THE CROWN ROOM
Have you tried a "Gourmet Special of the Day" at the Crown Room? Every evening this popular restaurant offers a delicious specialty that will stop you from going any further on the menu. The seven selections available one day a week are Boneless Mountain Trout stuffed with crab and shrimp, baked pork chops with sage dressing, Italian Spaghetti and Meat Balls with hot garlic toast, Chicken Au Vin on toasted English muffins, Alaska King Crab Newburg, Dungeness Deviled Crab en shell, and Mediterranean Spanish Prawn. Each entree is served with a tasty plate of Hors d'Oeuvres, soup, salad and other delicious dinner trimmings. If you haven't tried these Gourmet Specials, make reservations now at 772-4177. Crown Room is easily located on the corner of Imperial and Sepulveda in El Segundo.

NEW PLAY OPENS
Chapel Theatre of Torrance is privileged to be the first in the entire South Bay area to present the new musical comedy "The Fantastics" which recently celebrated its fifth year on Broadway, having presented over 2,088 performances in New York. The fresh, original and exciting musical score is by Harvey Schmidt with the poignant lines penned by Tom Jones. This is comedy at its height with music that is a delight. "Fantastics" is the first musical produced by Chapel and from the few brief moments caught at rehearsals, it can be guaranteed that this show will delight the audiences. The clever and original 'goings-on' are so brisk and full of newness in theatrics, that viewers will be on their seats edge waiting for the next bright action.

Returning to Chapel, after his successful direction of "Sunday in New York" presented this season, is Tony Baynes of Hollywood assisted by Eugene Minor of Torrance, the musical director. Both men are resident directors for the Gilbert & Sullivan Repertory Co. of Los Angeles. The excellent cast they have chosen include several newcomers to Chapel: John Blackmon of Torrance portrays the narrator-bandit; Jan Graham of Hawthorne is Luisa, the girl; Phil Richards of San Pedro as Matt, the boy; Martin Lair of Gardena as Mortimer; and Phil Harris of Torrance as Bellamy, the girl's father. Old hands at Chapel are Mel Grubb of Torrance as The Mute; Austin Rheingold of Palos Verdes as Hucklebee the boy's father; and Alan Sinclair of Hollywood as the old actor Henry. Musicians include Norma De-

SERVICE WITH A SMILE . . . Bar manager Ronnie Iwamoto and hostess Reiko Katsuki are always on hand with a friendly smile to greet the many new patrons of the Teahouse restaurant located at 25318 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance. Cantonese cuisine is featured.

... A MESSAGE OF THANKS . . .
The JAMAICA WEST would like to thank you for your enthusiasm and interest in our contemporary approach to entertainment.
The owners of JAMAICA WEST intend to bring to you entertainment with a flair of New York, San Francisco, and the Sunset Strip, in a comfortable atmosphere, and in a discrete manner.
The JAMAICA WEST is designed for adults over 21 years of age, and we fully intend to cooperate with the City of Torrance, County, and State officials on this matter. We invite you to join us for "an Enchanted Evening!" If you do not care to participate in the dancing, watching is even more fun.
