PARADE FAVORITES . . . The comments along the line of march gave ample testimony that the Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps of the 3rd Infantry, Fort Meyer, Va., was one of the most popular entries in the parade. The Corps is one of the nation's most celebrated ceremonial units. The unit was judged the most outstanding entry in Open Class Marching.

...and Some Tanks

HEAVY ENTRY . . . This imposing entry from the 7th Tank Battalion of the 40th Armored Regiment was one of several of the heavy tanks to rumble down the line of march Saturday. The 7th Tank Battalion is commanded by Lt. Col. John J. Coveney.

CALIFORNIA'S OWN . . . Members of the 40th Armored Division, led here by its colors, were well represented in Saturday's "Power for Peace" demonstration in Torrance, including the locally based 132nd Engineer Bn.

VETERANS ON THE MARCH . . . A reminder that military strength is a continuing asset were several veterans organizations, exemplified by these Legionnaires who marched in Saturday's outstanding Armed Forces Day Parade in Torrance. Also represented was the youth of the military—the several ROTC units entered from Southland colleges and universities.
