By Mike Connolly

Dear Mr. C.: I am a great admirer of Robert Lansing. Please tell me all about him—age, married or single, etc. As far as I am concerned, "Twelve O'Clock High" loses a viewer if he leaves the series.—E. B. S., San Francisco.

Dear E.: He was born June 5, 1928. He is married to Emily McLaughlin, and his series just lost a viewer.

Dear Mike: I have a terrible problem. I am probably the world's biggest movie fan. I see every movie that comes out. I read every issue of every fan magazine. I am literally IMMERSED in movies. When I run out of things to think about, I run the plots backward, and it has reached the point where I actually THINK about the stars' names backwards! Liz Taylor becomes, in my poor beleaguered brain "Zil Rolyat." And then there are Ckor Nosduh, Ramo Firahs, Sirod Yad, Bat Retnuh, Eibbed Sdloyer, Draheir Notrub, Inirt Zepol, Ognir Rrats—even an old-timer like Yma Sumac comes out Amy Camus. What shall I do?—Jane Levitus, The Bronx.

Dear Enaj Sutivel: There are several solutions. You could see the movies and read the magazines through a mirror, write a dictionary of new names or switch to Scrabble.

Dear Mr. C.: How many children does Loretta Young have? What are their names?—Mrs. T. R. Turner, Visalia, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Turner: Loretta and her estranged husband, Tom Lewis, have two sons, Christopher and Peter, and an adopted daughter, Judy.

Dear Mike: Why do all the older people make fun of The Rolling Stones just because they have long hair? I don't think it's very polite!—Mary de Crosta, Boston.

Dear Mary: They are Phillistines. See the Old Testament (Judges xii-xvi) for what long-haired Samson did to THOSE creeps. Of course, he killed himself too but that's neither here nor there, or is it?

Dear Mike: What has happened to Spring Byington? I thought she was so darling on TV and I miss her show very much.—Cecelia Putnam, Manassa, Va.

Dear Cecelia: The 73-year-old Spring still acts occasionally but doesn't have to because she made a great deal of money from that show. She spends most of her spare time working in the psychiatric ward at Sawtelle Veterans' Hospital here in Los Angeles, staging shows with and for the patients—an important therapeutic program and a typically philanthropic gesture by the fabulous star.

Dear M. C.: You mentioned in your column that David McCallum would appear on a certain segment of the "Hul-labeloo" show. Well, he didn't appear. My friends and I would like very much to know who made a mistake.—Susan Kunowitz, Garden Grove.

Dear Susan: I wish they would quit re-shuffling those pre-taped shows around. Keep watching, he'll be on.

Dear Mr. C.: Fie, fie, for shame—writing that you cannot understand Katharine Hepburn's interest in river pollution! Instead of admitting and showing ignorance and indifference on the subject, you should study up a bit. Ten minutes reading Buddy Marceau's "Outdoor Sportsman's Guide" will enlighten you. It should also enlighten all people who really love our wonderful country. Perhaps then we would not find our roads and the rest areas beside them littered with beer cans, etc. More power to Miss Hepburn and more concern and study for you. What hope is there for our country when so many of us are concerned only with their own little niches?—Mrs. Mary S. Phillips, Orange, Mass.

Dear Mrs. Phillips: I'm ashamed of myself. I guess it's because I never got higher than a C in Geology at school. But I still wish Kate would get with it and give us another great movie like "The African Queen," don't you? And what a river THAT was.

(Mike Connolly will try to answer your questions in his column. He gives no personal replies by mail.)
