LADY IN WHITE... Mrs. Mary Stanley, RN, begins trip to San Francisco for biennial state convention of the California Nurses Assn. Mrs. Stanley, instructor in the Department of Nursing, Harbor College and Harbor General Hospital, is the new president of the policy making association.

AT SF Convention HC Instructor Takes Up Gavel

An instructor in the Department of Nursing, Harbor College and Harbor General Hospital, Mrs. Mary Stanley, RN, has been elected president of the California Nurses Assn. and assumed the office during the organization's biennial state convention Sunday through tomorrow at the Hilton Hotel, San Francisco.

More than 1,000 registered nurses and 500 student nurses are attending the convention which sets policy on various nursing procedures including medical, legislative, legal, educational and ethical aspects. Clinical sessions range from "Nursing Supervision of Brain-Damaged Children" to "Nursing During Disasters."

Convention speakers include Joe Eleanor Elliott, president of the American Nurses Assn., Lulu Wolf Hasenplug, dean of UCLA's School of Nursing, and Evelyn Hamill, director, Nursing Services and Education, Los Angeles County General Hospital.

Also, Mrs. Maureen Skiba, Torrance, president of the Harbor Area Nurses Assn. and school nurse in the Los Angeles City School District; and from Harbor General Supervising Nurse Lillian Reagan, and Head Nurses Vivian Robinson, Margaret Lutz, all of Los Angeles.

Pay Drunk Driving Fine In Installments-Hahn

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has announced that Municipal Court Judges throughout the County are being urged to authorize installment payments for drunk driving fines to return up to $175,000 annually to the County General Fund.

The program is designed to recover that portion of the mandatory $250 fine for first offense drunk driving which is currently suspended by judges in approximately 30 per cent of the cases.

Hahn commended Superior Court Judge Robert Clifton, who suggested the plan to him based upon his findings after spending several years hearing drunk cases in Municipal Court.

Necessary forms and guidelines are being sent to every Municipal Court Judge in the County this week to allow them to authorize $10 a month payments up to $120 per year for first offense drunk driving.

THE FINES will be collected through the Probation Officer with simplification procedures of IBM payment cards.

Hahn stressed that by being required to pay $10 a month (much like paying a public utility bill), the person convicted of drunk driving will be reminded regularly that drinking and driving do not mix.

Superior Hahn asked the Chief Administrative Officer to study the Clifton proposal last December. This week the Chief Administrative Officer reported that about $175,000 annually could be realized if Kill Ave., Wilmington.

Area Senior Citizens Will Meet Tomorrow

The Harbor District Senior Citizens Leadership Council will meet tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Anderson Memorial Recreation Center, 828 S. Mesa Ave., San Pedro.

Guest speakers for the meeting will represent the Los Angeles County Health Department and the Los Angeles City Fire Department.
