Two Boy Scouts Win Eagle Rank

"This Is Your (Scout) Life" was the theme of a Court of Honor held by Boy Scout Troop 730 of North Torrance marking the elevation of two members of the troop to the rank of Eagle Scout.

Craig Nelson, 16, and Roger Schroeder, 14, received the coveted Eagle rank from Area Commissioner Fayze Fandy and assistant district executive Bill Klement of the South Bay District.

Former scoutmasters Ralph Manahan, Curt Lailer, and Tok Ono served as the off-stage voices who recounted Craig's and Roger's adventures and achievements in Troop 730.

Scoutmaster Herb Bayles presided at the Court of Honor and the Rev. Edward Goodell of the First Methodist Church of Torrance delivered the invocation.

$ $ $ RUBBISH $ $ $

Powerful rubbish collection interests have put up a puppet candidate for mayor (Nick Drale) and are pouring thousands of dollars into his campaign. Their objective is to get a monopoly on residential rubbish collection (30,000 homes), a million-dollar-a-year plum! Then watch your rates go up!

MAYOR ALBERT ISEN has firmly opposed all attempts of the rubbish interests to take over this municipal service. And that is why so much rubbish money is going into his opponent's campaign. HELP YOUR MAYOR prevent a rubbish monopoly in Torrance.
