

MRS. RALPH D. KENNEDY

Married at Nativity

Nativity Catholic Church was the setting for the midday wedding ceremony in which Marcia Olive Thompson became the bride of Ralph Donald Justin Kennedy. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lucille Meyer and the late Mr. David Thompson.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Loretta A. Kennedy and the late Mr. Ralph J. Kennedy.

The wedding gown of peau de soie was designed by the bride and made by Mrs.

Laura Hutton. The neckline, bodice, front of the skirt, and the train were enhanced with lace appliques embroidered with sequins and pearls. Her illusion veil was held by a peau de soie flower and her bouquet was of white orchids, roses and Stephanotis. Mr. Merritt Meyer escorted the bride to the altar.

Bridal attendants were Misses Patricia Viehhaus, Mimi Snow and Cecela Cunningham, all wearing candlelight blue gowns. Teresa Pollard was flower girl.

Ted W. Liebmann stood as best man and ushers were Edward Kennedy and William Rogers.

'Courtesy' Theme for Bethel Meet

"Courtesy Night" was observed by the Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters at their first meeting in March at the Masonic Temple. Honored Queens presiding were Miss Robin Bingham and Miss Linda Pool.

Visiting Bethels were Lomita 137, Wilmington 57, El Segundo 295, and San Pedro 24.

So in attendance were Bethel Guardians, Mmes. Carolyn Petersen, June Brand, Lori Shoemaker, Mary Alice Mince and Ellen Van Duzer.

Associate guardians attending were Charles Moore, John Gorman, Robert Bowles and Al Crawford.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room.

"Blast Off" was the theme for the Junior Princess' project, a pancake breakfast held on March 13 at the Masonic Temple.

On March 25, twenty-five members of the Bethel gathered at the Temple for a surprise trip.

Rev. William Appling officiated at the marriage and nuptial music was played by M. Maciewski.

A reception was held at the Torrance Scout Center.

The bride, a graduate of Torrance High School, attended El Camino. She is employed by the General Telephone Co.

Her husband, a graduate of New York College of Education at Oswego, continued his education at Los Angeles State College. He is a member of Sigma Gamma and is an audio-visual consultant for the Los Angeles City School District.

Mrs. D. Baer Palos Verdes Gallery Features Two Artists

Mrs. Donald Baer, 4142 W. 175th Pl. was complimented at a stork shower given Monday evening by Mrs. Wes English and Mrs. Eugene Douglass.

A miniature cradle formed the centerpiece on the table and pink and blue nutcups added to the decor.

Several games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Robert Merk and Mrs. Tony Gaetoni.

Mrs. Baer was presented with a pink and blue corsage by the four young daughters of Mrs. Douglass.

Attending the shower were Mmes. Gordon Cizik, James Reynolds, John Fitzpatrick, Chuck Bruning, Robert Merk and Tony Gaetoni, of Torrance; and Mrs. P. Vigil of Hawthorne.

Others were Misses Patty Baer, Paul Fitzpatrick, Lori Joyce, Joanne and Marilyn Douglass.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend were Mmes. Kenneth Sharp and William Latendresse, both of Torrance.

Art Rental Gallery of the Palos Verdes Community Arts Association will present two outstanding artists during the month of April, Pat Cox and Marcus White.

Mrs. Cox's exhibit includes oil, watercolor, momprint and collage. Some of the work in oil is experimental, with heavy textures and light glazes. There is an organic quality in most of the works, an awareness of their source in nature.

Mrs. Cox, a local resident, and active in the Community Arts Association, received her M.A. degree from Miller College and has studied with various well-known artists including Robert Frame and Doug Kingman.

Marcus White is well known for his versatile work in wood sculpture, metal construction and imaginative collages. He creates both massive and delicate forms with many approaches—bold, humorous, sensitive, clever. White speaks of his works as projections of the personal and collective psyche.

He studied at El Camino College and Otis Art Institute. He was an accomplished professional in the field of music before he turned to sculpture in 1951.

He is the recipient of many awards, notably the Los Angeles County Museum sculpture award, 1959, bestowed by the distinguished American Sculptor, the late David Smith. He is currently teaching at the Palos Verdes Art Center.

Art Rental Gallery at 405 Via Chico, Malaga Cove Plaza, is open from 1 to 4 p.m. on Thursdays and Fridays and from 11 to 2 p.m. on Saturdays.

At Morango

Enjoying a weekend at Morango, on the high desert, recently, were Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears and guests, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney, and Misses Margie Whitney and Mary Baggett.

Ramblers on Busy Agenda New Classes Open at YW

Senior Ramblers of Gardena enjoyed a day of fun at their recent Easter Hat Show held under the supervision of Leola Hodges and Hazel Strejcek.

Climax of the party was the awarding of the prize, a new Easter Hat, to Mrs. Ruth Leatherman.

The Ramblers will have an Easter Party Friday at Recreation Park, 15th and Normandie in Gardena, at noon. The public is invited to attend.

Chartered bus trips are planned to the Ramona Pageant, Lilac Show and Wild Flower Tour on Saturday, April 16. All Senior Citizens and others interested are invited to make the trip. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Elsa Stone, P. O. Box 492, Torrance.
