Home Economists Attend Convention

Home economists of Southern California Company's Redondo district office will attend the 10th biennial California Home Economics Association convention in San Diego, according to E. Jenkins, district manager.

and child development, household equipment, nutrition and food, textiles and clothing, and home economics education. Sessions have been planned to keep delegates abreast of new developments in their fields in order to benefit the community they serve, he said. Co-chairmen of the convention are Mrs. Betty Novak, Edison's Marketing Home Economist, and Mrs. Maxine Miller, associate professor of home economics, California State College at Los Angeles.

Young Adults Capture Eight Awards

At awards, including Chapter, were captured by the Southwest B'nai B'rith Young Adults organization at the 1965 Southern B'nai B'rith Young Adults convention held at the Costa Lodge in Los Angeles on March 5, 6 and 7.

corresponding secretary of Southwest, was awarded a trophy for being one of three people in the Southern Region, who brought in the most new members. Southwest also received an award for re-registering the most new members during the 1964-65 period.

CLARA DORN

Clara Dorn Engaged to Carlson

William Leland Dorn announces the engagement of his daughter, Clara, to Ralph Carlson of Torrance. Clara Dorn is a former director of Religious Education at the First Baptist Church in Torrance. For the past five years she has been a missionary teacher in a high school near Calcutta, India. Her future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson of Redondo Beach. She spent two years in the Indian Army and is employed by the Bank of America in Los Angeles as a computer programmer. Her wedding will be held on May 15 at the First Baptist Church in Torrance. The couple will make their home here.

Dianas Vote Donations to Philanthropy

A college scholarship worth $200 for a Redondo Beach High School student was agreed upon by the Redondo Beach Dianas CFWC, Junior Membership, at the recent business meeting. Mrs. Elden Pratt presided.

The club also voted $75 to the North Redondo Health Center, $75 to the Las Palmas School for Girls, $33 to Needlework Guild, $33 to CARE and $35 to the South Bay YMCA.

Mrs. Arthur Callen announced the Provisional Dessert and Husbands Night would be combined. A square dance titled "Hoe-down A GOGO" was held March 19 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Mrs. Raymond Williams, philanthropy chairman, read a letter from the director of the Las Palmas School for Girls, inviting some of the members to attend a luncheon to be held in recognition of the groups and individuals, who have provided service to the school during the past year.

Plans for the forthcoming district convention were announced. The convention was held at the Newport Inn in Newport Beach April 2-3.

The winners of the Americanism Essay contest and their parents were present. The contest winners are Gregory Reams, first; Helen Duffy, second; and Jan Crawford, third. All are eighth grade students in Redondo Beach.

The Hi Levin Memorial Award, presented to the chapter with the best newspaper, was also won by the local group. "Seminoles" is the name of the prize winning publication. The personal achievement award went to Miss Altschuld for outstanding service to her chapter and to Southern Region BBRA. Miss Tobl Winer was given a trophy for being selected "Queen of Hearts" of Southern Region at the third annual Ad Book Dance; and Steve Winer won an award for selling the most ads in the Southern Region.

Great Books Institute Scheduled at Idyllwild

April 12 is the deadline for reservations to attend the seventh annual Great Books Spring Institute. It was announced by James Pierson of Torrance, president of the Los Angeles Great Books Council.

The Institute, sponsored by the Los Angeles Council, will take place April 30 to May 2 at the Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts at Idyllwild, near Hemet. It comprises discussions, evening entertainment and opportunity for hiking, sight-seeing and recreation in the mountains and nearby villages. Participants come from a wide area of Southern California. A number of South Bay residents will be attending again this year.

Attendance is not limited to members of Great Books.

Also on hand to post the colors was Girl Scout Cadet troop 1530, which the club sponsors.

Refreshments were served by the March hostess Mrs. Peter Kiefer.

discussion groups. The accommodations available include dormitory rooms, single rooms or apartments. Meals in the campus dining hall and books to be used are included in the attendance fee.

The books to be discussed this year are: "The Theory of the Leisure Class" by Veblen, Ortega y Gasset's "Revolt of the Masses" and Ibsen's play "An Enemy of the People."

Reservation forms may be obtained from any Great Books discussion leader. For further information Mrs. Vernal Josephson may be called.
