

Exciting Hula Hop

A three piece band will furnish island music for dancing, Saturday evening, when the Tordondo Little League Auxiliary stages a "Hula Hop" at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Bellepointe Ave., Harbor City. Beginning at 9 p.m., many door prizes will be awarded. Wearing island costumes, auxiliary member Mrs. John Johnson, treasurer, teaches the hula to Mrs. Robert Nance, vice-president, while Mmes. Morris E. Bewley, president; Emmett Allen, secretary, and John Gentile, hospitality chairman, look on. Tickets may be bought at the door. (Press-Herald Photo)

Pre-Nuptial Parties Fete Recent Bride

Miss Charlotte Percy, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Percy, who was married on May 22 to Mr. Daniel Saulsbury at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, where the Rev. Mr. Percy is pastor, was honored at a series of pre-nuptial courtesies.

University of California friends and members of the St. Mark's Episcopal Church choir in Berkeley entertained at a linen shower for the bride at the home of Judy Craft in Berkeley. Co-hostesses for the shower were Miss Sharon Trueblood and Mrs. Richard Frost.

Occidental Zeta Tau Zeta sorority sisters of Miss Percy, complimented her at a kitchen shower on May 8 at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. Richard Copeland. Other guests were Mrs. Doris Grant, sorority house mother, and Mrs. Hugh R. Percy, mother of the bride.

Mrs. Walter J. Faller gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Percy on May 15 at her Garden Grove home. The table was centered by a large bride doll encircled by flowers. A box luncheon was served. Mrs. Faller was assisted by her daughter, Miss Kathy Faller.

Mr. Daniel Saulsbury entertained at a dinner in the Tapestry room at the Jump'n Jack restaurant on Friday evening, May 21, following the wedding rehearsal. Guests included family members and members of the wedding party.

Birthday Event

Mrs. Alice Madden of Torrance entertained recently for Mrs. Mae Prochut of Torrance, who was noting her birthday anniversary. Well-wishers gathered at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant included Mrs. Corinne Fleming of Gardena and Mrs. Lorraine Fleming of Torrance.

Installation Will Close Year

Las Vecinas Woman's Club will hold its final meeting for the 1964-65 season at the Indian Village Restaurant, tomorrow at 12 noon. Installation of new officers for the coming year will be the main event of the meeting.

Mrs. E. R. Harvey, a member of Las Vecinas for many years, will become the new president for the 1965-66 year. Mrs. Harvey lives in Torrance with her husband, Mr. Elvis R. "Bud" Harvey, and their five children. She has been the chorus director for the Las Vecinas chorus for several years; also, the Choir Director for the Walteria Methodist Church. Mrs. Harvey graduated from Occidental College and took graduate work at the University of Redlands. She, somehow, manages in her spare time to be a substitute teacher

El Camino College and is, also, a Commander in the Naval Reserve.

Other executive board officers to be installed will be Mmes. T. R. Corazza, Redondo Beach, first vice president; Max E. Webber, Palos Verdes Estates, second vice president; W. G. Chandler, Redondo Beach, recording secretary; Colvin Kindschi, Redondo Beach, corresponding secretary; Michael J. Suhrada, Redondo Beach, treasurer; Mrs. Ross Potts, Redondo Beach, membership chairman; Jack J. Reed, Redondo Beach, philanthropy chairman; and John E. Johnson, Redondo Beach, publicity chairman.

Provisional members of the club will, also, be honored and installed as active members of Las Vecinas for the coming year at this meeting.

Israeli Program Slated For University Women

South Bay University Women will meet today, to conclude their year, at the home of Miss Jennie Tufeld, 5 Ringbit Rd., Rolling Hills.

The affair is to be a pot-luck party with an Israeli theme, in conjunction with the completion of an intensive study of the history, present and probable future of Israel, by the international relations study section, led by Mrs. Mark Kolpin.

Mrs. Robert Sussman, program chairman, has collected recipes for such delicacies as "falafel," "Tahana paste," "hamos," "pita bread," and casseroles of chicken with Greek olives and lamb with eggplant. The authentic recipes were provided by Mrs. Unger, a native of Israel and wife of Rabbi Jerome A. Unger of Torrance.

Mrs. Unger has loaned the group some of her collection of records of native Israeli music, which will be played during dinner. Arrangements of gladioli, a flower popular in Israel, will be used in decorating. Supper will be preceded by a business meeting by Mrs. Reginald Legge, president, at which time new officers will be elected.

On the committee for this evening's affair are Mmes. Sussman, Legge, Martin, Surtooes, Edwin Sack, John Avkian and Tufeld.
