

JUST LIKE MAURY WILLS OF THE DODGERS... Dave McKenzie of the Torrance High Tartars is a speed demon on the base paths. In photo at right

McKenzie (4) takes off for second base as West High first baseman Dave LaRoche watches the pitcher (Dave Marsden) make his move. McKenzie eventually advanced to third base and came home to score on squeeze bunt by Danny Kling (photo at left). West catcher is Dennis Dodd. Torrance and West ended the game in a 3-3 tie (eight innings) and both have 2-1 records in the Pioneer League baseball standings. Their games Thursday were rained out.

Blades End Season With Little Lustre

Following the completion of the 1964-65 season, the Los Angeles Blades turned their attention to the Western Hockey League meeting scheduled at Seattle May 10-11, where plans for the loop's future will be formulated.

During the past season Center Norm Johnson of the Blades established a new mark for most assists with 55, topping his old mark of 53.

Schedule of Ram Games Announced

National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle calls it, "the Rams 1965 league schedule." However, Southern California pro football fans will call it simply "terrific" and head coach Harland Svare will call it "murder."

It's all part of the 98-game NFL schedule released today by the league office in conjunction with the 14 member clubs.

West High In 4-3 Win

Clutch pitching and batting by John Marsden and Dave La Roche led West High to a 4-3 Pioneer League baseball win over Lennox Tuesday on the loser's field.

Marsden used eight strikeouts to cut off repeated threats by the Lancers, but he finally needed help from La Roche in the seventh after loading the bases with one away.
