

Social World

Eina Cloyd, Editor

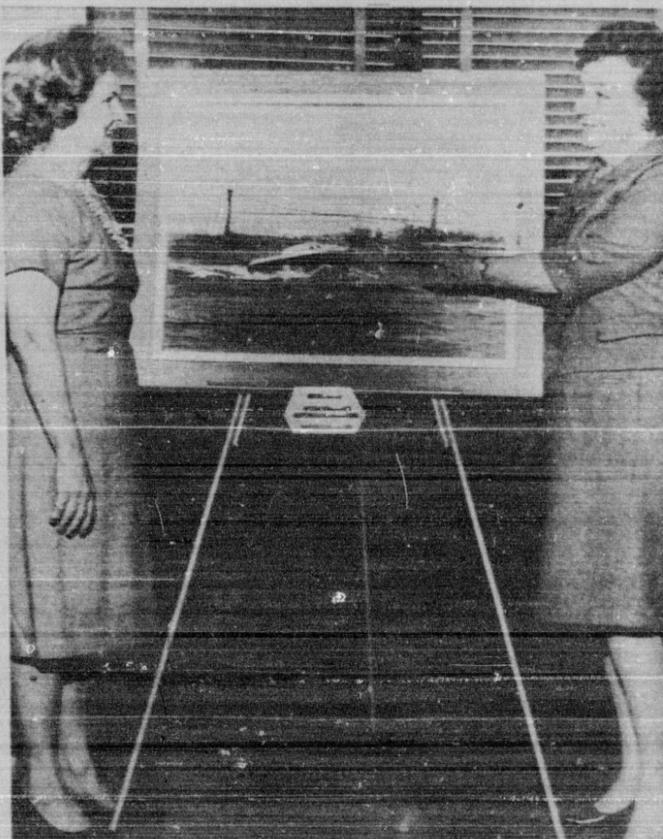

FEBRUARY 10, 1965

B-1

THE BOSS IS KING . . . Their "busses" will be spotlighted when the Harbor District Women's Committee of the American Institute of Banking holds its annual celebration at the Pacific Coast Club, 850 E. Ocean Blvd. in Long Beach, on Monday evening, Feb. 15. Showering attentions on "bosses," who will be among the special guests, are, from left, Marie Everly, brushing off Mario Batos; Roberta Stanton, lighting a cigarette for Boss Gil Brust, and Elva Moreno, giving a shine to Boss Arnold Lowenberg. Members from the "Gypsy" cast will entertain. (Press-Herald Photo)

TRI-CLUB MEETING . . . Torrance Pilot Club, Mrs. Adele Burchfield, president, will be hostess for the Tri-Club meeting, Long Beach, Lakewood and Torrance Pilot Clubs, at the Indian Village on Feb. 17. Charles C. John, representing United Airlines, will speak on travel and show colored films. A special door prize, an oil painting of the Vincent Thomas Bridge, will be awarded. Here, Mrs. Ida Hechinger, Pilot Club member, admires the oil shown by Alta Strosnider, the artist, also a Pilot Club member. (Press-Herald Photo)

VIVIAN ROJAS . . . Receives Wings

Local Girl Hostess for Airlines

Vivian E. Rojas, 20, daughter of Mrs. Beatriz A. Ashenfelter, 3506 W. 226th St., Torrance, was a recent graduate from Continental Airlines' hostess training school at Los Angeles International Airport, Los Angeles. She has been assigned to Dallas and is flying aboard Continental's Jet-Powered Viscount IIs. A native of Torrance, Miss Rojas is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School. Before joining Continental she was employed as a secretary at Herio Engineering Corp. in Hawthorne.

At Pacific Coast Club

'Bosses Night' Slated By Banking Group

"Bosses" will be special guests when the Harbor District Chapter Women's Committee of the American Institute of Banking holds a "fun" evening on Monday, Feb. 15, at the Pacific Coast Club, 850 E. Ocean Blvd. Entertainment will be provided by a group of performers headed by Harvey Wiggomer, from the Long Beach Civic Light Opera. Excerpts from "Gypsy," now being presented by the Opera group at the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach, will highlight the program. Women's Committee chairman, Mrs. Lowell Lutz, will welcome members and their bosses to the social hour at 6 p.m. Dinner will follow at 6:30 p.m. The program will be presented by Miss Joan Teller, vice-chairman. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Norman Dalbey, Bank of America, Seal Beach Branch.

Women Will Hear USC Coed

A USC coed will speak on "News Management" to Republican Women Thursday, Feb. 11, at Smith Brothers' "Indian Village" in Torrance. She is Miss Penny McElroy, a college senior, majoring in political science and history. The event is the noon luncheon meeting of the South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women. Miss McElroy is a member of Intercollegiate Society of Individualists, Young Americans for Freedom and Kappa Delta. She was awarded the Freedom Foundation's Valley Forge Award for her speech on the United Nations. Miss McElroy lives with her family in Pasadena. She is sponsored by Coast Federal Savings Free Enterprise Speakers Bureau.

