Mrs. Jack Langley conducted the PTA meeting, which opened with the Pledge of Allegiance led by student council members, Roger Schroeder, Corrine Ferriola, Dianne Johnston, Larry Post, Mitch Wyrich, and Tom Clark.

Rooms of Joseph Maggio, upper grades, and Mrs. Roberta Kyle, lower grades, won the prizes for having the most papers for the drive.

PTA

HALLDALE
Halldale Avenue PTA will hold its last association meeting of the year on June 8, at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

At this meeting, the PTA will honor Mrs. Ruth Fischer, a Halldale teacher, who is retiring at the end of the school year. She has been teaching at Halldale for seventeen years. All parents, whose children she once taught, are invited to attend.

The program will be the only performance this year of the school orchestra. The historian's report will be given by Mrs. Richard Nelson, and record book chairman, Mrs. Joseph Magner, will present the record book to the outgoing president, Mrs. Jack Kenyon. Mrs. Lytle White, Fleming Junior High PTA president, will install the officers for the year 1965-66.

The last board meeting of the year was held May 27, at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Chojnacki. A potluck luncheon followed the meeting. Fifteen members attended the Lomita-San Pedro Council's installation luncheon on June 1, 1965.

ST. MATTHEW
Newly-elected officers of St. Matthew Lutheran School Parent-Teacher League were installed by Rev. E. M. Passow at the final meeting of the school year. Serving next year will be Mmes. Richard Carenen, president; Kendall Baker, vice president; Henry Krill, secretary; and E. Zimmerman, treasurer.

Rev. Passow posed several questions to the members on the status of education in the United States today and the response was lively.

Principal A. Wachholz announced that the recent open house was a success and many students were registered. School closing service will be held June 9 at 7:30 p.m. with the students participating in the program. Classes will be dismissed at 12 noon on June 10. Vacation Bible School will begin June 21 through June 2.

The concluding matter of business was the approval of the purchase of a television.

Schmelzer-Mullen Nuptials

MRS. DAVID B. MULLEN (Portrait by Seeman)

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Mullen are now at home in Torrance following a Carmel honeymoon. The couple was married at the Torrance First Methodist Church in an afternoon ceremony on April 24. Mrs. Mullen is the former Caroline Schmelzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Schmelzer, 1605 Fern Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mullen, 1519 Post Ave., are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of white peau de sole and lace enhanced with pearls. The full skirt of the gown fell into a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil was held by a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

Miss Barbara Myers was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Dana Schneltzer and Mary Kay Hassett.

Michael Muller served as his brother's best man and ushers were Robert Mullen, Ronald White and Jerry Davis.

Rev. Richard Wong officiated at the vow exchange.

A reception was held at the church.

The bride, a graduate of Torrance High School and El Camino College, is a secretary to the superintendent of Sears.

Her husband was graduated from Torrance High School and Cal-Western in San Diego. He was also graduated from Southern California Mortuary of Science and is employed by Travelers Express.

Zuppardis Note 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. N. Zuppardi, 1532 Post Ave., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on May 12.

The Zuppardis were married at St. Anthony's Church in Gardena and have made their home in Torrance since their wedding.

They are parents of two children, Michael 22, and Ann Marie, 12.

On the morning of the anniversary, the family attended a special mass at Nativity Church at which their son served.

The mass was followed by a buffet luncheon at the Zuppardi home attended by 30 guests.

On Sunday, May 16, Mr. and Mrs. Zuppardi entertained 100 guests at a champagne reception and Italian dinner at the Nativity annex.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Zuppardi's two sisters and their daughters, Mrs. L. C. Cooper and Carol and Martha of Torrance, and Nettie Robinson and daughter Frances of Wilmington.

Others assisting were Messrs. and Mmes. Harley Berning and Joseph Malinaggio.

Brislins Here For Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brislin, Patty and Mary Lynn of Millbrae spent last weekend here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara and family on Fern Ave.

The Brislins came especially to attend the graduation exercise at Bishop Montgomery High School. Jill and Judy O'Hara were members of the graduating class.
