

Local Couples Say 'I Do'

Woodman-Peacock

Rev. Leonard Babcock stood before the flower-banked altar of the First Christian Church to officiate at the early evening candlelight wedding ceremony on May 22, in which Miss Carole Ann Woodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodman, 1333 Engracia, exchanged her marriage promises with Allan Peacock. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peacock, 25103 Oak St., Lomita.

Approaching the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie fashioned on empire lines. The bodice and hem of the gown were embroidered with crystals. The detachable chapel train was also sprinkled with crystals. The bouffant illusion veil cascaded from a pearl crown and she carried a crescent bouquet of white roses encircling white orchids.

The bridal attendants, whose gowns were of graduating shades of pink, were Mrs. Patricia Hill, matron of honor; Mmes. Virginia Rucker, Karen Linderman, and Suzi Cown, bridesmaids.

Best man duties were performed by Ronnie Peacock, while Gary Crain, Donnie Shore and B. Johnson served as ushers.

Mrs. Eleanor Hanes, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Bob Olmstead, soloist.

A reception was held at the church with Miss Diana Giles registering the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in northern California and are now at home at 1859 263rd St., Lomita.

The bride, a 1963 graduate of Torrance High School, is a Past Honored Queen of the Torrance Bethel of Job's Daughters.

Her husband was graduated from Narbonne High in 1960.

MacHale-Duncan

Miss Danielle Marie MacHale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Frank Clark, 2134 W. 238th St., Torrance, became the bride of Marvin D. Duncan in a spring wedding at the Calvary Assembly of God Church. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Duncan of Dinuba, Calif.

Rev. Leo B. Duncan of Paso Robles, brother of the bridegroom, officiated at the marriage. David Fiet, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Rev. Jack D. Wood soloist, and Rev. Leo Duncan, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Clark escorted the bride to the altar. She wore a traditional gown with Chantilly lace bodice and a long skirt of rice silk, appliqued with the Chantilly. The train of the gown was attached at the shoulders. A pearl tiara held her veil and she carried cimbidioms encircling white orchids.

Attendants, in lavender gowns and carrying yellow carnations, were Miss Barbara Johnson, maid of honor; Misses Barbara Irvine, Linda Imel and Mrs. Roma King, bridesmaids. Anita Clark was flower girl and candles were lighted by Susan Payne and Joanne MacHale.

Doug Carlson was best man and ushers were Ralph Duncan, Rod and Dan MacHale. Randy Duncan was ringbearer.

After a church reception, the couple toured northern California before going to Dinuba to make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Ambassador High School. Her husband, a graduate of Dinuba High and Reedley College, is employed by the Sun-maid Raisin Co. in Kingsburg.

Auxiliary's "Roaring 20s" Event June 19

A "Roaring 20s" theme has been chosen by the Riviera Little League Auxiliary for its dinner-dance on June 19 at the American Legion hall in Redondo. Mrs. Bruce Donley, ways and means chairman, is serving as general chairman of the event. The League "moms and dads" will arrive in racoon coats and Charleston gowns to dance to music furnished by the Imperial Dance Band. Plans are underway for entertainment by home grown talent. The social hour will begin at 7:30 p.m. with dinner at 8:30 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Rod Freeman.

An Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Peters of Palos Verdes Estates celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary with dinner at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance. They were joined in their daughter, Carrie Jane Peters.

Delta Betas Seat Officers

Mrs. J. H. McCoy, 3411 W. 227th St., Torrance, was installed as president of Delta Beta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority at a dinner meeting Wednesday at the Tai Song restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

Assuming office with Mrs. McCoy were Mmes. Fred Koeller, vice president; Byron Scott, treasurer; John MacFarland, recording secretary and John Colmer, corresponding secretary. The "Girl of the Year" plaque was presented to Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta for her work for the chapter during the year. Mrs. James Dodson was given a "Certificate of Achievement."

The chapter presented a check for $350 to Mrs. Stanley Le Bon, representative of the Garden Valley School for Mentally Retarded Children. The check was the proceeds from Delta Beta's "Casual Capers" dinner dance held last month.
