Auxiliary Hears Talk

A first hand description of the American civilians' life in Viet Nam today was given at the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary's meeting last Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Thomsen, who recently returned from Viet Nam where her husband served with the American Consul and was injured in the bombing of the Embassy, was guest speaker. She is the former Judy Wolf of Torrance.

The meeting was held at the hospital under the guidance of newly-elected president, Mrs. James K. Lees.

Following Mrs. Thomsen's description of conditions in Viet Nam, Auxiliary members discussed the "follies" to be given in October.

Lunch was served by Mrs. John Popovich and her committee.

Also present were Leonard Ensminger, administrator, and other members of the hospital staff.

During the general meeting it was also decided by the Auxiliary membership to donate a Memorial Fund in honor of the late Dr. John W. Beeman.
