

Newly-Installed Officers Ready ---

At the Gavel Sound

Benefit of the Riviera Hospital is uppermost in the minds of these new auxiliary officers, who were installed at a luncheon at the Indian Village. When Mrs. John I. Casey, new president, raps the gavel in September to open a new club year, these officers will lend their support. Pictured on the stairs are, Mmes. James Layden, Douglas Toll, John Casey, president, C. L. Petersen and David Dickey.

Take the Reins

Activities of the Torrance Y-Wives will be directed next year by, from left, Mmes. Lee Housman, president; Allan Billings, vice-president; David Sowens, second vice-president; Charles Robbins, assistant secretary, and Harold Hunsaker, treasurer. New officers were installed by Carol Wood, YWCA director, at a luncheon held at the Indian Village following summer recess, the Y-Wives will meet Sept. 22 at the YWCA. Interested women are invited to attend.

(Press-Herald Photo)

When
The Meeting Is Called to Order
Next Fall

Golf-O-Rama Set Aug. 2

Alondra Park Women's Golf Club is preparing for a "Golf-o-Rama", their sixth annual Invitational Golf Tournament, on August 2. Approximately one-hundred twenty women golfers from the Southern California area are expected at the Club's gala event of the year, featuring 18-hole medal play, buffet luncheon, and prizes galore.

Mrs. Newell Larsen of Torrance, president, and her board members, Mmes. Raymond Dowd and James Murray, of Redondo Beach, James Foulds and Jack Ward, of El Segundo, and Mmes. Lawrence McBee, Edwin Hammer, Freeman Battershell and Gerald King, of Torrance, are planning to make this a memorable day for golfers on the distaff side.

Mrs. McBee, tournament chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Murray, are selecting the many prizes to be given for low net scores. Additional prizes will be awarded for low gross over the field, longest drive, and low putts.

Anyone wishing further information is cordially invited to call Alondra Park Golf Club.

Leadership in New Hands

Leadership in plans to benefit Riviera Community Hospital, Torrance, passed into new hands with installation of officers of the hospital's Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday, June 16.

A ceremony was held following luncheon at the Indian Village.

Mrs. John I. Casey, Redondo Beach, became the new president. She succeeds Mrs. Lyle McDonald, Torrance, who presently is on a tour of Europe with her family.

Mrs. William Bailey, Redondo Beach, former president of the auxiliary, served as installing officer.

Other officers are Mmes. Douglas Toll, Palos Verdes Estates, first vice-president; James Layden, Inglewood, second vice-president, and Carl J. Wood, Torrance, third vice-president.

Mrs. James Robinson, Rolling Hills, is recording secretary; C. L. Petersen, Palos Verdes, corresponding secretary, and David Dickey, Palos Verdes Estates, treasurer.

Several social events to earn money for projects to aid Riviera Community Hospital will be announced soon, Mrs. Casey said.

The new president is active in community service work through membership in organizations other than the hospital auxiliary. She is treasurer of the Southwest Association for Mentally Retarded Children and historian of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Alumni. She also is a member of Las Vecinas.

Catholic Daughters Install

During an impressive ceremony conducted by Mrs. Paul Rafter, district deputy, new officers of St. Catherine 1373, Catholic Daughters of America, were installed for the coming year. They were Mmes. Charles Butterfield, grand regent; Louie Derouin, vice regent; Robert Hammerle, prophetess; Richard Olson, financial secretary; Elles Cook, treasurer; George Rausch, historian; Michael Blasco, monitor; Gordon Hicks, lecturer; Robert Crain, sentinel; Harry Hamilton, organist; Ralph Sullivan, and Laura Kuhn, three year trustees.

Remaining in office are Mmes. Laurence Derouin and J. W. Crew, two year trustees; Robert Klages and Gordon Cady, one year trustees. Officers, all in white formal, and the robe of their respective office, were charged individually with the official duties by Mrs. Rafter, assisted by Miss Laura Lysaght, the installing monitor.

Highlighting the serving table, covered with lavender net over taffata, was a gold Madonna centered in a lavender and gold floral arrangement designed by Mrs. Don Cowden, a past grand regent of the local court.

Distinguished guests included Rev. William P. O'Toole, court chaplain; Mmes. Paul Haberstroh, state regent; Delor Bombardier, past state regent; Hans Peterson, state chairman of extension; Helen Becker, state chairman of public relations; Wesley Mudk, state chairman of World Missions; Gust Sundquist, archdiocese chairman of legislation.

Grand Regents representing their courts were Mmes. Kathryn Coy, Ct. Compton; Doris Garlock, Ct. Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Los Angeles; Marie Burks, Ct. Christ the King, Garden Grove; Prudence Berger, Ct. St. Ann, Long Beach; Monica Bergschneider, Ct. Holy Family, Los Angeles; Irene Bono, Ct. Joan of Arc, Inglewood; Alice M. Buckley, Ct. Our Lady of Victory, Redondo; Jane Kilcoyne, Ct. St. Michael, Westchester; Anna Ertz, Ct. Our Lady of Providence, Hawthorne.

The guest book was handled by Mrs. Laurence Derouin and Mrs. J. W. Crew.

Presiding at the silver service were Mmes. Paul Haberstroh, Delor Bombar-dier, J. W. Crew and Laurence Derouin.

Mrs. Robert Hammerle served as chairman for the evening assisted by Mmes. Thomas Murphy, Robert Lewellen, Louie Derouin, Helen Bishop, Don Cowden, Elles Cook, Lenord Reid, Howard Owen, Alexander Egger, Paul Labonawski, Charles Belba, Austin Shay, Regina Cunningham, Leona Biloki and John Hoffman.

Gavel Returned

Mrs. Charles Butterfield, left, accepts the gavel for her second term of president of the Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, from Mrs. Paul Rafter, district deputy who served as installing officer, as Mrs. Louie Derouin, vice grand regent looks on. The installation ceremonies were attended by CDA dignitaries from throughout the archdiocese.

(Photography by Stanford)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 23, 1965

B-1

Engagements

Lundeen - Armes

At a family buffet dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lundeen at their home 26223 Alta Vista, the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Thomas E. Armes was announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Armes, 1600 W. 248th St., Harbor City are parents of the future bridegroom.

The wedding will be solemnized at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita on Aug. 27.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Marymount High School and is a senior at Marymount College, Palos Verdes campus.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Serra High School, is now working on his business administration major at Long Beach State College. He is employed by Alcoa Aluminum, where he is a member of the management team, and is employed in the Forge Industrial and Engineering Dept.

SUZANNE LUNDEEN
(Portrait by Seeman)

Parsons - Wilson

On Aug. 7 at the First Methodist Church in Belmont, N. C., Miss Margaret Elizabeth Parsons will become the bride of Richard David Wilson, son of Mrs. Cecil F. Wilson of Torrance and the late Rev. Mr. Wilson.

The future bride is the daughter of Mrs. Grady L. Parsons, 23 Circle Dr., Belmont, and the late Mr. Parsons.

She was graduated from the Belmont High School and the Greensboro College at Greensboro, N.C., this spring. Miss Parsons will teach at Alamance School in Greensboro this fall.

Mr. Wilson, a graduate of Canisteo Central School in New York and Greensboro College, is a social worker with Guilford County, Department of Public Welfare, Greensboro.

MARGARET PARSONS