

What's Cookin' For Next Year

"Kitchen Society" was the theme of the installation of new Lioness officers at a dinner dance at the Tasman Seas, with husbands as guests. Each officer was presented with a fancy apron, with the symbol of her office on the pocket, by Mrs. Walter Keberlein, installing officer. Carrying out the theme are these officers from left, Mmes. Ross Morris, treasurer; Jack Smith, first vice-president; Paul Burnam, president; Robert Williams, corresponding secretary; and Alfred Redisich, hair puller. Other officers installed were Mmes. John Ritchie, second vice-president and Lou Assink, secretary. Chairmen for the new year are Mmes. Clarence Clark, sunshine; Joe Bonando, hospitality; Pete Radisch and Walter Keberlein, telephone; Cecil Powell, membership; A. F. R. Ewalt, publicity; and Richard Vandeland, auditor. (Press-Herald Photo)

Bay Harbor Hospital Guild Installs; Pays Recognition

Bay Harbor Hospital Guild installed its new officers for the coming year at a dinner meeting at the Palms restaurant in Torrance with Dr. George Wall serving as the installing officer.

Endowed with their duties of office were Mmes. William Russell, president; John Rados, president-elect; Charles Crawford, first vice president; Thomas Yoshida, second vice president; Steven Meier, third vice president; Fred Pierce, treasurer; Charles Sell, recording secretary; Bertram Lee, corresponding secretary.

New committee chairmen are Mmes. Ted Springfield, gift shop; M. J. Shepard, Volunteers; John Wirsin, sewing club; Pete DeVriendt, vending machines; Van Lisman, maternity chairman.

On the maternity committee are Mmes. E. J. Benson, Richard Rozendal, and Fred Pierce. Other committee heads are Mmes. Glenn Wymore, historian; Wade White, hospitality; J. F. Pilgreen, hours; Fred Pierce, blood bank; Jack Hurley, arts and crafts; Glenn Dale, parliamentarian; G. F. Lorge, and Donald Houske, Candy Strippers.

Chairman of the installation was Mrs. Charles Sell. Decorations were the work of Mrs. Jack Hurley.

Mrs. Ted Evans, president, presented a number of honored guests. They were Frank Kredel, administrator; Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, director of nurses; Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Buzanis, Dr. and Mrs. James Redwine; Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Yoshida; Dr. and Mrs. George Wall; Glenn Wymore, Charles Crawford, Dean Johnson, Don Alexander, and John Street.

Past presidents of the seven year old guild were introduced. Mmes. John Rados, Charles Crawford, Van Lisman, Hermosa Smith, Charles Sell, R. D. Higgins and Ted Evans.

Hour pins were presented by Frank Kredel to guild members who had totaled 17,192 hours during the past year. Candy Strippers had totaled 932 hours during the past year. The Guild had also contributed $4,800 to the hospital during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Springfield were presented a life membership in the hospital guild in appreciation of their work with the gift shop. Mrs. Springfield was appointed chairman of the project May 31, 1961. During the four year period, Mrs. Springfield has turned over to the guild $10,000 in profits.

Mrs. Springfield's committee consists of Mmes. Jack Hurley, Van Lisman, Glenn Wymore, Frank Lane, Charles Sell, Marion Welch and Pete DeVriendt.

Check Presentation

Mrs. Andrew Acampora, retiring president of the Torrance Woman's Club, left, presents a check for $100 to Mrs. Harry Reach, public relations chairman of the Southwest Assn. for the Retarded, at the installation luncheon held Wednesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. J. G. Laird, right, secretary, looks on. The money will be used for the training program of mentally retarded adults at the shelter workshop, 1725 W. 180th St., Gardena. (Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 13, 1965

B-1

Patty Stetson to Head Mercy College Nurses

Patty Stetson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rodney A. Stetson, 1427 El Prado, Torrance, has been elected president of the student body at Mercy Hospital College of Nursing in San Diego for the coming year. Patty was graduated from Bishop Montgomery High School in 1963.

