There's going to be a special Easter show for children at the Ice House in Pasadena! Rob Stane tells me that John Moon's Magic and Music show will put on a special folk music concert at 2 p.m. Easter Sunday featuring appropriate songs. As master of ceremonies Moon will have eggs appear and disappear . . . a live Easter bunny will change into a chicken . . . and the music will be supplied by Meribeth McNeish and Mike Garrett. Bob Stane's goal is to entertain the youngsters, to acquaint them with live theatre and let them participate in song and magical games so they'll be so tired Sunday night they'll go to bed early and get up Monday bright eyed for school. Naturally, an Easter egg hunt will be held with a colored egg for all. So if you're wondering how to entertain the children Easter Sunday, here's one answer!

Of course, for other fun-filled afternoons, or evenings, the ROADIUM THEATRE has Jerry Lewis in

"Disorderly Orderly" through Saturday night while the UNITED ARTISTS THEATRE has one of the great, exciting films of the civil war, "Major Dundee" starring Charlton Heston, for at least a week.

SONGS and quips by Ben Sherwin keep the patrons happy these nights at CAESAR'S on Pacific Coast Highway while . . . Making one of his rare local public appearances, Jimmy Durante opens next Tuesday night at Melodyland Theatre in Anaheim . . . and Monday night, the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera's 1965 season opens with "The King and I" in the Pavilion of the Music Center.

LAST CHANCE for making applications for two year fellowships in the Project for Training of Music Critics under a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation will be received by USC School of Music throughout next Monday. The fellowships carry a grant of $5000 per year to go to a group of highly skilled musician-writers who have talent, ability and potential to serve with distinction as music critics according to Dr. Raymond Kendall, Dean of USC's Music School.

BUNNY AND BEA BRADLEY . . . Statuesque star of "Stop The World, I Want To Get Off" now at Lindy Opera House, is a product of Long Beach State College.

INJUN TROUBLE . . . Irene Ryan, who stars as granny on TV's "The Beverly Hillbillies," discovers unexpected authenticity in the tribal menu at Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant, Miss Ryan had her 'arrow escape before flying to Las Vegas to headline the next show at the Sahara beginning April 20.

Over the TABLE TOPS

Patrons of the smart PLUSH HORSE RESTAURANT in Redondo Beach were surprised the other night to be joined by the famous "Munster" family of tv. Yvonne de Carlo, known to tv fans as "Lily Munster," warmed herself with one of the house specialties, Lobster Pernod. Prepared at the table by Captain Gunther Scheffler, this exciting dish of lobster tails is prepared with lemon butter and then flamed with Pernod, giving a delicate taste of anisette to the lobster. The flames, though appealing to the rest of the Munster clan, no doubt upset "Herman" (Shades of Dr. Frankenstein!) who ordered steak Tartar.

Dine Out Easter INTRIGUING fish specialties from the Early Thunderbird dinner menu at the SMITH BROS. INDIAN VILLAGE are plump eastern scallops, the combination seafood platter and the broiled northern halibut which are freshly caught in icy-cold, deep-sea waters and shipped daily to Indian Village Restaurant. Dine Out Easter DELICIOUS Roast duck dinner as served at BIT OF GERMANY on Easter Sunday is sure to be popular with patrons. The relaxed, friendly atmosphere of this restaurant plus their truly flavorful food has made it one of the favorite places for dining out in the Redondo Beach area . . . Catering a wedding party of over 100 in the Hollywood Baptist Church, Ernie Wong's HING HING, located on Torrance Blvd. at Crenshaw, made many more friends for this excellent take-out kitchen. If you haven't tried their celestial food you've missed something truly delicious.

Dine Out Easter SPEAKING OF POPULARITY brings to mind the Nora Kelly Trio which has helped make Sam Failla's SAN FRANCISCAN Restaurant a jumping late spot as well as a place where you find excellent dinners at reasonable prices.
