Tartars Emerge In Baseball Play

Torrance won a leg of the Hawthorne Baseball Tournament and qualified for the semi-finals today at Lawndale.

The Tartars gained a 9-0 shutout against South High yesterday at Redondo to gain a berth in the semis. Torrance also defeated Palos Verdes, 8-4, and lost to Redondo, 7-1, in the playoffs.

Torrance, Redondo and Palos Verdes each had 2-1 series in a roundrobin tourney that also included three-time loser South.

Because of the likelihood of a deadlock in a short series of this type, special rules called for the most runs in three games to settle the issue.

Torrance had an 18-11 total to 18-18 for P.V. to emerge the survivor.

Palos Verdes lost to Torrance, but defeated South, 7-6, on Monday, and Redondo yesterday, 7-4.

Lawndale, host opponent for Torrance today, qualified for the semi-finals despite a 1-0 shutout loss to North yesterday. Lawndale had beaten Mira Costa, 5-4, and Aviation.

North was eliminated with a 6-4 loss to Mira Costa, and a 5-4 setback to Aviation.

In the showdown between Lawndale (2-1) and Aviation (2-1), Lawndale beat Aviation, 4-2.

Hawthorne and Rolling Hills won the other two semi-final berths outright with 3-0 record. They met this morning at Hawthorne. Hawthorne upset favored El Segundo, 2-1, to go along with victories over Leuzinger and Huntington Beach.

Rolling Hills went through unblemished while conquering West, Lennox and Morningside.

Rolling Hills scored two runs off flu-ridden Dave LaRoche in the first inning for a 2-1 win Monday. Morningside knocked over West, 4-3, in a losing effort for Ron Sells.

West salvaged a 5-4 win over Lennox yesterday. LaRoche had three hits.

Coach Max Lomas praised Bruce Cooke for pitching a 1-hit ball after taking over for LaRoche in the Rolling Hills game. Cooke also homered against Morningside for two of his team's three runs.

North's 1-0 win over Lawndale was the first shutout for Jim O'Brien as coach at North. Steve Sibley threw a 3-hitter in the shutout.

Torrance got a 15-strikeout performance from Bart Johnson in his first start as a Tartar pitcher. He scattered 10 hits.

Steve Kealey blanked South, 9-0, as the Tartars had 3-run and 5-run innings.

South's Ken Pfaun returned to the mound after a three-week layoff, but he gave up five hits to Redondo and was beaten.

After going 23 innings without giving up a run, Redondo also got six off Bob Sharpe in two innings in a 7-1 game.

The winners of this morning's games between Torrance and Lawndale, and Hawthorne and Rolling Hills, will play for the championship tonight at 7:30 at El Segundo Recreation Park.

LAKER STARS... Elgin Baylor, Rudy LaRusso and Walt Hazzard lead the Los Angeles pro basketball team into St. Louis tonight for the third game of the Western Division playoffs. The Lakers have beaten the Hawks in two games, 129-106 and 125-116.

Game Against Bears Eyed on Ram Sked

Papa Bear George Halas and California Bear George Allen, who parted not too amicably last January in a Chicago courtroom, will take their case before the Coliseum jury on Friday night, Sept. 16.

Advised of the new 1966 schedule, announced jointly by the Rams and the National Football League office today, Allen offered a terse bit of understatement: "It being the home opener, I imagine our club will be 'up for the game. And I believe Coach Halas will have his team ready, too."

For the third straight year the Rams will play their league opener on the road, this year visiting Atlanta, where they will have the honor of playing the first "for keeps" game at the new stadium, September 11.

Sellouts loom for the Rams' first three games. The Atlanta and Green Bay road tests should fill those stadia and the Bear game may reach the Coliseum capacity of 72,000.

Eastern Division competition will be furnished by the New York Giants, who visit the Coliseum for the first time since 1959.

The Rams will play five of their first seven on the road and they do not visit the Midwest's "cold belt" after an October 23 date in Chicago. However, weathermen and a football men alike predict an "extremely cold" reception in the Windy City.

The schedule:

Sept. 16 — Home, Sept. 30 — Forty-Niners, Oct. 30 — Colts, Nov. 13 — Giants, Nov. 20 — Vikings, Dec. 4 — Packers, Dec. 11 — BYE, Dec. 18 — Packers.

Sept. 11 — Atlanta, Sept. 25 — Green Bay, Oct. 8 — Detroit, Oct. 16 — Minnesota, Oct. 23 — Chicago, Nov. 6 — San Francisco, Nov. 27 — Baltimore.

Regulations Defined for Taking Game

The Department of Fish and Game has proposed re-vamping the regulations on the kind of weapons that can be used to take big game and small game. At present, the regs prohibit using certain types of weapons. The proposed regs specify what can be used rather than what cannot be used.

To take deer, bear, elk, antelope, and wild pigs, the DFG proposed rifles using centerfire cartridges with softnose or expanding bullets, bow and arrow, and muzzle loading rifles. For taking deer, bear, and wild pigs only, shotguns capable of holding not more than three shells firing single slugs also would be legal.

For small game and migratory game birds, the proposal authorizes use of shotguns 10 gauge or smaller using shot shells, falconry, and bow and arrow. For rabbits and squirrels only, rifles and pistols also could be used except in Los Angeles County.

Armbro Flight Favored in $20,000 Trot

Armbro Flight makes her final appearance of the spring harness racing season at Santa Anita Saturday when the nation's top trotter heads a small but stellar field for the $20,000 Californian Trot.

The Californian highlights the final full week of racing at the Arcadia track. The meeting comes to a close Monday.

Armbro Flight, winner of more than 80 per cent of her lifetime starts, figures as the horse to beat in the California.

Major competition is expected to come from Big John and Candid Rodney, with other possible starters in the race including Perfect Freight, Donner Hanover, Blue Rodney, Brave Lad and Glidden Hanover.

Joe O'Brien will drive Armbro Flight, whose 1:59 1/5 clocking at Delaware, O., last year is a world record on a half-mile track.

Another Contender Found for Cassius

"I think I can beat Cassius Beattie added. As for the 'greats' of boxing, Beattie believes "Clay would outbox them all," though he does concede that "Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano would eventually knock him out. However, Clay would be tough and give them a hard fight."

Beattie is "just looking forward to the day I can get in the ring with Clay, and fight him. It'll be hard, but I know I can beat him. I'll be properly trained."

Parnelli Jones Drives New Car

Parnelli Jones, the former Indianapolis 500-mile winner, hopes for another eventful ride Saturday at Ascot Park when he steps behind the wheel of a new car for the Offy 110 midjet race card.

Jones will headline the cast for the United States Auto Club-sanctioned program that will serve as a final tuneup locally for many of the "Indy" drivers before they head for the famed Indianapolis brickyard.

Parnelli's last race at Ascot saw him wind up upside-down. That was the Grand Prix Thanksgiving Day when Jones and A. J. Foyt tangled in a torrid duel.

Jones has a new Offy for this outing and he'll be the man to beat, but the competition will be strong. Among the other entrants are Mike McGreevy, 1965 titlist; George Snider, Dick Atkins, Johnny Monerhouse, George Benson, Don Meacham, Allan Heath and Tommy Copp.
