

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. M. H. Spaulding

HAMILTON
Mrs. Marcella Holland, cafeteria manager, and Dr. Dale Wickstrom, principal, were the 1965 recipients of the Honorary Life award from Hamilton PTA. They were honored for their outstanding work with and interest in children. They attended the Honorary Life dinner at South High School with previous recipients on March 2.

At the last meeting, Mrs. Anthony Gamboa, 33rd District president; Mrs. James Orr, Torrance Council president; and Mrs. Myron Spaulding, charter president of Hamilton PTA, were the featured guest speakers.

Mrs. Eloise Shields, school psychologist for the Torrance Unified Schools spoke at the first Parent Education course on problems of seventh and eighth grade students. The second of the series will be held on March 17 at 1:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Hodgeman.

MEADOW PARK
On March 16, Meadow Park PTA will feature their annual fashion show. Mothers and students of Meadow Park School will model and members of the eighth grade will narrate the program. Anyone who sews and would be interested in participating in the show may call Mrs. Fred E. Burdette.

There will be a talent tryout Monday, March 8, in the school cafeteria at 1:30. All students interested in performing at the March meeting are urged to try out. The nominating committee met Thursday, March 4, at the home of Mrs. Fred E. Burdette, 4017 - 232nd St., to discuss candidates for office for the coming year.

Meadow Park PTA board members will meet Thursday, March 11, at 7:30 in the teachers' room at the school.

TORRANCE HIGH
Parent Education lecture series will be presented by Torrance High School, Torrance Evening High School and the PTA, according to Mrs. H. S. Rogers, unit president, and Mrs. Hiro Murakami, parent education chairman. The series will feature outstanding speaker and psychologist Dr. Barney Katz and will begin Monday, March 15.

Theme of the series is "The Family in the Modern World" and each lecture will relate to an important and provocative aspect of our society. Dates and subject matter are: March 15, "The Roles and Rights of Parents;" March 22, "Pre-Teens and Teenagers - The Stormy Years;" March 29, "Sex Education and Adjustment;" and April 5, "Preparation for Successful Marriage."

The series will be held in the Torrance High School auditorium, starting promptly at 7:30 p.m.

TORRANCE
The Tiarat Choir of the Torrance High School, will perform Monday, March 8, at the Torrance Elementary PTA meeting. Utilizing the theme "Our Responsibility for Our Neighbor," the meeting will convene at 7:30 p.m. in the school's cafeteria, 2125 Lincoln Ave. Mothers of the second and third grades will act as hostesses for the evening's entertainment.

Celebrating Founder's Day at the February meeting, the Honorary Life Membership award was presented to Mrs. Earl Carter, president. Mrs. Thomas Bray, Honorary Life chairman, presented the award to Mrs. Carter in recognition of her services to PTA and local youth activities during the past years.

Completing the business portion of the meeting, an election of officers will be held, selecting those to serve for the ensuing year, 1965-1966.

SOUTH HIGH
"Toward Social Responsibility" is the theme for the March 10 meeting of South High PTA. Election of officers will be held during the business meeting. Following this, members from six school clubs will be introduced by William Morgan, vice principal. They will talk to the parents on their clubs' aims and purposes. To further acquaint parents with opportunities at South High, Carl Benson, vice principal in charge of pupil personnel, will invite them to have a cup of coffee in a roundtable discussion with the School Counselors after a demonstration of student programming. Presiding at the tables will be: Ninth Grade, Mrs. Madeline O'Connor; 10th Grade, Franklin Anderson; 11th Grade, Joseph Rotcher; 12th Grade, Miss Margaret Castle; College, Mrs. Betty Grebel. All parents are invited to the 8 p.m. meeting in the school cafeteria.

EVELYN CARR
Mrs. Nels Weberg and Mrs. Quentin Cunningham received the Honorary Life Membership awards at the February meeting of the Evelyn Carr PTA. Both women have been active in various youth organizations for many years.

Mrs. Jack Till, Founders Day chairman, presented a "Birthday Gifts for PTA" skit. Special guests included Mrs. James Orr, Torrance Council PTA president and many past Honorary Life recipients.

