

Little League and Summer-Go Hand in Hand

Flappers and Jellybeans

"Roaring 20s" era will come to life Saturday evening when the Riviera Little League stages its benefit dinner dance at the Redondo American Legion hall. Dads in raccoon coats and moms in flapper dresses will dance to the music of the Imperial Band. A social hour at 7:30 will be followed by dinner at 8:30 p.m. In a "roaring" mood are from left, Bruce Donley, Nita Cable and Doug Jarvis. Mrs. Rod Freeman may be called for reservations.

(Press Herald Photo)

Take a Little More

Leo Murrillo, Torrance American Little League father, with an already crammed picnic basket, gets pressure from his Little League son, Steve, and auxiliary members, left, Mrs. Peter Koop, chairman, and Mrs. Murrillo, right, to pack more food in the basket. It will take lots of food for the auxiliary's family picnic to be held July 5 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Torrance Park.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Staverts Travel "Navajo Trail"

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stavert of Merrill Dr. have returned from a two and one-half weeks vacation trip on which they traveled the famous Navajo Trail, viewing historic America.

The couple went first to Tucson, Ariz., on to El Paso, Texas, Juarez, Mex., Carlsbad Caverns, Santa Fe and Taos, New Mexico, Mesa Verde National Park and the Grand Canyon were the interesting climax of their trip.

Entertains at Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. John Melville entertained her club at a luncheon and bridge party last Thursday afternoon.

Club members present were Mmes. Paul Loranger, Dean Sears, M. Millar, Delbert Thomsen, and Eugene Cook. Guests were Mmes. Ronnie Gordon and William Christian.

Mrs. Cook will be the club's next hostess.

Three Generations

Three generations were present when members of a bridge club, who have played together for the past 17 years, and their daughters, were entertained at a party last Thursday evening given by Mrs. Fred Hilton, Sr. at her home, 2656 W. Carson St.

This special party, for this group of close friends, was given to note the many events of the human drama occurring to members and their families.

Mrs. Don Anderson, a charter member of the club, and her family are moving to Riverside. She was presented with a farewell gift.

Mrs. Jack Cole, a recent bride, the former Sharon Snyder, daughter of Mrs. Al Snyder, club member, was given a wedding gift.

Mrs. Wesley Megow, club member, was presented with a baby gift to be delivered to her new granddaughter, Jacqueline Nancy, E. R. Flagg and daughters, Linda and Charlotte.

ette, born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Megow of Whittier, formerly of Torrance.

And they remembered the sick, with a gift to Mrs. Leroy Pulliam, who is hospitalized.

An evening of visiting was enjoyed. Punch and other refreshments were served from a table centered by an arrangement of red roses.

***

Mothers, daughters and granddaughters, together for the evening, included Mrs. Fred Hilton Sr., and Mrs. Fred Hilton, Jr.; Wesley Megow and daughter, Jackie; Marvin McCabe and daughter, Grace; J. J. Cannon and daughter, Mrs. Tim Smith, who recently returned from Arizona; Vaun Whittington; Al Snider and daughter, Mrs. Jack Cole; Don Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Virginia Greene, and her daughter, Erin; Jim Pulliam and daughter, Nancy; E. R. Flagg and daughters, Linda and Charlotte.

Support the Home Team

Auxiliaries Busy

With summer at hand, Little League families now have more time to devote to the activities of the baseball program.

***

Throughout Torrance where nine Little Leagues provide more than 2,500 boys with organized baseball competition, dances, dinners and other fund raising drives and social functions are planned by the league auxiliaries.

***

In addition to determining league championships during the month of June, teams are selected from each league for tournament play-offs in July and August.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 16, 1965

B-1

Ramsey-Moore Nuptials

In a high noon ceremony on May 29 at the Manhattan Beach Community Church, Miss Jo Dee Ramsey daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ramsey, 1532 W. 221st St., Torrance, became the bride of Peter Paul Moore, 2427 Cabrillo, Torrance. Mrs. Jane McWade of Wilmington is the mother of the bridegroom.

Dr. Wendell L. Miller officiated at the marriage ceremony.

