

'With This Ring, I Thee Wed'

Mrs. Verlon R. Carlson

Dorn-Carlson
In an evening ceremony on May 15, Miss Clara Dorn, daughter of Mrs. William Leland Dorn of Los Angeles walked down the aisle of the First Baptist Church in Torrance, on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Lowell Gates, to plight her marriage promises with Verlon Ralph Carlson, 3705 Artesia Blvd., Torrance.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Carlson, 227 Ave. D, Redondo Beach.

The bridal gown was a white peau de soie sheath with an Alencon lace bodice. The lace was appliqued on the skirt of the gown and enhanced the full chapel train. The lace-edged veil was held by a pearl headpiece. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white orchids, glamelias and stephanotis.

Wearing turquoise organza gowns, the bridal entourage consisted of Misses Beverly Van Benthuyzen, maid of honor; Phyllis Wallace and Janice Gates, bridesmaids.

Dale Angel was best man and ushers were Rev. Robert Boyd, Arno Ouwendijk, Roy Pursche, and David Gates.

Rev. Robert Coburn conducted the marriage ceremony as Mrs. Pat Ouwendijk played the nuptial music and accompanied Marjorie Jones, soloist.

A church reception was held after which the newlyweds went to San Francisco on a honeymoon.

The new home is in Torrance.

Will Attend Alpha Epsilon Convention

Jane Sarber, 23122 Samuel St., Torrance, president of the Alpha Epsilon Phi Colony at California State College, Long Beach, will attend the 17th Biennial Convention in Miami Beach, Florida, from June 16 to 21. Alpha Epsilon Phi, founded in 1909 at Barnard College in New York City, has 81 active chapters, two colonies, one pledge group and 45 alumnae groups and numbers over 23,000 women.

British Club Presents Polynesian Fun Event

British Commonwealth and Friends Club is planning an evening of Polynesian entertainment, fun and dancing for Saturday, June 5, at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Van Ness Ave., Torrance.

Grass skirts, sarongs, muumuis and Hawaiian shirts will be the attire for the evening.

Special entertainment will be provided by the Aloha Islanders and Alex Hunter and his "Gay Gordons" will provide dance music.

Mrs. David Clutter

Anderson-Clutter
Miss Barbara JoAnn Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon F. Anderson, 2147 W. 236th St. became the bride of David Richard Clutter, in an April wedding at the First Baptist Church in Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. James K. Clutter, 812 Acacia, are parents of the bridegroom.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a floor-length gown of lace detailed with a square neckline, accented with pearls, and long sleeves. A large chiffon bow at the back topped a panel made of tiers of lace. Her bouffant veil was secured by a lace petal headpiece and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and Dedication roses.

Bridal attendants, wearing yellow chiffon, were Misses Mona Lynne Glover, maid of honor; Loretta Young, Kathy Novotny, and Cathy Clutter, bridesmaids. Best man duties were performed by Thomas McMasters. Ushers were Dennis McMaster, Danny Dixon and Kenneth Heard.

Rev. Robert Dehn officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the Torrance Elks club with Misses Janice and Carol Wilhelm of San Francisco, at the guest book. The honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs and the new address is 2273 W. 241st St., Lomita.

The bride and her husband are both graduates of Torrance High school, and both attended El Camino College.

Hi-Neighbors Club Studies Philanthropies

Ways and means to collect funds for a charity which they sponsor and civic matters pertaining to the improvement of Guenser Park, were discussed by members of the Hi-Neighbor Club at their meeting held at the home of Mrs. T. Eno, 2010 S. 180th St.

Mrs. Cliff Tierney was co-hostess. Others attending were Mmes. Harold Bloom, Jim Christy, Richard Fleming, Frank Oldt, Noel Merriam and Mae Prochut.

Mrs. Alton Nigh won the door prize.

Mrs. Michael Linderman

Henderson-Linderman
At home at 921 Arlington, Torrance, are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Linderman, who recently returned from a Carmel honeymoon. The couple was married May 20 in a three o'clock ceremony at the First Lutheran Church. The bride is the former Karen Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henderson, 2505 Sierra St. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linderman, 22322 Kent Ave.

Escorted to the altar by her uncle, Mr. Kenneth Turner, the bride wore a white organza sheath, fashioned with a scoop neckline and appliqued with pearls. The gown had a watteau train. A lace petal headpiece, enhanced with pearls, held her bridal veil. The bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and tiny yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Linda Lancaster served as her sister's maid of honor. Other bridal attendants were Mrs. Trudy Turner, Mrs. Brooke Searles, Miss Sue Linderman, Mrs. Judie Parker and Miss Donna Thistle.

Stephen Parker served as best man and ushers were Dale Lancaster, Robert Searles, Robert Henderson, Don Holbrook, and Stacy Turner.

Rev. William Roleodor officiated at the marriage while Bernard Verkaak, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Janice Bradley, soloist.

The 275 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at the church where Mrs. Nora Skillman registered the guests. A buffet supper followed at the home of the bride's grandmother.

The bride and her husband are both graduates of Torrance High School and El Camino College.

Mrs. Todd Lower

Sluder-Lower
Nativity Catholic Church was the setting for the 11 o'clock nuptial ceremony on April 24, when Miss Kathleen Sluder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sluder, 13066 W. 213th St. became the bride of Todd Allen Lower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lower, 21813 W. 213th St., Torrance.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a gown of chiffon taffeta enhanced with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The lace appliques also decorated the chapel train. A pearl tiara held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, carnations, stephanotis and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Paula Lower, in a deep aqua chiffon over taffeta gown, and carrying pink roses, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Misses Virginia Louise Russell, Alice White, Maureen Sluder and Linda Lee. They wore pale aqua gowns and carried pink carnations.

Jerald McCormick performed the duties of best man and ushers were Arthur Sluder, Douglas Coty, Jerald Fogarty, Peter Fernandez and Brian Orm.

Rev. William O'Toole was the officiating minister and Mr. Roman Maciejewski was organist.

The 200 guests attended a reception in Nativity hall. The honeymoon was spent in Pauma Valley.

The newlyweds are both Bishop Montgomery High graduates. Mrs. Lower is employed by Pacific Telephone and her husband is a General Telephone employee.

They are at home at 5319 Ruby St., Torrance.
