

ELDER DILWORTH YOUNG
To Preside

Local Stake Draws Salt Lake Leaders

Presiding at the quarterly conference of the Torrance Stake Saturday and Sunday will be Elder S. Dilworth Young, member of the First Council of Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon), Salt Lake City, Utah.

Others attending will be Hugh C. Smith, member of the Priesthood Tote Teaching Committee, and Anna B. Hart of the Relief Society General Board.

General sessions of the conference will be held Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Torrance State Center under the direction of Stake President Roland Earl Gagon, 4 Cerrito Place, Rolling Hills Estates. Visitors are welcome.

USC Grants Top Honors To Seniors

Six Torrance students who will graduate in June have been admitted to the University of Southern California with honors-at-entrance.

The students include: Suzanne C. Burr of 5116 Vista del Vegas, a student at South High; Ronald Lee Gordon of 19210 Ronald Ave., a West High senior; David Kim Hong Ho of 1563 W. 213th St., a Narbonne student; Tacia Gail Lewis of 2214 W. 179th St., a North High senior; Adele Palmer of 20313 Donora Ave., a West High student, and Elvin L. Hoel of 1200 E. 222nd St., a senior at Carson High School.

Dr. Norman Topping, president of USC, notified the students of the awards. Honors-at-entrance is granted to high school students who maintain a grade point average of 3.75 or better—almost straight "A".

Dr. Topping said the award was given to only 200 students in a class of 1,500 freshmen.

Recreation Department Sets Film

The Torrance Recreation Department and the Los Angeles County Museum will present the color film, "Of Stars and Men," Friday, May 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd. There is no charge for admission.

This interesting film depicts the plight of man who is uncertain about his place in the universe and thus ponders the true meaning of life.

John and Faith Hubley are responsible for the color and animal animation of the film which is written and narrated by Dr. Harlow Shapley, former president of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

A 30-minute filmed interview with Harlow Shapley will follow.

MANAGEMENT STUDENT
Col. Fred L. Rennels, J4, USAF, 5209 Calle de Arboles, was one of 40 men to complete the fourth annual Managerial Policy Institute in the Graduate School of Business Administration at the University of Southern California Monday night. Part of the executive development program, the class began last October and met for 30 weeks.
