bean, Mrs. Emmett Barrett and her daughter, Linda Lee. The program of volunteer service is open to girls 16 years and older.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Candy Strippers, teen-age volunteers at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, were honored at a Mother-Daughter Tea Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the conference room at the hospital. Mrs. Kenneth Miller, representing the Hospital Auxiliary, served as chairman of the event with Mrs. John Barrington, co-chairman.

During the tea, certificates were awarded to girls who had served more than 50 hours and less than 100 hours on duty at the hospital. Receiving certificates were Linda Barrett, Linda Nikkel, Micky Wilner, Jackie Enslin and Toni Putnam.

Candy Strippers who had served more than 100 hours were presented with American Hospital Association Teen-age Volunteer Pins.

Receiving the pins were Joanne Carpenter, 162 hours; Carol Clark, 117; Lydia Mendez, 175; Nancy Sandstrom, 104; Patricia Bean, 392; Kathy Griffin, 346; Jerry Lange, 350; Diane Puckett, 257; Cathy Yurkovich, 502; Susie Dawson, 386; and Jeanette McClain, 109.

Girls over 16 years of age, who have a desire to serve their hospital and community, may become Candy Strippers by obtaining applications from the hospital. A new recruiting program has been scheduled immediately following this school term.

The Candy Stripper program was initiated at the Torrance Memorial Hospital by Mrs. James Kimble in 1964, making this the second anniversary celebration. Mrs. Kimble was recently re-elected to the presidency of the Hospital Auxiliary.

MRS. DAVID WADE

... New Junior President
(Portrait by Seeman)

Junior Woman's Club

Elects Officers

Mrs. David Wade, 17515 Faysmith Ave., has been elected to the presidency of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club for the year 1966-67. The local club is affiliated with the Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership.

The new president, who has lived in California most of her life, is a graduate of Washington High School. She and her family have been Torrance residents for the past nine years. Mr. Wade works for Buffington Motors in Inglewood. There are three young Wades, Brett, 7; Terri Lynn, 5; and Ronnie, 3.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Wade was an employee of the Automobile Club and the G.M.A.C. Her hobbies are sewing, tennis, knitting and camping. The new officers will be installed at a banquet on March 28.

Others were Mmes. Robert Long, treasurer; Gordon Gmur, auditor-bulletin; Gerald Glass, reporter; Frank Ashford, program; David Roza Jr., parliamentarian; Robert Vroman, philanthropy; and Richard Rankin, junior-senior director.

Nativity School Benefit

Club Presents Show

"Cafe de Paree" is the theme of the first annual benefit Fashion Show to be staged by the Nativity Mothers Club on Thursday April 14 at the Nativity Church Annex. Mrs. Robert Klaesgas is serving as general chairman of the event.

Parisian sidewalk cafes will provide the setting for the parade of spring and summer fashions, furnished by a local salon, and modeled by Mmes. Peter Donatoni, Robert Moffitt, Robert Larmon, Fred Cameron, Thomas Haire, Norman Michiels and William Froehlich.

Mrs. Thomas Strickfaden at the organ will play the background music for the fashion promenade. Added entertainment will be a pantomime "Strolling with Chevalier" by Mrs. William Hoffman.

A cocktail hour featuring champagne punch will begin at 7 p.m. with the fashion show at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase athletic equipment for the school.

Other chairmen assisting Mrs. Klaesgas are Mmes. J. W. Crew and Robert Aguilar, advertising; Lawrence Moeder, decorations; James Fornelli, grand prize; Eugene McGovern, tickets and reservations; Robert Lewellen, cocktail hour.

Also, Mmes. Harold Foley, programs; Wilbert Camp, refreshments; Robert Swanson, wardrobe; R. Alan Hicks, hostesses; Richard Thompson, publicity; Lawrence Kutas, coordinator and commentator; and Mr. Eugene Carrington, special lighting effects.

PREVIEW OF SEASON'S NEWEST FASHIONS

Members of the Nativity Mothers Club will take time out to model new fashions to be shown at their first benefit show on April 14 at the Nativity Annex. Posing are, from left, Mmes. Thomas Haire, Norman Michiels, Peter Donatoni and Robert Larmon. Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase athletic equipment for the school.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Dianas Plan Breakfast

Easter Egg Hunt

Easter Bunny will be busy hiding eggs the night before the Redondo Beach Dianas' annual Easter Breakfast and Egg Hunt at Redondo Beach City Park. The fun filled day will start at 9 a.m. on Saturday, April 2.

Chairman, Mrs. Ray Shortridge says that breakfast will begin the morning. The menu consists of sausage, scrambled eggs, coffee, milk, sweet rolls and assorted fruit juice.

Dozens of colored eggs will be hidden around the park and the children will be divided by age groups to start the hunt. Some of the eggs will get special prizes. These eggs will be wrapped in gold paper. Prizes will also be awarded to the children finding the most eggs.

Assisting Mrs. Shortridge will be Mmes. Loren Negley and Howard Towle. They have been making and filling 100 individual baskets for an additional surprise for the children.

The Dianas are members of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

HEADING FOR THE PARK

The golden egg will be the most sought after since it means the finder will be given a prize, when the Dianas stage their annual Easter Egg Hunt for their children at the Redondo Beach City Park next Saturday morning. For this special bit of competition the children will be divided into age groups. With baskets in hand these children await their turn, from left, Hugh Duke, Anne Rolstead, Marsha Williams and Lisa MacBride.

(Press-Herald Photo)

EASTER BUNNY ON HIS WAY

The Easter Bunny had a special request from members of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club to make an early visit Friday night to El Nido Park on 182nd St. to hide dozens of colored eggs for their children to hunt on Saturday morning, April 2. This is an annual family affair and all newcomers are invited. Doughnuts, coffee and juice will be served. Anticipating the hunt are from left, Steven Irons, Mrs. Alfred Aguilar, John Aguilar, Barbette Steve, and Mrs. Richard Irons. For more information or tickets Mrs. John C. Noel, 21713 Reynolds Dr., or Mrs. Richard Rodgers, 1217 Goodman Ave., may be called.

(Press-Herald Photo)