Past presidents of Carr PTA who attended were Mrs. E. Morgan 1954-56, charter president; J. R. Allison, 1956-59; Perry Baker, 1959-61; Quentin Cunningham, 1961-63; and Stanley Jackson, 1963-64.

Birthday cake was served by room mother hostesses at the conclusion of the meeting.

CALLE MAYOR
Honorary Life Membership awards were presented to Mrs. Leonard Priestly and Mrs. George Kurtz at the annual Founder's Day meeting of Calle Mayor PTA, Tuesday, Feb. 9.

The program, entitled "Fore and Aft," included a background sketch of the 68 years of the National and State PTA movements, and a "drawing for door prizes." The door prize winners, Mrs. Priestly and Mrs. Kurtz, were given Honorary Life Membership pins and corsages while Mr. Cletus Nestlerode, Calle Mayor instructor, described their community activities.

In addition to several year's service in PTA, both women have contributed many hours to charity drives, scout work and other services for the benefit of children and youth.

Also on the program was a student folk song quartet, and a question and answer period conducted by Principal Dr. Richard Welte, concerning school program. Joe Wilcox, recipient of Calle Mayor's first Honorary Life Membership, was among the honored guests.

Following the program, members and guests were invited by President Mrs. Joseph Matwisk, to share the PTA's large cake.

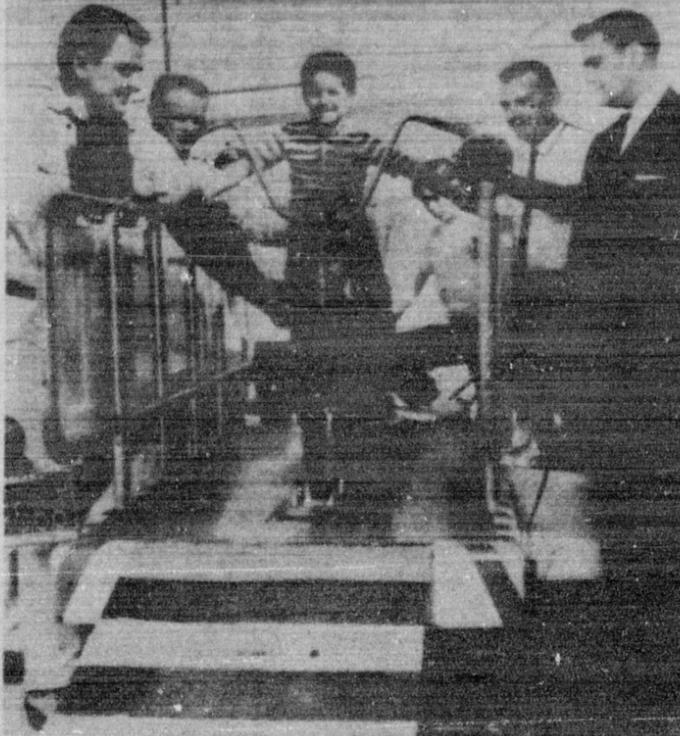

JEFFERSON
"Our Founders Wore Shawls" was the title of the Founder's Day program at the Jefferson PTA meeting, directed by Mrs. Henry Carlson with PTA members, teachers and children participating.

Mrs. Carlson then presented the Honorary Life recipient, Mrs. Gus Cochrane. All past recipients and presidents were honored.

Mrs. Ray Weiler, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Peter Sandowich, gave the inspiration. She spoke on the flag. Cut Scout Pack 388-C gave the salute. Mrs. Marcus Grosscup reported on the paper drive and Mrs. Charles O'Hara the Tom Hatten show.

Room count was won by Mrs. Margaret Cranston. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Francis Davis and mothers of third grade students.

HALLDALE
Youth groups sponsored by Halldale PTA will present the program at the next meeting on March 9 at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Brownie Troop 1699 will lead the Pledge of Allegiance. The inspirational will be given by some of the members of Girl Scout Troop 2554. Cub Pack 229C will sing "America" and explain its meaning. Brownie Troop 1989 will dance a hula. Brownie Troop 1322 will do an exercise number entitled "Heads, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes," and Girl Scout Troop 2554 will sing. The program will end with the Woodcraft Rangers doing tournament events.

