

The Easter Story

But on the first day of the week at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared, and they found the stone rolled back from the tomb. But on entering, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, while they were wondering what to make of this, that, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling raiment. And when the women were struck with fear and bowed their faces to the ground, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he spoke to you while he was yet in Galilee, saying that the Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise?"

And they remembered his words. And having returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary, the mother of James, and the other women who were with them, who were telling all these things to the apostles.

Is Risen"

"Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Let the Holy Anthem Rise"

As dawn broke over the harbor this Easter Sunday morning, 3,000 worshippers gathered near the cross in Green Hills Memorial Park to participate in the Sunrise Service commemorating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Along with the Easter Hallelujahs, worshippers heard a 35 member chorus sing "Unfold Ye Portals" from Gounod's Redemption and "Jesus Paid It All." Among those attending this 18th annual Easter Sunrise Service was this Torrance family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dodd and four daughters, from the Hunter, pastor of the Grandview Methodist Church. Concluding the service was the inspiring rendition from Handel's "Messiah" sung by Mrs. Maedel Haley, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Jessie Cofield.

Hopping Down the Bunny Trail

Bunnies, Baskets, Food

The frisky Easter Bunny was busy this week hiding brightly colored eggs for the children of Torrance, who enjoyed the hunt and then indulged in Easter Party refreshments. At the left, are Sandy Rogers standing; Maya Kirk with basket, and Janice Masamoto, making a discovery at the Las Silabas Guild's Easter Egg Hunt on the YWCA grounds. Pictured at the right, enjoying the party given by the Auxiliary to the Fire Dept., are the three Edward Grabowski children, in bunny costumes, twins Christine and Carol, seated, with Helen Marie, standing. And proving that the chocolate cake was delicious is Julie Wood, pictured above.
