

MARY WISE Menu Planners AND SHOPPING SUGGESTIONS

WHAT'S FOR DINNER on Easter? Stuffed roast shoulder of lamb, of course. And that's good news for the cook because she can use a ready-mix cornbread dressing, simply adding pineapple and mint to bring out the succulent flavor of the lamb.

Put Roast Lamb on The Menu Easter Day

Festive eating is yours on Easter Sunday if you serve your family a handsome shoulder of lamb roast, decked out with a good-tasting pineapple-mint stuffing.

Plan to use a ready-made dressing (we used Mrs. Cubbison's Cornbread Stuffin'). The stuffing is melba toasted, seasoned just enough to blend perfectly with the crushed pineapple and fresh mint. Simply add the pineapple juice and butter, toss gently, and it's ready to be added to the lamb roast.