Mr. Ramsey escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a floor length sheath gown of white organza fashioned with a bateau neckline and elbow length sleeves. The skirt was of embroidered organza. A flat bow held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias.

Mrs. Dalene Morris served as matron of honor, wearing lavender dotted Swiss. Mrs. Connie Turner was the bridesmaid, gowned in pink.

Johnny O'Neal performed the best man duties. Ushers were Jerry Morris, Marvin Smith, James DePasse and Harry Paine.

The 75 guests attended a reception at the church hall after which the bridal couple left on a San Francisco honeymoon.

Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Narbonne High School while her husband was graduated from Torrance High.

MRS. PETER MOORE (Seeman Portrait)

Too Many Cooks

Joe Carter, coach of the Major Yankees of the Torrance Central Little League, gets too much advice on how to make pancake batter from auxiliary members, from left, Mmes. Don Merrell, ticket chairman, Herb Dugger, auxiliary president, and Dick Wenker, breakfast chairman. The auxiliary's benefit Pancake Breakfast will be served Saturday morning from 8 to 11 a.m. at the Certi-Bond Dept. Store. Door prizes will be awarded and tickets may be purchased at the door, 501 Van Ness Ave., Torrance.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Beachcomber Daze

Donning island costumes and practicing on musical instruments Southwood Little League auxiliary members get in the mood for their annual Beachcomber Luau to be staged June 19 at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Bellepointe, Harbor City. They are from left, Mmes. Frances L. Notch, ways and means chairman; Raymond Cox, president, Robert Watson, publicity, George G. Sidio, purchasing; and Ed Stahlberg, vice president. A roast beef dinner will be served at 8 and the Majestics will start the dance music at 9 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Brides of the Future

ROETTGER-FREDERICKS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, 23043 Doris Way, entertained approximately 100 guests at a champagne reception at their home on Sunday afternoon, June 6, to announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn, to Benjamin Simank Fredericks.

The wedding will take place on the evening of Sept. 25 at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Crum of Ocean Ave., Torrance, and Mr. Oscar Roettger of Redondo, all early residents of this area.

Miss Roettger was graduated from South High School and El Camino College in 1962. She is employed as a secretary with Space Technology Laboratories.

The bride-to-be is a member of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and teaches Sunday school at the Lutheran Church.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fredericks of Northridge and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ben. O. Simank of Orange Cove.

Mr. Fredericks was graduated from the Granada Hills High School and received his degree in education from the California Lutheran College in May this year.

He is employed by United Air Lines.

CAROLYN ROETTGER

Party for Travelers

A drop-in luncheon, attended by thirty friends, is being given today by Mrs. John Melville as a bon-voyage party for her daughters, Misses Suzanne and Margo Melville and Miss Judy Garrett of Newport Beach, who leave Sunday, June 20, for a summer in Europe.

The girls will fly TWA to London for five days before going to Germany to pick up a Volkswagen for their continental tour. They will return to California on Aug. 25.

Suzanne Melville received her degree in education from the Oregon State University on Sunday, June 6. She will teach next fall in the Torrance Unified School district.

The Melvilles went to Oregon to attend the graduation and were accompanied home by Suzanne. The trio stopped in San Jose to visit Margo, who was completing her first year at San Jose State College. Margo arrived home Sunday.

Their traveling companion, Judy Garrett is a student at the University of Southern California.

BUCK-TONE

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Buck of New York City announce the engagement of their daughter, Della Mary, to Thomas Neal Tone, son of Mrs. Loraine Tone of Torrance, and the late Mr. James Tone.

The future bride is a graduate of Adelphi University, where she was a member of Phi Mu sorority. She is employed by the I.B.M. Corp., in Los Angeles.

Mr. Tone attended school in Inglewood, was graduated from Walter Meier Lutheran High and El Camino Junior College. He is presently studying for his bachelor of arts degree at California State College at Long Beach. Mr. Tone is employed by the C.P.R. division of The Upjohn Co. in Torrance.

The wedding will be solemnized on June 20 in New York City. A reception honoring the newlyweds will be held here on July 3.

DELIA BUCK