Round Table to Hold General Summer Meet

The Redondo Beach Round Table will hold its summer general meeting June 17 at the Plush Horse Restaurant, according to John P. Burch, president.

The Round Table is composed of 60 Redondo Beach civic and organizational leaders selected to study, evaluate, and report on problems affecting the social, cultural, and economic life of the beach city.

The meeting will start at 8 a.m. with a breakfast session and continue uninterrupted through luncheon.

Athletes Elect Fall Leaders

Tom Hanson has been elected president of Bishop Montgomery High's Block-M society following several run-off elections. Hanson defeated Gary Nesenson to win the Block-M gavel.

Lettermen elected Val Pescar president, while the Girls' Athletic Association named Patti Schnell as its head for next year.

To assist Hanson with his chores as president, Block-M members elected Irl Davis vice president. Other officers are Mike Appel, secretary; John Redding, treasurer, and Tod Gulick, publicity director. Nesenson will serve as parliamentarian.

Jeannie Coast will serve as vice president of Lettermen, while Anita Bertuzzi will keep minutes and correspondence as secretary.

UCLA Extension Register For Summer Course Now

Registration is now open for University of California Extension's summer session program in the South Bay area including 24 education courses, according to Dr. Richard D. Guengrich, Extension's South Bay area representative and principal of North High School in Torrance. Summer session begins the week of June 21.

Locations of the education courses, ranging in content from counseling to methods, include Manhattan Beach, Redondo Beach, Inglewood, Torrance, Hawthorne and Long Beach.

Further program information may be obtained at University Extension's South Bay headquarters at 3620B W. 182nd St., North High School. Course registration may be accomplished at the same office (DA 3-4773).

Cabinet officers of the Girls' Athletic Association include vice president Paula Vulmanic, general secretary Mary Reimer, recording secretary Sue Scott, corresponding secretary Maureen Reimer, publicity manager Bonnie Burgone, and historian Frances Buckley.

In student body balloting, Robby Heinlein, Jim Reutz, Jim Walker, and Dennis Zentil were elected varsity cheerleaders. Their female counterparts are Janet Embry, Sandy Holtz, Kathy Ramstead, and Therese Ryan.
