MODEL FASHIONS . . . Modeling clothes which they made in Clothing II and III classes at North High are (from top) Peggy Hart, Linda D'Entremont, and Doreen Grieg. The students have been working on clothes which they will model Wednesday, April 21, at the Freshman Mothers' Tea.

MORE TROPHIES . . . Kathy Kimes and Ronald Wilcox display trophies which they won in the Bellflower Open Speech Tournament. Miss Kimes won first place in the tournament, while Wilcox won fifth place. Other South High students were cited for their work in reaching the semi-final round.

South Student Speakers Win Bellflower Tourney

Members of South High's speech team have again won top honors in a major high school speech tournament. Competing in the Bellflower Open Tournament, Spartan Kathy Kimes won first place over 400 other student speakers. She received first place votes from all judges in the final round. Ronald Wilcox won fifth

Educators To Attend Lecture

"How One Author Illustrates Research to Write for Young People" will be topic of an institute for Los Angeles County educators to be held in Torrance next Tuesday.

Genevieve Foster, historical biographer for 8- to 16-years-olds, will speak at 4 p.m. at South High School, 4801 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Author of such books as "Abraham Lincoln's World" and "The World of Captain John Smith," Mrs. Foster will tell the stories behind half a dozen books which she has written.

She is a former commercial artist for Child Life Magazine and a graduate of both the University of Chicago and Chicago Academy of Art. Her books have been translated into more than a dozen languages.

The meeting is open to parents, teachers, librarians, and school administrators.

place in the final round. Cheryl Aston received a trophy for her work in the semi-finals. Certificates of superiority were presented to Timothy Chang, Eric Stratton, and Barbara Bingham.

Other South High students participating in the tournament included: Linda Kramer, Susan Funtsch, Cynthia Thanos, Marsha Curtis, Robert Parker, Danny Decker, Joyce West, Lyle Hughes, Sally Wakefield, Roberta Barrera, Susan Galbraith, Marsha Hursi, Terry Liblick, Sandra Maddox, Sharon Mondschein, Sherry Smith, and Judy Goldsmith.

Mrs. Marsha Bradley is speech team coach and sponsor of the National Forensic League chapter at South High.

UC Honors South High Graduates

South High School has been awarded the University of California's Certificate of High Academic Achievement for 1963-64. Dr. John A. Lucas, principal, has announced.

The certificate is awarded annually to high schools whose graduates place in the upper 10 per cent of freshman classes on all campuses of the University.

Dr. Frank L. Kidner, dean of educational relations at the University of Berkeley campus, said George R. Groveman, Charles W. Hanson, Patricia W. Palmquist, and Joseph H. Selliken Jr. had earned the honor for South High. All five students were named on the award.
