

The Resurrection

Now late in the night of the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the sepulchre. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and drawing near rolled back the stone and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment like snow. And for fear of him the guards were terrified, and became like dead men. But the angel spoke and said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen even as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was laid. And go quickly, tell his disciples that he has risen; and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you shall see him. Behold, I have foretold it to you. And they departed quickly from the tomb in fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them, saying "Hail!" and they came up and embraced his feet and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go, take word to my brethren that they are to set out for Galilee; there they shall see me."

Easter Picnic and Egg Hunt

Children of members of the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept. enjoyed an Easter picnic followed by an egg hunt at the Clarence Hopkins home, 1476 W. 183rd St., last Monday. With baskets in hand, the 24 children attending, at the signal, began their search for the brightly colored eggs. Here, Marta Slonecker, 8, finds an egg as Shelly Pike, 4, and Mark Slonecker, 5, look on. As party favors the children were given Easter candies. (Press-Herald Photo)

The Easter Bunny Story

The age-old legend of the Easter Bunny and how he hides baskets of brightly colored eggs in the pre-dawn hours of Easter morning is told by Mrs. Lee Hausman to children of members of the Dianas Junior Women's club when they attend the annual Egg

Hunt given for the children. In fantasy-land as the story is read are children, on the floor, Lisa MacBride, 3, Kellie Rotstead, 3, and Tim MacBride, 6. On the divan with Mrs. Hausman are from left, Lynne and Cebe Hausman. (Press-Herald Photo)
