

Hearing Center Guild

Elects New Officer Panel

Las Silabas, "The Syllables," guild to the South Bay Speech and Hearing Center, elected new officers for the coming year at the February meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ralph J. Eikmeier in Torrance. Children attending the Speech and Hearing Center which is under the direction of Mrs. Carol Klingoffer, are referred from all parts of the South Bay and Harbor areas. An equally diversified geographical distribution is represented by officers and members of Las Silabas.

Mrs. John Kern of Torrance was elected to the presidency for the coming year. Other new officers are Mmes. Paul Strauch, of Torrance, vice president; Edward Smith, Torrance, secretary; George Harrington, Palos Verdes Peninsula, corresponding secretary; Hugh Denny, Miralste, treasurer. Mrs. Donald Pendleton, Redondo Beach, will serve as parliamentary and Mrs. Thomas Eastburn of Lomita, historian.

New committee chairmen appointed were Mmes. L. E. Nealy, Hawthorne, finance; Ralph Eikmeier, Torrance, program; F. E. Wood, Palos Verdes Peninsula, membership; and Gene Klein, San Pedro, refreshments.

Bill Culp, psychometrist with Torrance and Harbor Area schools, recently spoke to members of Las Silabas and their guests, discussing his work with testing and placing children in special classes. A question and answer period followed with regard to aiding speech and hearing handicapped children.

NEW OFFICERS BUSY WITH PROJECT

Las Silabas, guild to the South Bay Speech and Hearing Center, not only elected new officers at its recent meeting, but planned an Easter Egg Hunt and party for the children who attend the Center. These new officers are already busy on the project, from left, Mmes. John Kern, new president; Hugh Denny, treasurer, and Edward Smith, recording secretary. (Press-Herald Photo)

Anyone wishing to volunteer please call the district office of the American Cancer Society.

Alpha Delta Alumnae Plan

Benefit Egg Hunt

South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Association will stage a benefit Children's Easter Egg Hunt on Wednesday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Davidson, 14 Lariat Lane, Rolling Hills Estates.

Mrs. George Towner of Palos Verdes Peninsula is serving as chairman for the event for the children of Alpha Delta Pi members and their guests.

Proceeds will be used for the sorority's national philanthropy, the Crippled Children's Society.

In two separate areas, 50 dozen colored eggs will be hidden, one for pre-schoolers and the other for school age children. Individually wrapped chocolate candy eggs will also be hidden for additional hunting pleasure for the younger set.

Refreshments for all will be served following the hunt. Hostesses are Mmes. Albert Smith, Charles Martz, Grant Laney, Samuel Wernli, Robert Dunaetz and Robert Hartfield. Bunny ears and tails will be provided for the small guests.

Surprise Shower for Bride-elect

Miss Cathy Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Whitehead, 18826 Haas Ave., who will become the bride of Mike Smart on April 23 at the Crenshaw Christian Church, was complimented at a surprise miscellaneous bridal shower on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Cairns, 4222 W. 164th St., Lawndale. Hostess for the event was Miss Dianne Harris.

Centerpiece on the table was a cake decorated with pink roses and inscribed with the names "Cathy and Mike."

After the future bride had opened her gifts, the hostess served refreshments.

Attending the shower were Mmes. Jack Smart, Richard Fraser, John L. Smart, Earl Wendt, Sr., Robert E. Forsyth, Richard Marshall, Edward Kusakowski, George Whitehead, Robert W. Long, John C. Deichman, Lydia C. Whitehead, John P. Birchfield, Carolyn Harris and Carol Cairns.

Others were Mmes. Mary Schockley, Lynn Forsyth, Gale Forsyth, Nancy and Susan Flower, Lynn Mukamoto, Linda Messimer, Anna Costanza, Jean Ingles, Tommi Wendt, Carolyn Kulakowski and Diana Winchell.

Club Hostess

Mrs. R. K. Petrat was hostess for her bridge club last Wednesday evening at her home, 2942 Opai St.

A dessert was served, followed by bridge in which Mrs. William Rogers held high score and Mrs. Allen Hofferber, second.

Other guests were Mmes. Lee Clothworthy, Robert Davis, Ed Hatter, Cliff Trezise, and J. G. Louvier. Mrs. Rogers will be hostess at the April meeting.

Couple Wed at St. Margaret's

Making their home in Lomita are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leo Corwin, who were married recently at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, in a mid-afternoon ceremony. Mrs. Corwin is the former Judith Ann Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Russell, 24518 Senator, Harbor City.

Mrs. Elizabeth Corwin of Lomita is the mother of the bridegroom.

Rev. John Hegarty, pastor, officiated at the marriage for which the bride wore an empire gown of rose lace over taffeta. The gown was fashioned with a long taffeta and lace train attached at the shoulder. Her full tiered veil was secured by a lace floral headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and spider chrysanthemums. Mr. Russell escorted his daughter to the altar.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Nancy Corwin; Misses Patricia Bray, Mary Russell, and Margie Stratidakis.

Rick Moore was best man and ushers were Tom and Ted Corwin and Jim Drullner.

A reception was held at the Torrance YWCA.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and attended Harbor College. Her husband, a Bishop Montgomery High graduate, also attended Harbor College.