Classmates from Bishop Montgomery High now at Mercy College with Patty include Mary Rounds and Peggy McLaughlin. Mary is the daughter of Dr. Vincent J. Rounds, Redondo Beach pediatrician.

When the girls complete their training next spring, they will be the first class to be graduated from the new 11-story Mercy Hospital now nearing completion.

PATTY STETSON ... Class Prexy

At Dinner-Dance

Ladies of Elks Install Officers

Mrs. Anthony Alonge, 1641 W. 225th St., Harbor City, was installed as president of the Torrance Ladies of the Elks at a dinner dance at the Elks Club on Saturday evening.

The new president has served on the board for the past four years. Her husband is a charter member of the local Elks lodge. The couple has lived in Harbor City for the past thirteen years and in California for 25 years, coming from New York.

Mrs. Alonge succeeds Mrs. Alex Bordeau, who was presented with a plaque and a gift of appreciation for her leadership during the past year.

Patrick Huffine, past exalted ruler, conducted the installation ceremony. Installed with Mrs. Alonge were Mmes. Willmer Oak, first vice president; Patrick and Elmer Lancaster, corresponding secretary.

Huffine, second vice president; David Pombert, third vice president; Harry Alexander, recording secretary; Marvin Jones, treasurer;

Chairmen ratified for the 1965-66 year are Mmes. Eudora Thornton, birthdays; Ray Cheek and Roy Dawson, bulletin; Earl Morley, capsule; Bill Wagner, Christmas welfare; Jerome Polson, hospitality; Carl Stiles, Joy Ann Voss, and Laura Lee Cregeen, hostesses; Marvin Pike, membership; Forest Fahnestock, name tags; James Halbert, photographer; Eleanor Johnson, publicity; Roland Gosselin, record book; and Larry Hanson, registration.

Following the ceremony, Exalted Ruler Don George addressed the new officers and congratulated the Elks Ladies on past accomplishments.

A buffet dinner preceded the installation. A combo furnished music for dancing to conclude the festivities.

MRS. ANTHONY ALONGE ... New President (Seaman Portrait)

Symphony Gathering

Attending a champagne reception and dinner honoring the Southern California Symphony Assn. are from left, Mrs. Godfrey Gregg and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ringle, all of Palos Verdes. The dinner was sponsored Thursday evening by the Peninsula Committee of the Symphony Assn. at the newly-decorated Galley West at Marineland restaurant. Proceeds from the dinner go to the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

B'nai B'rith Plans

Membership Party

"A Fantasy of Flowers" is the theme of the gala evening planned by the B'nai B'rith Women, Southview Chapter, honoring new members on Wednesday evening, June 16 at 8 p.m. at the recreation room of the Parkview Village Apts., 20707 Anza Ave., Torrance.

Costumes, depicting flowers, will be worn in an amusing skit. Participating will be Mmes. Seymour Lampel, membership chairman, Joseph Bishop, Harry Herz, Aaron Lipton, Arnold Savader, Jules Rensen and Lester Sacks.

Many of the festive decorations were designed by Mrs. Bishop and made by the membership committee as were the place mats, name tags and costumes.

A fruit dessert will be served. Hostesses are Mmes. Alvin Fliegman, hospitality chairman, Ben Kerman, Mrs. Lampel and her committee.

Guests and prospective members are invited to attend. For further information and reservations Mrs. Seymour Lampel may be called.

Calories Amid Fruit and Flowers

Luscious strawberries, piled high with whipped cream, to be served as dessert at the membership party planned by the B'nai B'rith Women next Wednesday evening, cause much concern for Mrs. Harry Herz, left, who dug out her calorie counter book as she watched Mrs. Seymour Lampel, center, and Mrs. Lester Sacks create the colorful fruit dessert. The women are wearing their flower hats, part of their costume for a humorous skit to be presented as the program. (Press-Herald Photo)