SHIRLEY BRIGGS . . . Plans 1966 Wedding

Announce Daughter's Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Don Briggs, 21900 Martin St., Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Jean, to Milton George Munyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Munyer, 24256 Park Ave., Torrance. The wedding is planned for February 1966. The future bride will be graduated from Carson High School in June 1965. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Tom McCarty of Ottumwa, Iowa, and the late Mr. McCarty. Mr. Munyer is a graduate of South High School and El Camino College. He is now attending California State College at Long Beach.

Dianas' Spring Fashion Show, Luncheon Feb. 13

Spring fashions will be unveiled at the annual benefit luncheon fashion show "Hearts Delight," by the Redondo Beach Dianas. The luncheon and fashion parade will take place Saturday, Feb. 13, at 12:30 at the new Los Verdes Country Club in Palos Verdes. Proceeds from the fashion show will go to the North Redondo Health Center and the Las Palmas

School for Emotionally Disturbed Girls. Decorations of red and white carnations, cupids, and hearts will carry out the Valentine theme, according to decoration chairman Mrs. Eric Lindgren. Clothes will be from a local dress shop and will be modeled by the shop's models and some of the Dianas members.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS . . . A Valentine theme carried out in a classical Grecian decor has been chosen by the Philoptochos Ladies Society of St. Katherine's Greek Orthodox Church for its annual Membership Tea to be held Saturday at the Frank Dimitriou home in Palos Verdes. In a preview of Saturday's event, as they gathered to talk over plans, are, seated, Mmes. Nick Nickolin, serving Mrs. Michael N. Hallikis, as Mrs. Frank Dimitriou and Mrs. George Giannioses, tea chairmen, wait to be served. A number of prominent guests from other districts will attend. (Press-Herald Photo)

Kathleen Friess To Wed James Roberts April 10

Mrs. Albert F. Holland, 26542 Eastvale Rd., has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Kathleen Friess to James F. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Roberts of Lomita. Miss Friess is also the daughter of Mr. Gustave E. Friess of Manhattan Beach. She is the granddaughter of the late Raymond V. Darby, former Inglewood Mayor and Los Angeles County Supervisor and the late Mrs. Darby and of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Friess of Lake Elsinore. The bride-elect, a long-time Palos Verdes Peninsula resident, attended local schools and is a graduate of Palos Verdes High School. She also attended Harbor College. Roberts has attended California State College at Long Beach and was graduated from Narbonne High School, where he served as associated students' vice president. The formal announcement of the engagement was made to family members and friends during the holidays. The wedding date has been set for April 10 at St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, Rolling Hills.

KATHLEEN FRIESS . . . Spring Bride (Portrait by Seaman)

Rummage Sale
Sandy Shores Navy Mothers 244 will stage a rummage sale on Thursday, Feb. 11, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 1035 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach. The public is invited to attend.

At Dimitriou Home Feb. 13 Philoptochos Society Sets Membership Tea

Philoptochos Ladies Society of St. Katherine's Greek Orthodox Church will hold a Membership Tea on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Dimitriou in Palos Verdes Estates. Purpose of the tea is to recruit new members for this philanthropic organization. A Valentine Day theme will prevail with a classical Grecian motif. Guest speaker for the event will be Mrs. Lewis Perry of Los Angeles, who is first vice president of the IV Archdiocesan district of Philoptochos. Visiting guests will include the president of the IV district, Mrs. Joanna Kalas, and Mrs. Stella Vakalakis, secretary, both from Santa Barbara, and other prominent Philoptochos Society women from outlying districts. Mrs. Perry will speak on the function of Philoptochos, helping those in need, and she will report on the National Greek Orthodox Clergy-Laity convention held in Denver, Colo. recently. Following the talk, refreshments will be served. Mrs. George Giannioses is serving as chairman of the tea with Mrs. Alex Turlis, co-chairman. On the committee, acting as hostesses, will be Mmes. Ernest Donlow, Adam Englezos, Demetrios Hallikis, Michael Hallikis, Gus Loukatos, Nick Nickolin and Angelo Revels, president of the St. Katherine chapter.

SWEETHEART DANCE . . . Women's Council of St. Philomena's parish will stage its major social event, a "Sweetheart Dance," Saturday evening at the Sts. Peter and Paul parish hall, Bayview and G St., Wilmington, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The Johnnie Winkler Quintet will furnish dance music. Concentrating on a large Valentine centerpiece are, at top, Mrs. Al Weber, left, Mrs. Clifford Daniels, chairman of the ways and means committee, and right, Mrs. Armando Brunetti. Tickets may be secured at the door and all dancers are invited to attend. (Press-Herald Photo)