

RESTAURANT OF THE WEEK . . . Pigalle, located at 1666 S. Pacific Coast Highway, is often referred to as the "off-beat heart of Paris." It is open seven days a week and features choice French dishes, champagne, and wines. Bernard Osbaldeston, Chef Alex, and Jacques Milon state that the food is so good that even their chef eats there. Banquet facilities are also available. For reservations phone FR 8-9057.

SUCCESS STORY . . . Tony and Jeanne Trutanich have recently celebrated the grand opening of their unique nightclub called Top O' Tony's. The colorful club, located at 210 Fisherman's Wharf, is an engineering masterpiece which offers the public an unusually picturesque ocean view. Steaks, seafoods, and a wide variety of cocktails highlight the elegant menu.

FRIENDLY SERVICE . . . Viola Humane, Manager Clara Dahlke, and Coy Moore are just a few of the friendly people who are on hand at the Red Balloon restaurant, 17544 Hawthorne Blvd. to make your visit a memorable one. Steaks, seafoods, and a warm family type atmosphere highlight this colorful restaurant.

THE TACO BELL STORY . . . Began in Southern California in 1952. The concept of a fast service of food from an uncomplicated menu, found a ready acceptance from customers who themselves were mobile and economically minded. Since then TACO BELL Mexican food specialties have become widely acclaimed throughout the state and beyond. The quick delicious meals of Taco Bell are easy to prepare, and the clean design of counter and assembly areas, permits operators to handle peak volume of customers with maximum efficiency, and minimum customer waiting. Thousands of Taco Bell meals are enjoyed by discriminating customers every day, and their increasing popularity is a measure of the uniformly high standard of quality, rigidly maintained throughout the growing chain of restaurants. GLEN W. BELL JR., president and originator of Taco Bell, is a prominent Southern California businessman, widely known and respected. His determination to provide low cost, palate pleasurable Mexican foods, has transformed a dream into reality. His long experience, and knowledge of many sauces, was the key to the success of Taco Bell houses, and the high principles of ethics and service in business to which he subscribes, makes his the best hand to guide owners of his franchises to similar success. His latest triumph is the all new Taco Bell located at 1654 W. Carson, Torrance and Three more are being planned for the South Bay Area.