FLEMING
Mrs. Marshall Condon, Founders Day chairman, took members and guests attending the Fleming PTA Founders Day meeting on a "ride," via skits, with members participating from the past to the present in PTA at its recent meeting.

At the end of the "ride," Mrs. Daniel Deliman presented the Honorary Life Membership to Miss Ada Leudke, school registrar.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Herbert Clark, first vice president, the association voted to write to the Lomita City Council concerning sidewalks in hazardous areas around the school. They also voted to send $100 to the San Pedro Health Center to purchase equipment and $25 to the Los Angeles 10th District "Adopt a School" program.

Prior to the meeting, all past presidents of Fleming PTA, all past honorary life recipients and presidents of incoming schools were honored at a luncheon. Past honorary life recipients attending the meeting were Mrs. Mmes. Ralph Robertson, Don Graham, Albert Dudley, Leland Van Buren, Joseph Butler, Louis Stango and Ruth Ware.

The 223rd Street School PTA will meet Tuesday, March 9 at 1:30 p.m. at the school.

The program will feature the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade

Voter League To Take A Look at City Charter

How does Torrance's city charter compare with those of other cities and with a "model charter" written by the International City Managers Association? These questions will come under discussion this week as League of Women Voters members conclude their year's study of the charter.

Entertains

Mrs. Robert Tolson entertained at a buffet supper at her Konya Drive home recently honoring her husband, who was celebrating a birthday.

A pizza supper, served amid Italian decor, was enjoyed by the guests, who spent the evening playing games.

With the Tolsons were Messrs. and Mmes. Gerald Witt, Manhattan Beach; Jim Cook, Inglewood; Don Moyner and Bob Landis, Torrance.

RN Friendship Club to Meet

Royal Neighbors Friendship Club will meet for a potluck luncheon Tuesday, March 9, at noon at the Women's Club, 1422 Encarnia, Torrance.

The public is invited by Mrs. Kathryn Baughn, president. After the luncheon, there will be a demonstration, games and prizes.

An Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grant of Gardena celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary recently with a small dinner party at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance.

Understanding and evaluating the charter have been the goals of the study, according to Mrs. Howard Foote, committee chairman. Following a general charter review, sections dealing with powers and relationships among the Council, city manager, and commissions were studied in detail. Charter provisions for electing city officials and regulating Torrance's civil service system were also included in the study.

Meetings in Torrance homes of League members have been scheduled for tomorrow at 7:45 p.m., 4731 White Court; Tuesday at 9:45 a.m., 416 Via Linda Vista; and Wednesday at 9:45 a.m., 2926 Sonoma St.

League members living in the Manhattan Beach area will meet Tuesday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. F. L. Otter, 1436 10th St., for a discussion of that city's planning and zoning system.

Local B&PW To Attend Installation

Harbor Section of the Business and Professional Women's Club will install new officers at a dinner meeting at the Hacienda Hotel, 301 Western Ave., on March 10 at 7 p.m. Cravens Douglas, state officer, will be here to conduct the installation.

Attending from the Torrance B&PW club will be Helen Giza, Virginia Hulse, Veve Robinson, Jean Davis and Flora Hammetman.

Fencing to Be Taught In 'Y' Class

Torrance YWCA announces a new class in Fencing for men and women starting Wednesday, March 10, 8 p.m. at the Torrance YWCA. Jon Guskic, fencing master, will be the instructor. Guskic has had 30 years as an instructor, in many areas of United States and Mexico. In addition, he has, in recent years, given private instruction to many Hollywood stars.

The class will offer beginning fencing and is open to adults, both men and women. Anyone interested in obtaining physical fitness, good posture, flexibility, while learning the fascinating art of fencing may call the Torrance YWCA for additional information and registration. The class will meet for two hours, 8 to 10 p.m., each Wednesday evening for eight weeks.

Beginners Square Dance Class Opens

Swing 'n Whirl Square Dance Club will sponsor a beginners class in square dancing starting Wednesday, March 10, at 1461 W. 253rd St., at Bellepoint Ave., in Harbor City.

This class is limited to adults over 18 years of age and there is no age limit. Wait Fagan will do the calling from 8 to 10 p.m. every Wednesday. Anyone interested in learning to square dance is invited to attend Wednesday's session.
