

Torrance Hospital Auxiliary Installs Officers, Awards Pins

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary installed its new officers for the year 1965-66 and paid honor to its volunteers for hours of service at the hospital, at a luncheon Tuesday at the Ports o'Call Restaurant.

Mrs. Gerald Eastham, past president, served as the installing officer.

Officers installed were Mmes James K. Lees, president; Robert Sleeth, first vice president; John Schwartz, second vice-president; Joe Heiphand, third vice-president; John Rice, recording secretary; Otis Berge, corresponding secretary; Lawrence Brown, treasurer; Leon Warne, parliamentarian.

Chairmen installed were Mmes. Alma Smith, baby photo; Robert Bingham, gift shop; Wayne Bluemell, maternity tea; George Post, reception desk; J. Wagner, Pinkie and sewing; Ken Miller, Candy Strippers; James McClaren, credits; Harvel Guttenfelder, staff; William McCabe, public relations.

Others were Mmes. George Won, reservations; Eugene Cook, historian; Jay Strah, hospitality, Don Moyer, publicity; and Ben Smith, prizes.

Following the installation and annual reports, service pins were awarded by Mrs. W. I. Laughon, credits chairman.

Honored for serving the most hours at the hospital were Mmes. William Boswell and John Popovich, who had turned in 2,000 hours each and Mmes. Harvel Guttenfelder and Robert Sleeth, who had chalked up more than 1,000 hours each.

In the Spotlight

New officers and service award winners were spotlighted at the luncheon meeting of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Tuesday at the Ports o'Call restaurant. Installed to assume the leadership of the auxiliary for the coming year, in top picture, were from left, Mmes. John Schwartz, second vice-president; Robert Sleeth, first vice president; James K. Lees, president, accepting the gavel from Mrs. Ray Butt, retiring president, and Mrs. Gerald Eastham, installing officer. Honored with pins for their many hours of service at the hospital were, in lower picture, from left, Mmes. Harvel Guttenfelder, 1,000 hours; Robert Sleeth, 1,000 hours; John Popovich, 2,000 hours; William Boswell, 2,000 hours, and Mrs. W. I. Laughon, credits chairman, who made the presentations.

(Photography by Stanfords)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

APRIL 21, 1965

B-1

Joyce Frick
... Accepts Ring

Engagement

A summer wedding is being planned by Miss Joyce Frick and Harold Sherwood Tiernan.

The announcement of the engagement and wedding plans made today by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Frick, 17035 Spring Ave., Torrance.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Tiernan, 1848 Santa Fe, Torrance.

The bride-elect was graduated from El Camino College and is now a student at California State at Long Beach. She is also employed by the Torrance Recreation Dept.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Torrance High and El Camino, received his teaching credentials from Long Beach State College. During his college career, he spent two years in Pakistan with the Peace Corps. Mr. Tiernan is now serving with the United States Navy, aboard the USS Kitty Hawk at Bremerton, Wash.

La Primera Alumni Install

Mrs. H. M. Dugger of the East View Area of San Pedro was installed as charter president of the La Primera Alumni of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club at a dinner-dance at the Bridal Path restaurant recently. Mrs. Doris Stamm, official Welcome Wagon hostess, served as installing officer at the candlelight ceremony.

This new organization consists of newcomers to the area who have belonged to the Torrance Welcome Wagon for two years. The group meets with the larger club at its monthly meetings but has its own

In Apple Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cramolini spent the Easter vacation in Apple Valley where they were guests at the Apple Valley Inn.

Four Couples Return From Island Cruise

Returning recently from a cruise to Kingston, Jamaica; Port-au Prince, Haiti; Nassau, Bahamas; and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. were four couples from Palos Verdes, Messrs. and Mmes. L. E. Hudgins, Jr., R. J. McLaughlin, C. J. Phreaner and W. Bailey.

The four men were among 112 marketing personnel for the Xerox Co. whose contributions to the company's program were evaluated and were designated "Par Stars."

Selected from among 2,400 top sales, technical and management personnel in the U.S. and Canada, the "Stars" and their wives, took over the Grace Liner Santa Paula for the tour.

At Airport Marina Hotel

Auxiliary Schedules Fashion Luncheon

"This is the Summer That is" is the theme of the benefit Fashion-Luncheon to be sponsored by the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary on April 29 at the Airport Marina Hotel. Miss Connie Hines of CBS is serving as honorary chairman.

A profusion of summer flowers will be used as table decorations for the event, proceeds from which are used for four nursing scholarships to El Camino College.

Fashions from a Redondo shop will be shown with Miss Kitty Leslie, fashion coordinator, commenting on the fashion picture for the summer ahead.

Mrs. S. Edmund Taylor is serving as general chairman with Mrs. Dale Freeberg as co-chairman.

Committee chairmen are Mmes. Jack Goetz, door prizes; Henry Moek, table decorations; Herbert Wintroub, programs; Charles Meyers, seating; Carl J. Rausch and C. R. Walker, tickets; Paul Benson, telephone; and Dominic Campolo, table favors.

The public is invited to attend and may secure tickets by calling Mrs. J. Rausch or Mrs. C. R. Walker.

CDA to Celebrate Anniversary

Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the institution of the court, on Sunday, April 25, when members, their families and friends will attend the five o'clock mass at the Nativity Catholic Church.

Following the church services, a banquet will be held at the Palms restaurant.

Guest speaker will be Msgr. Patrick J. McGuinness, of Lynwood, former pastor of Nativity and charter chaplain of the court.

Guests of honor will include Rev. William P. O'Toole, assistant pastor of Nativity Church and court chaplain; Mrs. Paul Rafter, district deputy; Wesley Muzik, state chairman of world missions and past district deputy, and Mrs. Arthur Rinaldi, chairman of Juniors and Juniorettes.

Other invited guests include officers, state chairmen, archdiocesan chairmen and members of neighboring courts.

Mrs. Harvey Lee, junior past grand regent, is serving as chairman of the event and will be assisted by Mmes. Don Cowden, Anna Phillips, Robert Letch, Don Bryant, Perry Patterson, Thelma McGarry, Margaret McLean and Laura Kuhn.

Floral centerpieces are being arranged and will be awarded as door prizes. Mrs. Charles Butterfield, grand regent, will give the welcoming address.

Court's 20th Birthday

A surprise gift to past grand regents of the Court St. Catherine, CDA, who will be especially honored at the court's 20th anniversary banquet next Sunday, is securely wrapped in the box being guarded by Mrs. Harvey Lee, right, chairman for the birthday event. Mrs. Don Cowden, past grand regent, and Mrs. Charles Butterfield, regent, attempt to find out what the box contains but are stopped by Mrs. Lee. Msgr. Patrick McGuinness, former Nativity pastor, will be guest speaker at the banquet.

(Press-Herald Photo)

For Nursing Scholarships

Fashions for philanthropies is the signal for members of the South Bay Hospital auxiliary to attend their fashion show and luncheon on April 29 at the Airport Marina Hotel. Proceeds from the event will go for four nursing scholarships to El Camino College, awarded by the auxiliary each year. Wearing some of summer's smartest fashions, as they visit the El Camino campus, are from left, Mmes. Jack R. Goetz, door prize chairman; R. B. Strawn, recording secretary, and Thomas C. Rupert, president.

(Press-Herald Photo)